Mathematical Correspondences and Critical Editions Maria Teresa Borgato, Erwin

Neuenschwander, Irène Passeron, 2019-03-22 Mathematical correspondence offers a rich heritage for the history of mathematics and science as well as cultural history and other areas It naturally covers a vast range of topics and not only of a scientific nature it includes letters between mathematicians but also between mathematicians and politicians publishers and men or women of culture Wallis Leibniz the Bernoullis D Alembert Condorcet Lagrange Gauss Hermite Betti Cremona Poincar and van der Waerden are undoubtedly authors of great interest and their letters are valuable documents but the correspondence of less well known authors too can often make an equally important contribution to our understanding of developments in the history of science Mathematical correspondences also play an important role in the editions of collected works contributing to the reconstruction of scientific biographies as well as the genesis of scientific ideas and in the correct dating and interpretation of scientific writings This volume is based on the symposium Mathematical Correspondences and Critical Editions held at the 6th International Conference of the ESHS in Lisbon Portugal in 2014 In the context of the more than fifteen major and minor editions of mathematical correspondences and collected works presented in detail the volume discusses issues such as History and prospects of past and ongoing edition projects Critical aspects of past editions The complementary role of printed and digital editions Integral and partial editions of correspondence Reproduction techniques for manuscripts images and formulae and the editorial challenges and opportunities presented by digital technology

History of Linguistics 2005 Douglas A. Kibbee, 2007-11-28 As each period in the history of the language sciences has chosen to focus on different key questions the study of that history promises to open our eyes to the variety of interesting questions that can be asked and answered taking off the blinders of contemporary preoccupations September 1 5 2005 linguists from twenty five countries gathered at the University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign to share their passion for the history of their discipline This volume is a distillation of many fine contributions from that conference shedding light on the many different approaches to the study of language

Stranded Encyclopedias, 1700-2000 Linn Holmberg, Maria

Simonsen,2021-02-17 In Stranded Encyclopedias 1700 2000 Exploring Unfinished Unpublished Unsuccessful Encyclopedic Projects fourteen scholars turn to the archives to challenge the way the history of modern encyclopedism has long been told Rather than emphasizing successful publications and famous compilers they explore encyclopedic enterprises that somehow failed With a combined attention to script print and digital cultures the volume highlights the many challenges facing those who have pursued complete knowledge in the past three hundred years By introducing the concepts of stranded and strandedness it also provides an analytical framework for approaching aspects often overlooked in histories of encyclopedias books and learning the unpublished the unfinished the incomplete the unsuccessfully disseminated and the no longer updated By examining these aspects in a new and original way this book will be of value to anyone interested in the history of encyclopedism and lexicography the history of knowledge language and ideas and the history of books writing translating and publishing Chapters 1 and 4 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer com Evolutionism in Eighteenth-century French Thought Mary Efron Gregory,2008 This book examines how eighteenth century French theorists Maillet Montesquieu La Mettrie Buffon Maupertuis Diderot Rousseau and Voltaire addressed evolutionism Each thinker laid down a building block that would eventually open the door to the mutability of species and a departure from the long held belief that the chain of beings is fixed This book describes how the philosophes established a triune relationship among contemporary scientific discoveries random creationism propelled by the motive and conscious properties of matter and the notion of the chain of being along with its corollaries plenitude and continuity Also addressed is the contemporary debate over whether apes could ever be taught to speak as well as the issue of race and the family of man Recherches sur Diderot et sur l'Encyclopédie Société Diderot,2025 The Man Who Flattened the Earth Mary Terrall,2006-05-05 Self styled adventurer literary wit philosopher and statesman of science Pierre Louis Moreau de Maupertuis 1698 1759 stood at the center of Enlightenment science and culture Offering an elegant and accessible portrait of this remarkable man Mary Terrall uses the story of Maupertuis s life self fashioning and scientific works to explore what it meant to do science and to be a man of science in eighteenth century Europe Beginning his scientific career as a mathematician in Paris Maupertuis entered the public eye with a much discussed expedition to Lapland which confirmed Newton s calculation that the earth was flattened at the poles He also made significant and often intentionally controversial contributions to physics life science navigation astronomy and metaphysics Called to Berlin by Frederick the Great Maupertuis moved to Prussia to preside over the Academy of Sciences there Equally at home in salons caf s scientific academies and royal courts Maupertuis used his social connections and his printed works to enhance a carefully constructed reputation as both a man of letters and a man of science His social and institutional affiliations in turn affected how Maupertuis formulated his ideas how he presented them to his contemporaries and the reactions they provoked Terrall not only illuminates the life and work of a colorful and important Enlightenment figure but also uses his story to delve into many wider issues including the development of scientific institutions the impact of print culture on science and the interactions of science and government Smart and highly readable Maupertuis will appeal to anyone interested in eighteenth century science and culture Terrall's work is scholarship in the best sense Her explanations of arcane 18th century French physics mathematics astronomy and biology are among the most lucid available in any language Virginia Dawson American Historical Review Winner of the 2003 Pfizer Award from the History of Science Society

Reading 1759 Shaun Regan, 2012-10-26 Reading 1759 investigates the literary culture of a remarkable year in British and French history writing and ideas Familiar to many as the British year of victories during the Seven Years War 1759 was also an important year in the histories of fiction philosophy ethics and aesthetics Reading 1759 is the first book to examine together the range of works written and published during this crucial year Offering broad coverage of the year's work in writing these essays examine key works by Johnson Voltaire Sterne Adam Smith Edward Young Sarah Fielding and Christopher Smart along with such group projects as the Encyclopédie and the literary review journals of the mid eighteenth century Organized around a cluster of key topics the volume reflects the concerns most important to writers themselves in 1759 This was a year of the new and the modern as writers addressed current issues of empire and ethical conduct forged new forms of creative expression and grappled with the nature of originality itself Texts written and published in 1759 confronted the history of Western colonialism the problem of prostitution in a civilized society and the limitations of linguistic expression Philosophical issues were also important in 1759 not least the thorny question of causation while in France state censorship challenged the Encyclopédie the central Enlightenment project Taking into its purview such texts and intellectual developments Reading 1759 puts the literary culture of this singular and singularly important year on the scholarly map In the process the volume also provides a self reflective contribution to the growing body of annualized studies that focus on the literary output of specific years

Print, Politics and Trade in the French Atlantic Jane McLeod, 2024-07-09 The Labottiers were the largest printing and bookselling dynasty in eighteenth century Bordeaux From the 1680s to the sale of their business in 1794 three generations of this family acted as major cultural brokers in this booming Atlantic port serving the rapidly expanding commercial and legal sectors with books pamphlets and newspapers The lives and businesses of this family are heavily entwined with the histories of the Enlightenment French colonialism in the West Indies and the French Revolution We find the final generation welcoming the Revolution printing a pro revolutionary newspaper that framed the revolts in Haiti and Martinique in pro revolutionary terms They would come to establish their shop as a Jacobin centre and along with their workers and journalists navigated the forces of popular censorship and state control However despite these activities the Labottier printing and bookselling enterprise would eventually be destroyed by the very Revolution it had supported Through this lively microhistory of the Labottiers Jane McLeod presents the important role played by the flourishing Atlantic port economy in supporting the expansion of printing and bookselling Furthermore from McLeod's extensive archival research into over thirty members of the Labotti re family emerges a new understanding of the role played by printers and booksellers in the spreading of the ideas and concerns that underpinned some of the landmark social cultural and political changes of the eighteenth century The Cambridge History of the Novel in French Adam Watt,2021-02-25 This History is the first in a century to trace the development and impact of the novel in French from its beginnings to the present Leading specialists explore how novelists writing in French have responded to the diverse personal economic socio political cultural artistic and environmental factors that shaped their worlds From the novel s medieval precursors to the impact of the internet the History provides fresh accounts of canonical and lesser known authors offering a global perspective beyond the national borders of the Hexagon to explore France s colonial past and its legacies Accessible chapters range widely including the French novel in Sub Saharan Africa data analysis of the novel system in the seventeenth century social critique in women s writing Sade s banned works and more Highlighting continuities and divergence between and within different periods this lively volume offers routes through a diverse literary landscape while encouraging comparison and connection making between writers works and historical periods Bodies of Thought Ann Thomson,2008-07-03 The church in danger latitudinarians socinians and hobbists Animal spirits and living fibres Mortalists and materialists Journalism exile and clandestinity Mid eighteenth century materialism Epilogue Some consequences Racializing Humankind:

Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Practices of 'Race' and Racism Julian T. D. Gärtner,Malin Wilckens,2022-02-14 Debates on historical and contemporary racism have recently become the subject of increasing public interest The Black Lives Matter movement as well as the Covid 19 pandemic have underlined the importance and urgent necessity of examining racism in society from a multidisciplinary angle The many facets of racism in the past and present also challenge the way we deal with history historical culture in a globalized world Rather than focusing on the history of ideas and its discursive development this volume will focus on the practices of actors It examines how and which practices especially practices of comparing are constitutive in the construction of race and manifestations of racism This edited volume brings together interdisciplinary contributions from history sociology political science American studies literary studies and media studies An important focus lies on the social asymmetries created by racialization including inequalities and violence The chapters foreground historical and contemporary practices of racism and discuss their appearance in different epochs and locations
