Recent American Poetry:

The New American Poetry, 1945-1960 Donald Allen, 1999 Donald Allen's prophetic anthology had an electrifying effect on two generations at least of American poets and readers. More than the repetition of familiar names and ideas that most anthologies seem to be about here was the declaration of a collective intelligent and thoroughly visionary work in progress, the primary example for its time of the anthology as manifesto. Its republication today complete with poems, statements on poetics, and autobiographical projections provides us again with a model of how a contemporary anthology can and should be shaped. In these essentials it remains as fresh and useful a guide as it was in 1960. Jerome Rothenberg, editor of Poems for the Millennium. The New American Poetry is a crucial cultural document central to defining the poetics and the broader cultural dynamics of a particular historical moment. Alan Golding, author of From Outlaw to Classic Canons in American Poetry. The Best American Poetry 2022 David Lehman, Matthew Zapruder, 2022-09-13 Updated annually and collected from electronic and print journals, an anthology showcases recent work from the best known and up and coming contemporary poets. The New Anthology of American Poetry Steven Gould Axelrod, Camille Roman, Thomas J. Travisano, 2003 Overview Steven Gould Axelrod, Camille Roman, and Thomas Travisano continue the standard of excellence set in Volumes I and II of this extraordinary anthology. Volume III provides the most compelling and wide-ranging selection available of American poetry from 1950 to the present. Its contents are just as diverse and multifaceted as America itself and invite readers to explore the world of poetry in the larger historical context of American culture. Nearly three hundred poems allow readers to explore canonical works by such poets as Elizabeth Bishop, Robert Lowell, and Sylvia Plath, as well as song lyrics from such popular musicians as Bob Dylan and Queen Latifah. Because contemporary American culture transcends the borders of the continental United States, the anthology also includes numerous transnational poets from Julia de Burgos to Derek Walcott. Whether they are the works of oblique avant-gardists like John Ashbery or direct populist poets like Allen Ginsberg, all of the selections are accompanied by extensive introductions and footnotes making the great poetry of the period fully accessible to readers for the first time. Modern American Poetry Harold Bloom, 2005 The essays collected in this volume survey the major works of modern American poetry from magnificent epics like Hart Crane's The Bridge and Wallace Stevens's Auroras of Autumn to such central lyrics as Eliot's The Love Song of J. Alfred Prufrock and Marianne Moore's Poetry. The complexity of modern American poetry has demanded appreciation and analysis of an especially high order, and the list of critics included here makes up a veritable all-star team of close readers from Kenneth Burke to Helen Vendler, from Richard Poirier to David Bromwich. The New Era in American Poetry Louis Untermeyer, 1919 For contents see Author Catalog. Fifty Years of American Poetry Academy of American Poets, 1995-08-01 Seer, critic, lover, madwoman: the poet's sensibility gives us a chance to experience them all. This rich, wide-ranging collection of work by scores of America's contemporary poets brings you both wisdom and entertainment in short verse. In it are represented with one poem each the chancellors fellows and award winners of the Academy of American Poets since 1934 The result is a unique sampler of the various literary styles and themes that have left their marks on the past five decades Fifty Years of American Poetry gives readers the opportunity to hear familiar voices and new ones and encounter the great American poems that have captured both our minds and our hearts The Academy of American Poets has as its stated purpose To encourage stimulate and foster the production of American poetry This was never limited to poets of any particular school method or category of poetry so this anthology is as representative a cross section of American poetry in the last 50 years as any of its kind The Academy is not a stodgy eastern provincial institution It encourages young poets recognizes the importance of change and growth in the poetry of America and believes that poetry is not for poets only This anthology was compiled on this basis Fifty Years Of American Poetry is not only educational but also inspirational hopefully imbuing everyone who reads it with a sense of the dynamic and development of American poetry in the last half century The Academy of American Poets is the only institution which could compile such a unique anthology because it is the only group which has consistently played a large part in the American poetry scene through its patronage to poets and its mission to make poetry an accessible and vital part of the American literary landscape published in 1962 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions The Postmoderns Donald Allen, George F. Butterick, 1982 This anthology includes many of the major poets to have emerged and gained pre eminence since World War II and whose writing reflects not only the significant changes in this nation s postwar history and the coming to grips with a nuclear age but also an entirely new way of looking at and structuring reality United by their postmodernist concerns with spontaneity instantism formal and syntactic flexibility and the revelation of both the creator and the process through the writing itself these 38 poets represent very diverse strains of an essential American individualism Included are many of the poets whose work first gained widespread national attention with the 1960 publication of The New American Poetry Charles Olson Allen Ginsberg Paul Blackburn LeRoi Jones Amiri Baraka Denise Levertov Robert Duncan and others Among the poets included here for the first time are Anne Waldman Diane di Prima Ed Sanders Jerome Rothenberg and James Koller In addition to a new preface by Allen and Butterick the book provides autobiographical notes of all the poets and listings of their major works New American Poets Jack Myers, Roger Weingarten, 2005 The best contemporary American poets are represented in this essential anthology Walks in the World Roger Gilbert, 2014-07-14 In the twentieth century no form of experience has been more frequently taken up by poets eager to capture both the openness and fluidity of life and the aesthetic closure of an artwork than that of a walk Examining the walk poem Roger Gilbert contends that at its heart is the desire to keep what we have lived What is the appeal of the walk poem for modern American poets According to Gilbert it provides a ready made frame within which to explore the full range of individual consciousness as it responds to and reflects on the world immediately at hand The unstructured plotless character of the walk allows poets to move freely from place to place image to image thought to thought Suggesting that the walk poem strikes a compromise between the American obsession with process or movement and more traditionally mimetic concerns Gilbert shows how it enables the poet to apprehend the world as horizon rather than landscape Through perceptive and extended analyses of walk poems by Frost Stevens Williams Roethke Bishop O Hara Snyder Ammons and Ashbery he uncovers a spectrum of representational strategies for transforming passing experiences into the more lasting substance of poetry Walks in the World addresses anyone who takes poetry seriously Originally published in 1991 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The New American Poetry of Engagement Ann Keniston, Jeffrey Gray, 2012-08-17 This anthology of poetry collects 21st century American works by both established and emerging poets that deal with the public events government policies ecological and political threats economic uncertainties and large scale violence that have largely defined the century to date But these 138 poems by 50 poets do not simply describe lament or bear witness to contemporary events they also explore the linguistic temporal and imaginative problems involved in doing so In this way the anthology offers a comprehensive look at contemporary American poetry demonstrating that poets are moving at once toward a new engagement with public concerns and toward a focus on the problems of representation A detailed introduction by the editors along with poetics statements by many of the poets add depth and context to a book that will appeal to anyone interested in the state and evolution of contemporary American poetry Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here
