Cheap Modernism Lise Jaillant, 2017-04-17 We often think of Mrs Dalloway or A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man as difficult books originally published in small print runs for a handful of readers But from the mid 1920s these texts and others were available in cheap format across Europe Uniform series of reprints such as the Travellers Library the Phoenix Library Tauchnitz and Albatross sold modernism to a wide audience thus transforming a little read highbrow movement into a popular phenomenon The expansion of the readership for modernism was not only vertical from high to low but also spatial since publisher's series were distributed within and outside metropolitan centres in Britain continental Europe and elsewhere Many non English native speakers discovered texts by Joyce Woolf and others in the original language a fact that has rarely been mentioned in histories of modernism Drawing on extensive work in neglected archives Cheap Modernism will be of interest to all those who want to know how the new literature became a global commercial hit

The Art of Brevity Per Winther, Jakob Lothe, Hans H. Skei, 2004 The Art of Brevity gathers fresh ideas about the theory and writing of short fiction from around the globe to produce an international inclusive exploration of the steadily growing field of short story studies

Though Anglo American scholars have served as the primary developers of contemporary short story theory since the field's inception in the 1960s this volume adds the contributions of scholars living in other parts of the world. Such Anglo American pioneers as Mary Rohrberger, Charles May, Susan Lohafer and John Gerlach join with short fiction scholars at universities in Norway, Denmark, Sweden and Canada to build academic bridges and expand the field geographically as well as conceptually. Contributors to the volume weave together themes of time space compression, mystery, reader response and narrative closure. They discuss writers as varied as Edgar Allan Poe, Nathaniel Hawthorne, Herman Melville, Sarah Orne Jewett, James Joyce, Franz Kafka, Ernest Hemingway, Mavis Gallant, Flannery O'Connor, Eudora Welty, Margaret Atwood, Alice Munro and Robert Olen Butler, the nineteenth century queer short story and contemporary Danish short shorts. Deirdre Madden Anne Fogarty, Marisol Morales-Ladrón, 2022-06-28 The Irish writer Deirdre Madden has written key novels about the Northern Irish Troubles and about contemporary Ireland. In these works she weighs up the aftermath of violence and the impact of the shift to a more open but materialist society in the country overall. Memory, trauma and the abiding but elusive links between the past and the present are central concerns of her fiction. This pioneering set of essays by leading experts in Irish Studies explores the many dimensions of her novels from a wide variety of perspectives. Madden's skill at interweaving novels of ideas with artist novels that draw out the complex inner predicaments of her characters is highlighted. States of dislocation are concentrated on in her texts but also the quest for a home in the world and a lasting set of values that allows for personal integrity and authenticity. These multifaceted explorations bear out the compelling and enduring aspects of Madden's highly regarded novels.
