Richard Of St Victor The Twelve Patriarchs The Mystical Ark Three Of The Trinity:

The Twelve Patriarchs ; The Mystical Ark ; Book Three of The Trinity Richard (of St. Victor),1979 Here are the writings of the man who was the great link between the early Christian mystics and the mystical awakening in medieval Europe Richard 1173 was born in Scotland and joined the Abbey of St Victor in Paris where he became Superior and Prior Richard of St. Victor's Theory of Imagination Ritva Palmén,2014-08-21 Richard of St Victor d 1173 developed original ideas about the faculty of imagination in a twelfth century Parisian context Related to the historical study of philosophical psychology Richard of St Victor s Theory of Imagination acknowledges that the faculty of imagination being a necessary precondition for human reasoning and a link between soul and body plays an important role in Richard s understanding of the human soul Richard also deals with the interpretation of biblical language metaphors rhetoric and the possibility of creative imagination Considering all these aspects of the imagination in Richard s texts improves our understanding of his theological epistemology and sheds new light on the theory of the imagination in the history of medieval philosophy in general

Descartes' Meditative Turn Christopher J. Wild,2024-03-19 Why would Ren Descartes the father of modern rationalist philosophy choose meditations a term and genre associated with religious discourse and practice for the title of his magnum opus that lays the metaphysical foundations for his reform of all knowledge including mathematics and sciences Why did he believe that the immortality of the soul and the existence of God which the Meditations on First Philosophy set out to demonstrate can only be made self evident through meditating These are the question that Christopher Wild s book answers Descartes discovered the foundations of a marvelous science through a dramatic conversion in southern Germany in the winter of 1619 The spiritual and cognitive exercises derived from ancient philosophy and the Christian meditative tradition which Descartes deployed in the Meditations enable readers to discover metaphysical truths with the same degree of self evidence with which Descartes did during his own conversion Descartes meditative turn Wild argues brings to a culmination a lifelong preoccupation with the practice or craft of thinking known as Cartesian method By joining meditation to method the Meditations becomes the founding document for a Cartesian art of turning a new practice of both thought and life

Chaucer and the Child Eve Salisbury,2017-01-09 This book addresses portrayals of children in a wide array of Chaucerian works Situated within a larger discourse on childhood Ages of Man theories and debates about the status of the child in the late fourteenth century Chaucer s literary children from infant to adolescent offer a means by which to hear the voices of youth not prominently treated in social history The readings in this study urge our attention to literary children encouraging us to think more thoroughly about the Chaucerian collection from their perspectives Eve Salisbury argues that the child is neither missing in the late Middle Ages nor in Chaucer s work but is rather fundamental to the institutions of the time and central to the poet s concerns Medieval Franciscan Approaches to the Virgin Mary ,2019-08-12 This volume offers a sample of the many ways that medieval Franciscans wrote represented in art and preached about the model

The English Prose Treatises of Richard Rolle Claire Elizabeth McIlroy, 2004 The author argues that in these devotional works which appealed to a broad readership in late medieval England Rolle successfully refines traditional affective strategies to develop an implied reader identity the individual soul seeking the love of God which empowers each and every reader in his or her own spiritual journey Jacket

Son of God by Divine Hereditary Methodology George Natar, 2022-12-31 This book proposes a methodology for the conception of Jesus by a human mother and a divine father The method makes use of scientific genetic processes which operate in the conception of any human being but with a divine contribution Various currently held theories of methods by which Jesus appeared on earth are shown to lack evidence Arising from this method Jesus sonship from God is proposed to have been literal and not metaphorical as is suggested by current theology Therefore Jesus is presented in this writing as the literal son of God being both human and divine As such he was the unique and suitable offering to God to make atonement for the obvious wrong doing of human beings If this methodology is correct the way a trinity of divine persons may be perceived is suggested

Mysticism and Spirituality in Medieval England William F. Pollard, Robert Boenig, 1997 The late fourteenth and early fifteenth centuries in England were a golden age of mysticism the major figures could draw on and allude to a host of treatises as the Cloud author acknowledges when he explains how the works of St Denis validate all he writes about Without Denis without the theologians of the eleventh and twelfth centuries without the anchoritic writings of the thirteenth century Richard Rolle Julian of Norwich Walter Hilton Margery Kempe could not have written as they did Likewise those who followed them the Wycliffites the Brigittines the writers of religious lyrics responded to those who had gone before The articles presented here identify major themes and the web of influence that link them new but solid interpretations are offered of the key figures and their backgrounds and the emphasis is on the rich variety of mysticism these authors and texts embody

The Trinitarian Theology of Jonathan Edwards Steven M. Studebaker, Robert W. Caldwell Iii, 2016-02-24 While Jonathan Edwards scholars have increasingly recognized the central role that the Trinity played in his thought no work brings together Edwards central texts on the Trinity and interprets and applies them to contemporary theological issues This book reveals how the doctrine of the Trinity transformed Edwards ministry and how the Trinity can inform current evangelical thought life and ministry Key primary texts interpretation and application of Edwards trinitarian theology are all presented here Part one features Edwards chief trinitarian writings and provides an in depth analysis on his doctrine Part two sets Edwards trinitarianism in historical context Part three demonstrates how Edwards employed the Trinity in his sermons in spiritual formation and in other areas of doctrine

Towards Baptist Catholicity Steven R. Harmon, 2006-08-01 Towards Baptist Catholicity Essays on Tradition and the Baptist Vision contends that the reconstruction of the Baptist vision in the wake of modernity's dissolution requires a retrieval of the ancient ecumenical tradition that forms Christian identity through liturgical rehearsal and ecclesial practice Themes explored include catholic identity as an emerging trend in Baptist theology tradition as a theological category in Baptist perspective the relationship between Baptist confessions of faith and the patristic tradition the importance of Trinitarian catholicity for Baptist faith and practice catholicity in biblical interpretation Karl Barth as a paradigm for a Baptist and evangelical retrieval of the patristic theological tradition worship as a principal bearer of tradition and the role of Baptist higher education in shaping the Christian vision This book submits that the proposed movement towards catholicity is neither a betrayal of cherished Baptist principles nor the introduction of alien elements into the Baptist tradition Rather the envisioned retrieval of catholicity in the liturgy theology and catechesis of Baptist churches is rooted in a recovery of the surprisingly catholic ecclesial outlook of the earliest Baptists an outlook that has become obscured by more recent modern reinterpretations of the Baptist vision and that provides Baptist precedent of a more intentional movement towards Baptist catholicity today

The Truth Within Gavin Flood, 2013-10-25 The idea that there is a truth within the person linked to the discovery of a deeper more fundamental more authentic self has been a common theme in many religions throughout history and an idea that is still with us today This inwardness or interiority unique to me as an essential feature of who I am has been an aspect of culture and even a defining characteristic of human being an authentic private sphere to which we can retreat that is beyond the conflicts of the outer world This inner world becomes more real than the outer which is seen as but a pale reflection Remarkably the image of the truth within is found across cultures and this book presents an account of this idea in the pre modern history of Christianity Hinduism and Buddhism Furthermore in theistic religions Christianity and some forms of Hinduism the truth within is conflated with the idea of God within and in all cases this inner truth is thought to be not only the heart of the person but also the heart of the universe itself Gavin Flood examines the metaphor of inwardness and the idea of truth within along with the methods developed in religions to attain it such as prayer and meditation These views of inwardness that link the self to cosmology can be contrasted with a modern understanding of the person In examining the truth within in Christianity Hinduism and Buddhism Flood offers a hermeneutical phenomenology of inwardness and a defence of comparative religion

Obeying the Truth Grazia Mangano Ragazzi, 2014-02 In the last century St Catherine of Siena an Italian lay woman and mystic of the fourteenth century was named first a Doctor of the Church and then one of six patron saints of Europe This recognition of her life and spirituality has been accompanied by increased interest in her writings Obeying the Truth addresses the key concept of discretion in Catherine's spiritual works. This concept, synonymous with prudence, interacts on many levels with crucial aspects of her teaching. Grazia Mangano Ragazzi argues that discretion, to which Catherine dedicates several passages in her writings, is a helpful even decisive tool for interpreting the whole edifice of the saint's spirituality. Providing a textual analysis of discretion in Catherine's major works, Mangano Ragazzi situates Catherine historically through comparison with her predecessors: Augustine, Cassian, Benedict, Gregory the Great, Bernard, Richard of St. Victor, and Thomas Aquinas, and some contemporaries: Domenico Cavalca, Bridget of Sweden, John Colombini, and Raymond of Capua. She goes on to demonstrate how discretion unifies Catherine's spiritual reflection. The book includes a scrupulously selected bibliography of works in English, Italian, and French. This is both a focused monograph on discretion and an ideal introduction to the saint's writings. Catherine's insistence that the virtuous life is a prerequisite for any genuine spiritual experience is a warning that is more necessary today than ever. Light of Truth and Fire of Love Gary D. Badcock, 1997

The doctrine of the Holy Spirit has often been a neglected theme in Christian thought. In Light of Truth and Fire of Love, Gary D. Badcock attempts to redress this theological imbalance and to reassert the centrality of the doctrine of the Spirit in Christian theology. Badcock begins by surveying what both the Old and New Testaments have to say about the Spirit. Next, he traces the history of the theology of the Spirit, examining a number of crucial episodes and questions in the field of pneumatology in the history of Christian thought, and then proceeds to develop a contemporary theology of the Spirit. Badcock goes on to relate this theology of the Spirit to the theological enterprise initiated by Karl Barth earlier in this century, the return to the doctrine of the Trinity as the framework for Christian reflection. Setting forth the positive and negative results of much of contemporary trinitarian theology, Badcock ultimately makes a case for a balanced doctrine of the Word and the Spirit in which neither is subordinated to the other. Reforming the Doctrine of God F. LeRon Shults, 2005-11

Linking traditional attributes of God with contemporary philosophy, F. LeRon Shults culminates with a reformed doctrine of God that revolves around themes of God's omniscient faithfulness, omnipotent love, and omnipresent hope. On Feminine Sexuality: the Limits of Love and Knowledge Jacques Lacan, 1999-11-23

In his psycholinguistic exploration of the relationship between the desire for love and the attainment of knowledge, Jacques Lacan leads into a new way of interpreting the two most fundamental human drives. Joseph Dan Joseph Dan, 2005

Joseph Dan, the Gershom Scholem Professor of Kabbalah Emeritus at the Hebrew University and long-time Professor of Jewish Studies at the Freie Universität Berlin, is one of the most influential figures in the fields of Jewish mystical thought, homiletical and ethical literature, modern Messianism, and Hasidism, and contemporary belles lettres. His studies of the diverse aspects of Jewish creativity, with close attention to the dialectics of religious cultural continuity versus historical innovation, provide a comprehensive overview of the complex history of Jewish thought and its multiple creative faces. The Cambridge Companion to Christian Mysticism Amy Hollywood, Patricia Z. Different Paths, Different Summits Stephen Kaplan, 2002 In a world where religious pluralism is a necessity of modern life diverse religions exist for the diverse people populating the earth Theologically how do people of different faiths find liberation in their separate gods simultaneously Stephen Kaplan answers this question with his new book Different Paths Different Summits He presents a model for religious pluralism that does not fall victim to the criticisms of pluralist models Religious positions do not need to be transcended in order for varying faiths to be both honored and liberating simultaneously Kaplan skillfully depicts three different realities a theistic ultimate reality a monistic ultimate reality and a process non dualism along with their beliefs His model allows for each to exist simultaneously mutually interpenetrating and distinct

Mystic in the New World: Marie de l'Incarnation (1599-1672) Anya Mali, 2021-11-01 As one of the first female missionaries to the New World and the author of a classic mystical autobiography Marie de l'Incarnation has long been seen as an exemplary type reflecting the mood and aims of the Catholic Reformation In contrast to studies which portray her against the backdrop of religious trends in Catholic Reformation France this book argues that the New France wilderness was the crucial context for the formation of her spiritual identity Marie de l'Incarnation brought her traditional notions to bear on her encounter with the Amerindians but was soon compelled to adjust her views on the natives and the nature of religious experience A close textual analysis of her writings makes it clear that her mysticism was informed by the images of her tradition but also gave new meaning to old concepts Beyond its relevance for those interested in this mystic the book addresses the broader issue of shifting attitudes and boundaries in early modern religious life and demonstrates the need for more variegated typologies of mystical experience in studies on spiritual literature Denis Edwards in His Own Words ATF Press, 2020-05-01 Denis Edwards was a theologian concerned with the science and religion discourse and eco theology He died in March 2019 This book is a collection of his till now unpublished talks and essays
