Alison Saar Susan Krane, High Museum of Art, 1993 Time Dust, James Rosenquist Constance White Glenn, James Rosenquist, 1993 James Rosenquist is an internationally renowned artist who first achieved wide recognition as a result of his pioneering contributions to Pop Art in the 1960s and 1970s Like many artists of his circle particularly Andy Warhol and Roy Lichtenstein Rosenquist has been fascinated with the visual language and ephemera of mass reproduction In Rosenquist s case his interest was manifested in an art derived from popular imagery sources yet committed to the expression of his personal concerns as an artist and a printmaker He has tested the limits of the medium in order to achieve on the one hand subtle nuances unique to particular techniques and on the other the vast billboard scale that is his signature style This book traces Rosenquist s entire career from his early work as a sign painter to the creation of what is thought to be the world s largest print Time Dust completed in 1992 An important historical text by Constance Glenn explores such contemporary issues as the role of the mass media the appropriation of its techniques and imagery and the origin and demand for multiple images as well as presenting in depth the artist s evolution as painter and printmaker The 150 colorplates include in addition to landmark paintings numerous examples of previously unpublished sketches and prints as well as many of Rosenquist s famous works such as the great installation print F 111 The book includes a catalogue raisonne of the artist s 229 prints and an extensive bibliography Donald Judd Interviews Donald Judd, 2019-11-12 Donald Judd Interviews presents sixty interviews with the artist over the course of four decades and is the first compilation of its kind It is the companion volume to the critically acclaimed and bestselling Donald Judd Writings This collection of interviews engages a diverse range of topics from philosophy and politics to Judd's insightful critiques of his own work and the work of others such as Mark di Suvero, Edward Hopper, Yayoi Kusama, Barnett Newman, and Jackson Pollock. The opening discussion of the volume between Judd, Dan Flavin, and Frank Stella provides the foundation for many of the succeeding conversations focusing on the nature and material conditions of the new art developing in the 1960s. The publication also gathers a substantial body of unpublished material across a range of mediums including extensive interviews with art historians Lucy R. Lippard and Barbara Rose. Judd's contributions in interviews, panels, and extemporaneous conversations are marked by his forthright manner and rigorous thinking, whether in dialogue with art critics, art historians, or his contemporaries. In one of the last interviews he observed, "Generally expensive art is in expensive, chic circumstances; it's a falsification. The society is basically not interested in art. And most people who are artists do that because they like the work they like to do that make art. Art has an integrity of its own and a purpose of its own and it's not to serve the society. That's been tried now in the Soviet Union and lots of places and it doesn't work. The only role I can think of in a very general way for the artist is that they tend to shake up the society a little bit just by their existence in which case it helps undermine the general political stagnation and perhaps by providing a little freedom supports science which requires freedom. If the artist isn't free you won't have any art." Donald Judd Interviews, co-published by Judd Foundation and David Zwirner Books. The interviews expand upon the artist's thinking present in Donald Judd Writings. Judd Foundation, David Zwirner Books, 2016.

Forthcoming Books Rose, Arny, 1993-04 Imagery Bob Nugent, 2007-10-01. In 1985, winemaker Joe Benziger and Sonoma artist Bob Nugent struck on the idea of putting original art on special releases of Imagery Estate wines. The goal was straightforward: commission the world's modern art luminaries to create works for reproduction onto wine labels. Two decades and 160 labels later, they have assembled a staggering collection of contemporary art from the likes of Sol LeWitt, Terry Winters, Nancy Graves, John Baldessari, Judy Pfaff, and Bob Arneson. This book highlights 133 works of art, the best of the Imagery collection. The images are big and lush and accompanied by biographical sketches of the artists' careers as well as a short description of their individual ideas and methods. The pictorial index shows the works in their label form from 1985 to the most recent vintages. These images are evocations of wine's multifaceted ability to inspire us. Real Life Magazine, 1984.

Roy Lichtenstein Graham Bader, 2009-02-20. The most comprehensive collection on Lichtenstein from the earliest reviews to recent reassessments, including several hard-to-find and previously unpublished pieces. Roy Lichtenstein's popular appeal and his influence on pop culture, seen in everything from greeting cards to sitcoms, at times overshadows his importance to contemporary art. Yet examined on its own terms, Lichtenstein's comics-inspired, deadpan artwork remains as truly unsettling to art-world orthodoxies today as when it first gained wide attention in the early 1960s. Lichtenstein, 1923-1997, a central figure in Pop, consistently savaged the rules of painting while remaining committed to the most traditional procedures and goals of the medium. He once said, "The things that I have apparently parodied I actually admire and I really don't know what the implication of that is." This book offers the most comprehensive collection of writings on Lichtenstein's work to appear in thirty five years with early reviews artist interviews and statements some never before published and recent reassessments The book includes Donald Judd's reviews of Lichtenstein's three solo Pop shows in the early 1960s an essay on the artist's 1969 Guggenheim retrospective interviews that touch on topics ranging from the New York art world to Monet and Matisse the transcript of a 1995 slide presentation in which Lichtenstein surveyed three decades of his work and an in depth study of Lichtenstein's first Pop painting Look Mickey 1961 The texts explore Lichtenstein's career across the boundaries of medium and period excavating early critical discussions and surveying more recent reexaminations of his artistic practice The collection will be an indispensable resource for those interested in Lichtenstein Pop Art and American culture of the 1960s Contributors Graham Bader Yve Alain Bois John Coplans David Deitcher Hal Foster John Jones Donald Judd Max Kozloff Jean Claude Lebensztejn Roy Lichtenstein Michael Lobel
