A decorative red circular graphic element, resembling a stylized sun or a lens flare, is positioned to the right of the author's name. It has a soft, glowing red center that fades into a lighter red and then into the white background of the slide.

Rich And Poor In Renaissance Venice:

Rich and Poor in Renaissance Venice Brian S. Pullan, 1971 Rich and Poor in Renaissance Venice ... Catholic St. to 1620 Brian S. Pullan, 1971 Charity and Economy in the Orphanages of Early Modern Augsburg Thomas Max Safley, 2023-08-21 This book examines the complex interrelationship between charity confession and capital in the orphanages of the Free Imperial City of Augsburg To provide the best care at the least cost the administrators of these traditionally non capitalistic organizations engaged in a wide variety of capitalistic practices in capital commodity and labor markets Their market orientated practices inspired bourgeois virtues that included the assessments of long term risk and reward the avoidance of excess and waste and the practice of obedience persistence and industry Under the pressures of confessional tension efficiency slowly evolved into a more complex notion of utility that placed the needs of the orphanages over the dictates of economy and the divisions of religion The product of monumental original research this book offers a substantial revision of current historical scholarship on poor relief social discipline organization building and the advent of capitalism A forthcoming volume will pursue these issues through a close study of the fortunes and fates of 8 000 Augsburg orphans These studies make required reading for advanced students of early modern Europe Tintoretto Tom Nichols, 2015-10-01 Jacopo Tintoretto 1518 94 is an ambiguous figure in the history of art His radically unorthodox paintings are not readily classifiable and although he was a Venetian by birth his standing as a member of the Venetian school is constantly contested But he was also a formidable maverick abandoning the humanist narratives and sensuous color palette typical of the great Venetian master Titian in favor of a renewed concentration on core Christian subjects painted in a rough and abbreviated chiaroscuro style This generously illustrated book offers an extensive analysis of Tintoretto's greatest paintings charting his life and work in the context of Venetian art and the culture of the Cinquecento Tom Nichols shows that Tintoretto was an extraordinarily innovative artist who created a new manner of painting which for all of its originality and sophistication was still able to appeal to the shared emotions of the widest possible audience This compact pocket edition features sixteen additional illustrations and a new afterword by the author and it will continue to be one of the definitive treatments of this once grossly overlooked master The Oxford Handbook of the Ancien Régime William Doyle, 2012 An exploration of current scholarly thinking about the wide and surprisingly complex range of historical problems associated with the study of Ancien Régime Europe A Companion to Venetian History, 1400-1797, 2013-07-11 The field of Venetian studies has experienced a significant expansion in recent years and the Companion to Venetian History 1400 1797 provides a single volume overview of the most recent developments It is organized thematically and covers a range of topics including political culture economy religion gender art literature music and the environment Each chapter provides a broad but comprehensive historical and historiographical overview of the current state and future directions of research The Companion to Venetian History 1400 1797 represents a new point of reference for the next generation of students of early modern Venetian studies as well as more broadly for scholars working on all aspects of the early modern world Contributors are Alfredo Viggiano Benjamin Arbel Michael Knapton Claudio Povolo Luciano Pezzolo Anna Bellavitis Anne Schutte Guido Ruggiero Benjamin Ravid Silvana Seidel Menchi Cecilia Cristellon David D Andrea Elisabeth Crouzet Pavan Wolfgang Wolters Dulcia Meijers Massimo Favilla Ruggero Rugolo Deborah Howard Linda Carroll Jonathan Glixon Paul Grendler Edward Muir William Eamon Edoardo Demo Margaret King Mario Infelise Margaret Rosenthal and Ronnie Ferguson

The Ghetto in Global History Wendy Z. Goldman, Joe William Trotter, Jr., 2017-11-27 The Ghetto in Global History explores the stubborn tenacity of the ghetto over time As a concept policy and experience the ghetto has served to maintain social religious and racial hierarchies over the past five centuries Transnational in scope this book allows readers to draw thought provoking comparisons across time and space among ghettos that are not usually studied alongside one another The volume is structured around four main case studies covering the first ghettos created for Jews in early modern Europe the Nazis use of ghettos the enclosure of African Americans in segregated areas in the United States and the extreme segregation of blacks in South Africa The contributors explore issues of discourse power and control examine the internal structures of authority that prevailed and document the lived experiences of ghetto inhabitants By discussing ghettos as both tools of control and as sites of resistance this book offers an unprecedented and fascinating range of interpretations of the meanings of the ghetto throughout history It allows us to trace the circulation of the idea and practice over time and across continents revealing new linkages between widely disparate settings Geographically and chronologically wide ranging The Ghetto in Global History will prove indispensable reading for all those interested in the history of spatial segregation power dynamics and racial and religious relations across the globe

Singlewomen in the European Past, 1250-1800 Judith M. Bennett, Amy M. Froide, 2013-02-01 When we think about the European past we tend to imagine villages towns and cities populated by conventional families married couples and their children Although most people did marry and pass many of their adult years in the company of a spouse this vision of a preindustrial Europe shaped by heterosexual marriage deceptively hides the well established fact that in some times and places as many as twenty five percent of women and men remained single throughout their lives Despite the significant number of never married lay women in medieval and early modern Europe the study of their role and position in that society has been largely neglected Singlewomen in the European Past opens up this group for further investigation It is not only the first book to highlight the important minority of women who never married but also the first to address the critical matter of differences among women from the perspective of marital status Essays by leading scholars among them Maryanne Kowaleski Margaret Hunt Ruth Mazo Karras Susan Mosher Stuard Roberta Krueger and Merry Wiesner deal with topics including the sexual and emotional relationships of singlewomen the economic issues and employment opportunities facing them the differences between the lives of widows and singlewomen the conflation of singlewomen and prostitutes and the problem of female slavery The chapters both illustrate the roles open to the singlewoman in the thirteenth through eighteenth centuries and raise new perspectives about the experiences of singlewomen in earlier times

The Early Modern City 1450-1750 Christopher R. Friedrichs, 2014-06-06 A pioneering text which covers the urban society of early modern Europe as a whole Challenges the usual emphasis on regional diversity by stressing the extent to which cities across Europe shared a common urban civilization whose major features remained remarkably constant throughout the period After outlining the physical political religious economic and demographic parameters of urban life the author vividly depicts the everyday routines of city life and shows how pitifully vulnerable city dwellers were to disasters epidemics warfare and internal strife

Family and Public Life in Brescia, 1580-1650 Joanne M. Ferraro, Joanne Marie Ferraro, 2003-01-23 This book focuses on the behavior of the ruling families of Brescia a rich and strategically vital city under Venetian rule during the late sixteenth and early seventeenth century The first part of the book conceptualizes the civic leadership of Brescia with a profile of its origins and a brief history of the process of aristocratization Further it examines the relationship between family structure and the local socio political structures Size wealth education and marriage ties were all pivotal factors which helped determine the family s position in public life Its strength rested ultimately on its continuity over time Women and women s property are given careful attention The second part places the Brescian elite within the Venetian state Besides controlling urban political institutions the Brescians held strong economic links with the surrounding countryside the basis of their power and they enjoyed ample authority in the rural communities subject to the city

The Reformation of Community Charles H. Parker, 1998-11-28 By the time of the Calvinist Reformation the cities of Holland had established a very long tradition of social provision for the poor in the civic community Calvinists however intended to care for their own church members who were by definition within the household of faith through the deaconate a confessional relief agency This book examines the relationship between municipal and ecclesiastical relief agencies in the six chief cities of Holland Dordrecht Haarlem Delft Leiden Amsterdam and Gouda from the public establishment of the Reformed Church in 1572 to the aftermath of the Synod of Dort The author argues that the conflict between charitable organizations reveal competing conceptions of Christian community that came to the fore as a result of the Dutch Reformation This is the first comparative study of poor relief in Holland which contributes to our understanding of the Reformation throughout Europe

Capitalism and Arithmetic Frank J. Swetz, 1987 The Treviso Arithmetic or Arte dell Abbaco is an anonymous textbook in commercial arithmetic written in vernacular Venetian and published in Treviso Italy in 1478 The Treviso Arithmetic is the earliest known printed mathematics book in the West and one of the first printed European textbooks dealing with a science The Treviso Arithmetic is a practical book intended for self study and for use in Venetian trade It is written in vernacular Venetian and communicated knowledge to a large population It helped to end the monopoly on mathematical knowledge and gave important information to the middle class It was not written for a large audience but was intended to teach mathematics of everyday currency The Treviso became one of the first mathematics books written for the expansion of human knowledge It provided an opportunity for the common person rather than only a privileged few to learn the art of computation The Treviso Arithmetic provided an early example of the Hindu Arabic numeral system computational algorithms Wikipedia

The Legacies of Literacy Harvey J. Graff, 1987-03-22 This book will be a monumental contribution to the topic and a staple of scholarship for decades Michael B Katz A remarkable volume of critical synthesis and passionate revisionism Journal of Economic History ambitious and stimulating required reading not only for social historians but also for policy makers and activists Histoire Sociale Clearly an important book marks a significant point in the history of literacy studies History of Education Quarterly A stimulating challenge to traditional assumptions and scholarly commonplaces Journal of Communication

Venetian Shipping from the Days of Glory to Decline, 1453-1571 Renard Gluzman, 2021-07-19 Drawing from a broad range of hitherto unpublished archival material and the reconstructed biographies of hundreds of San Marco ships this book provides a critical overview of the Republic's shipping activities contemporary with the major geographical discoveries of the period the ascendancy of the Ottoman Empire in the Mediterranean and the on going struggle among the major European powers for political and economic hegemony Within this complex framework the agency of environmental factors receives equal importance beside geopolitics and economic interests challenging the accepted hierarchy of the factors impacting the maritime history of Venice

Charity in Jewish, Christian, and Islamic Traditions Julia R. Lieberman, Michal Jan Rozbicki, 2017-07-25 This collection of essays by a team of international scholars addresses the topic of Charity through the lenses of the three Abrahamic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam The contributors look for common paradigms in the ways the three faiths address the needs of the poor and the needy in their respective societies and reflect on the interrelatedness of such practices among the three religions They ask how the three traditions deal with the distribution of wealth in the recognition that not all members of a given society have equal access to it and in the relationship of charity to the inheritance systems and family structures They reveal systemic patterns that are similar norms virtue theological validations exclusionary rules private responsibility to society issues that have implications for intercultural and interfaith understanding Conversely the essays inquire how the three faiths differ in their understanding of poverty wealth and justifications for charity

The City and the Senses Dr Alexander Cowan, Dr Jill Steward, 2013-06-28 How do we experience a city in terms of the senses What are the inter relations between human experience and behaviour in urban space This volume examines these questions in the context of European urban culture between the fifteenth and twentieth centuries exploring the institutions and ideologies relating to the range of sensual experience and its interpretation Spanning pre industrial and modern cities in Britain France Germany and the United States it enables the reader to establish major contrasts and continuities in what is still an evolving urban experience Divided into sections corresponding to the five senses noise vision taste touch and smell each sections allows for comparisons which act as reminders that the experience of the city was a multi sensual one and that these experiences were as much intellectual as physical in their nature The Jews in Christian Europe 1400-1700 Dr John Edwards, J. Edwards, 2019-06-04 This social and religious history of European Jews in the early modern period is unique in placing Jewish experience in the context of Christian society Beginning with late medieval Jewry and the expulsion from Spain in 1492 of Jews who refused to convert to Christianity John Edwards goes on to analyse the role of Jews during the Renaissance the Reformation and the Counter Reformation and ends with the early development of religious toleration and the Enlightenment He examines the complexity of personal and communal belief and practice and also describes the social political and economic experience of Jews and Christians bringing together Christian and Jewish historiography in order to enrich our understanding of the social relations between the two Poverty and Welfare Among the Portuguese Jews in Early Modern Amsterdam Tirtsah Levie

Bernfeld, 2012-07-05 The reputed wealth and benevolence of the Portuguese Jews of early modern Amsterdam attracted many impoverished people to the city both ex Conversos from the Iberian peninsula and Jews from many other countries In describing the consequences of that migration in terms of demography admission policy charitable institutions public and private philanthropy and daily life and the dynamics of the relationship between the rich and the poor Tirtsah Levie Bernfeld adds a nuanced new dimension to the understanding of Jewish life in the early modern period The Oxford Illustrated History of Italy George Holmes, 2001 From the Roman Empire to the present day this is the story of Italy Until just over a century ago Italy did not exist as a political unit yet it was both the heart of the Christian Church and the seedbed for the extraordinary cultural flowering that was the Renaissance In the middle ages the merchants of Florence Genoa and Venice bridged Asia and Europe with their trading and financial activities yet Italy remained a region of fiercely independent city states In the nineteenth century an upsurge of nationalist fervour was channelled by Garibaldi into a victorious war against Italy's Habsburg overlords A political vision was finally realized and the nation of Italy was created This extensively illustrated survey by twelve leading historians offers a fascinating introduction to the history and culture of Italy

Constructing Mission History Stanley H. Skreslet, 2023-01-17 Three master narratives currently dominate the analysis of modern mission history One puts foreign missionaries at the heart of the story A second emphasizes the colonial aspect of modern missions Here missionaries are not heroes but villains who are implicated in hegemonic schemes of imperial domination Thirdly mission history is subordinated to one of its outcomes the advent of World Christianity In this master narrative the concept of contextualization looms large bolstered by Sanneh's notion of translatability and emphasis on the agency of non Westerners who participate in and subtly shape the complex social processes of evangelization While all three of these master narratives are insightful none of them adequately balances concern for missionary initiative and indigenous agency Borrowing from speech act theory Skreslet offers a new analytical approach to the modern roots of World Christianity that differentiates between what a speaker might intend to communicate and the effects of what has been said or actions taken both in the moment and over time Corresponding to the concepts of illocution and perlocution as these technical terms are used in speech act theory the book is structured in two main sections Initially the focus is on expressed missionary motives Part two engages a representative set of modern era mission performances involving many more actors than just the foreign evangelizers whose stated or implied intentions are emphasized in part one
