Selected Short Stories Of Shen Congwen Bilingual Series In Modern Chinese Literature:

Liu Yi and the Dragon Princess Zhongxian Shang, 2003 This is an adaptation of the thirteenth century zaju play Liu Yi Chuan Shu which was itself based on an eighth century fairy tale about a failed examination candidate's encounter with a shepherdess in distress who turns out to be the youngest daughter of the Dragon King of Lake Dongting The young man's help is rewarded with riches immortality and marriage to the beautiful princess It is a wish fulfillment fantasy written with charm and a certain ironical edge This adaptation consists of the freely translated lyrics of the zaju with new original dialogue including an on stage narrator There is a long introduction with synopses of the Chinese text of the zaju and the original story it was based on There is also an appendix explaining the use of padding words in zaju

Language Arts in Asia 2 Christina DeCoursey, 2014-06-19 This volume is the second of a series deepening the research understanding and academic study of Language Arts as an English language teaching paradigm Previously used extensively in native speaking countries Language Arts has been taken up in the past decade in many parts of Asia Language Arts uses intrinsically motivating materials such as literature drama and popular culture to help students develop mastery of written and spoken language and text types In recent years Language Arts has embraced media and multiliteracies as well as critical and creative thinking intercultural sensitivity civics and ethics This volume offers a breadth of topics which embody methodologically sophisticated and contemporary language arts research These include multimodal analysis virtual environments the use of comics anime and film in second language teaching and learners experiences of drama and literary tourism The use of literature and the arts in humanist education has a long history within Europe It was traditionally appreciated for its ability to instill ethics and finer sensibilities and teach leadership But the traditional program was marred by its function in inculcating and preserving elitist high culture voices texts and values The post colonial incarnation of Language Arts has been informed by critical and linguistic theory helping it to embrace a popular scope and include a wide array of authentic social and media texts The movement of English language teaching beyond native speaker shores has given rise to a vibrant variety of World Englishes whose literary and media works are now represented within Language Arts The explosion of media over the past few decades has given rise to an increasing array of media to use in language teaching These trends invite scholarly analysis and this is clearly reflected in the chapters in this volume Linguistics has long had a connection to and a natural role to play in analysing the creative verbal and visual arts As a paradigm Language Arts now takes an inclusive view of the continuum of spoken written and performed languages and texts Cutting edge Language Arts research is now also supported through the new journal Language Arts and Linguistics Taylor and Francis

Shen Congwen, 2004 This collection of short stories reveals the plight and strength of the common Chinese people There are contradictions between the new and the old and also between human values with enough integrity to nurture life versus corruption that leads to the decline and death of a culture

Fictional Authors, Imaginary Audiences Bonnie S.

McDougall,2003 The authors and audiences for 20th century Chinese literature especially fiction are examined in a fresh light While modern Chinese fictions are imaginary in that they do not constitute reliable portraits of Chinese life they offer insights into the writers themselves and their implied audiences Snow in August Xingjian Gao,2004 From Gao Xingjian a winner of the 2000 Nobel Prize for Literature comes a major drama about life Snow in August blends Eastern and Western cultures In form there are elements of Shakespearean and Greek tragedy but in spirit it embodies a uniquely Eastern sensibility Gao Xingjian Snow in August is based on the life of Huineng AD 633 713 the Sixth Patriarch of Zen Buddhism in Tang Dynasty China Packed with the myriad sights and sounds of both the Eastern and Western theatrical traditions the play exudes wonder and mysticism The many koan cases and the story of Huineng s enlightenment afford the audience fascinating vignettes of Gao s vision of life and existence w an awareness of the Void and the need for a personal peace with oneself
