This Tree Grows Out of Hell Ptolemy Tompkins, 2008 Ptolemy Tompkins's spellbinding plunge into the history and meaning of Mesoamerican civilizations first published a decade ago is more compelling now than ever Combining scholarly knowledge with visionary perception and sensitivity he examines the Mayan Aztec and other related cultures from the perspective of that region's shifting understanding of the human soul A profoundly spiritual and ecological thread runs through this enlightening work like a river despite their amazing achievements these civilizations eventually crumbled because they lost touch with their sense of community their true natures and their environments Above all Tompkins vividly reveals how violence became a deeply flawed but powerful strategy for accessing the ever retreating realm of the spirit which had once guided and directed human life Attuned to Alien Moonlight Dennis Haskell, 2002 Bruce Dawe is Australia's most popular and widely studied poet This first full scale critical study of his poetry to date reveals a richly complex and varied poet Dennis Haskell argues that the widespread view of Dawe as a social satirist is limiting and that Dawe is a more imaginative and lyrical poet than he has been given credit for as the title Attuned to Alien Moonlight indicates Dawe's apparent topicality and ease of access hides deeper more mysterious and more Romantic elements in his work Haskell analyses well known and some quite unknown poems in order to build up a picture of Dawe's poetry as a whole and his chapters approach Dawe from some surprising perspectives for example in relation to Asia and as a love poet Aimed at both students of Dawe's work and the general literary reader the book places Dawe in the context of Australian poetry and cultural values and in relation to the larger traditions of poetry in English It includes a substantial bibliography and a comprehensive chronology International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature The International Who's Who of Authors and Writers offers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary
