ruth weiss born in Berlin in 1928 to Austrian Jewish parents arrived in San Francisco in 1952 after hitchhiking through the United States Crowned years later as the Goddess of the Beat Generation by San Francisco Chronicle critic Herb Caen weiss has worked for almost seven decades with a plurality of artistic forms Despite her extensive poetry career and very active participation in the West Coast buzzing artistic community since the early 1950s weiss has remained an essentially overlooked figure in poetry history This neglect might be representative of the overshadowing of female artists within the Beat Generation as a marginalized group within an always already marginalized bohemia Johnson The volume taps directly into this lacuna by proving the first close study on one of the most prolific members of the so called Beat Generation Offering diverse and comprehensive points of entrance into weiss's oeuvre the essays in this volume adopt a multidisciplinary approach that attests to the cross pollination between art forms in postwar counterculture In addition the volume also includes shorter non academic contributions and previously unpublished archival material Bringing together scholars academics and artists from around the world this volume represents a timely and much needed response to the increasing interest in weiss's work in the last decades

Why Is America Different? Steven T. Katz, 2010-10-11 Does the American Jewish experience represent a singular communal circumstance or does it repeat with obvious and unavoidable variation the older European pattern of Jewish existence In 2004 on the occasion of the 350th anniversary of the establishment of the American Jewish community this question seemed well worth revisiting To explore it more fully the Elie

Wiesel Center for Judaic Studies at Boston University brought together a distinguished group of expert scholars on the main areas of American Jewish life stretching from the colonial Jewish experience to the image of Jews in contemporary films The present volume represents the fruit of this collective reflection and interrogation

McLane, 2024-05-08 Acclaimed poet and critic Maureen N McLane offers an experimental work of criticism ranging across Romantic and contemporary poetry In My Poetics Maureen N McLane writes as a poet critic theorist and scholar but above all as an impassioned reader Written in an innovative conversable style McLane s essays illuminate her own poetics and suggest more generally all that poetics can encompass Ranging widely from romantic era odes and hymns to anonymous ballads to haikus and haibuns to modernist and contemporary poetries in English My Poetics explores poems as speculative instruments and as ways of registering our very sense of being alive McLane pursues a number of open questions How do poems generate modes for thinking How does rhyme help us measure out thought What is the relation of poetry to its surroundings and how do specific poems activate that relation If as Wallace Stevens wrote poetry is the scholar s art My Poetics flies under a slightly different banner study and criticism are also the poet s art Punctuated with McLane s poems and drawing variously on Hannah Arendt Percy Bysshe Shelley Roland Barthes Bruno Latour and other writers and poets My Poetics is a formally as well as intellectually adventurous work Its artful arrangement of readings and divagations shows us a way to be with poems and poetics

The Shape of Things to Come Greil Marcus, 2007-08-21 From the author of Mystery Train and Lipstick Traces an exhilarating and provocative investigation of the tangle of American identity America is a place and a story made up of exuberance and suspicion crime and liberation lynch mobs and escapes its greatest testaments are made of portents and warnings biblical allusions that lose all certainty in the American air It is this story of self invention and nationhood that Greil Marcus rediscovers beginning with John Winthrop s invocation of America as a city on the hill Lincoln s second inaugural address and Martin Luther King Jr s speech about his American dream Listening to these prophetic founding statements Marcus explores America s promise as a New Jerusalem and the nature of its covenant first with God and then with its own citizens In the nineteenth century this vision of the nation s story was told in public as part of common discourse to be fought over in plain speech and flights of gorgeous rhetoric Since then Marcus argues it has become cryptic a story told more in art than in politics He traces it across the continent and through time hearing the tale in the disparate voices of writers filmmakers performers and actors Philip Roth David Lynch David Thomas Allen Ginsberg Sheryl Lee and Bill Pullman In The Shape of Things to Come the future and the past merge in extraordinary and uncanny ways and Marcus proves once again that he is our most imaginative and original cultural critic
