Selected Letters :

Selected Letters Charles Olson, 2000 In this volume edited and annotated by Ralph Maud we see Olson at the height of his powers and also at his most human The nearly two hundred letters selected from a known three thousand demonstrate the wide range of Olson s interests and the depth of his concern for the future As we read through the letters which span the years from 1931 when Olson was an undergraduate in college to his death in 1970 a fascinating portrait of this complex poet and thinker emerges Jacket

Jack Kerouac Jack Kerouac, 1995 It was in his letters that Jack Kerouac set down the raw material that he transmuted into his novels exploring and refining the spontaneous prose style that became his trademark The letters in this volume written between 1940 when Kerouac was a freshman at college and 1956 immediately before his breathless leap into celebrity with the publication of On the Road offer invaluable insights into Kerouac s family life his friendships with Neal and Carolyn Cassady Allen Ginsberg Gary Snyder and William S Burroughs his travels love affairs and literary apprenticeship At once fascinating reading and a major addition to Kerouac scholarship here is a rare portrait of the writer as a young adventurer of immense talent energy and ambition in the midst of writing and living an American legend

Selected Letters John Keats, 2014-11-27 I am certain of nothing but the holiness of the heart s affections and the truth of imagination Keats in a letter to his friend Benjamin Bailey in November 1817 In a period of great letter writing Keats s letters are outstanding They begin in summer 1816 as he approached his twenty first birthday and were written over the next four years until his early death Viewed together they give the fullest and most poignant record we have of Keats s ambitions and hopes as a poet his life as a literary man about town his close relationship with his brothers and young sister and later his passionate jealous and frustrated love for Fanny Brawne Keats enclosed many of his poems with his letters and read together they offer an incomparable insight into his creative process and development as a poet This major new edition edited by Professor John Barnard includes an introduction and notes as well as a map of Keats s Scottish walking tour and reproductions of his letters John Keats was born in October 1795 His Poems appeared in 1817 while Endymion was published in 1818 both to mixed reviews In 1819 he wrote The Eve of St Agnes La Belle Dame sans Merci the major odes Lamia and the Fall of Hyperion Keats was already unwell when preparing his 1820 volume for the press by the time it appeared in July he was desperately ill He died in Rome in 1821 in a rented apartment next to the Spanish Steps at the age of twenty five John Barnard is Emeritus Professor of English Literature at the University of Leeds and has edited The Complete Poems of Keats for Penguin Classics

Selected Letters of Cicero Marcus Tullius Cicero, Constantine Estlin Prichard, Edward Russell Bernard, 1876 Love, Amy Amy Clampitt, 2007 This extraordinary collection of letters sheds light on one of the most important postwar American poets and on a creative woman s life from the 1950s onward Amy Clampitt was an American original a literary woman from a Quaker family in rural Iowa who came to New York after college and lived in Manhattan for almost forty years before she found success or before it found her at the age of 63 with the publication of The Kingfisher Her letters from 1950 until her death in 1994 are a testimony to her fiercely independent spirit and her quest for various kinds of truth religious spiritual political and artistic Written in clear limpid prose Clampitt's letters illuminate the habits of imagination she would later use to such effect in her poetry She offers with wit and intelligence an intimate and personal portrait of life as an independent woman recently arrived in New York City She recounts her struggle to find a place for herself in the world of literature as well as the excitement of living in Manhattan In other letters she describes a religious conversion and then a gradual religious disillusionment and her work as a political activist Clampitt also reveals her passionate interest in and fascination with the world around her She conveys her delight in a variety of day to day experiences and sights reporting on trips to Europe the books she has read and her walks in nature After struggling as a novelist Clampitt turned to poetry in her fifties and was eventually published in the New Yorker In the last decade of her life she appeared like a meteor on the national literary scene lionized and honored In letters to Helen Vendler Mary Jo Salter and others she discusses her poetry as well as her surprise at her newfound success and the long overdue satisfaction she obviously felt along with gratitude for her recognition

Bicknell, 1996-09-18 Since F W Maitland's Life and Letters of Leslie Stephen 1907 there has been no volume of the letters written by this extraordinary and eminent Victorian Alpinist literary critic god killer editor of The Cornhill Magazine and The Dictionary of National Biography biographer historian of ideas and father of Vanessa Bell and Virginia Woolf Stephen corresponded with a host of men and women including such notables as his American friends James Russell Lowell Justice Holmes and art historian Charles E Norton such contemporaries among the intelligentsia as John Morley Henry Sidgwick George Eliot Robert Louis Stevenson F W Maitland and Thomas Hardy and the members of his family Minny his first wife his sister in law Anny Ritchie his son Thoby and his best beloved second wife Julia In his letters always readable we find his enthusiasms his ironic humour his self doubt and self pity his anguish over his retarded child Laura his candour his lively portraits of people and places his delight in the young Nessa Ginia and Thoby and his direct and easy style as he responds to his reader's interests and needs This second volume follows the demanding years Stephen spent as Editor of The Dictionary of National Biography his happy life with Julia until her death in 1895 and his continuing devotion to literature a source of much solace in his last years The Selected Letters of Marianne Moore Marianne Moore,1997 In her introduction Bonnie Costello writes On July 9 1959 T S Eliot wrote to Marianne Moore One of the books which obviously must in the fullness of time be published will be the Letters of Marianne Moore We are pleased to fulfill his prediction Marianne Moore s correspondence makes up the largest and most broadly significant collection of any modern poet It documents the first two thirds of this century reflecting shifts from Victorian to modernist culture the experience of the two world wars the Depression and postwar prosperity and the changing face of the arts in America and Europe Moore wrote letters daily for most of her life long intense letters to friends and family shorter but always distinctive letters to an ever widening circle of acquaintances and fans At the height of her celebrity she would occasionally write as many as fifty letters a day Both Moore and her correspondents appreciated the value of their exchange so that an extraordinary number of letters approximately thirty thousand have been preserved It is Moore s poetry that draws us to her letters of course But in making this selection we have tried to present the life and mind of a woman whose interests extended to all the arts to religion politics and psychology to fashion sports and the domestic arts moving freely between high culture and popular culture and whose family and friendships remained as important as her professional life Moore s correspondence is unique in the extent of its extraliterary interests and passionate engagement with the world at large From her college adventures her travels and the flurry of her artistic and social activities there seems to have been no lull What has struck us most in reading through Moore s letters is the vitality and fullness of the long life they record Selected Letters of Charlotte Brontë Charlotte Brontë,2007-09-13 These letters give an insight into the life of a writer whose novels continue to be bestsellers They reveal much about Charlotte Brontë s personal life her family relationships and the society in which she lived Many of her early letters are written with vigour vivacity and an engaging aptitude for self mockery In contrast her letters to her master the Belgian schoolteacher Constantin Heger reveal her intense obsessive longing for some response from him Other letters are deeply moving when Charlotte endures the agony of her brother s and sisters untimely deaths We learn also of the progress of her writing including the astonishing success of Jane Eyre and of her contacts with her publishers including the young George Smith and we recognize in her letters the life experiences which are transmuted into the art of her novels Contemporary society is brilliantly described in her letters from London when she writes of her encounters with famous writers and with critics of her novels We hear too of her visits to art galleries operas and the Great Exhibition of 1851 at the Crystal Palace Dramatic letters written in December 1852 convey the turbulence of feeling in the Haworth curate Arthur Nicholls s proposal of marriage to her and in Mr Brontë s violent reaction to it and we subsequently hear of her secret correspondence with her suitor her father s eventual consent and her tragically brief happy marriage cut short by her death in March 1855 Trading Twelves Ralph Ellison,Albert Murray,2010-04-28 This absorbing collection of letters spans a
