Report of the ... Meeting of the British Association for the Advancement of Science British Association for the Advancement of Science. Meeting,1901 Negotiation Within Domination Ethelia Ruiz Medrano,Susan Kellog,2011-05-18

Negotiation within Domination examines the formation of colonial governance in New Spain through interactions between indigenous peoples and representatives of the Spanish Crown The book highlights the complexity of native negotiation and mediation with colonial rule across time culture and place and how it shaped colonial political and legal structures from the sixteenth to the eighteenth centuries Although indigenous communities reacted to Spanish presence with significant acts of resistance and rebellion they also turned to negotiation to deal with conflicts and ameliorate the consequences of colonial rule This affected not only the development of legal systems in New Spain and Mexico but also the survival and continuation of traditional cultures Bringing together work by Mexican and North American historians this collection is a crucially important and rare contribution to the field Negotiation within Domination is a valuable resource for native peoples as they seek to redefine and revitalize their identities and assert their rights relating to language and religion ownership of lands and natural resources rights of self determination and self government and protection of cultural and intellectual property It will be of interest primarily to specialists in the field of colonial studies and historians and ethnohistorians of New Spain The President's Report University of Chicago,1903 1897 98 includes summaries for 1891 to 1897 The Decennial Publications of the University of Chicago University of Chicago,1904 The Decennial Publications University of Chicago,1904 A bibliography of the Athapaskan languages Richard T.
