Selected Letters Of Malcolm Lowry:

Selected Letters of Malcolm Lowry Malcolm Lowry, Harvey Breit, Margerie Bonner Lowry, 1967 Selected Letters of Malcolm Lowry Malcolm Lowry, 1965 The Selected Letters of Malcolm Lowry :. Harvey and Lowry Breit (Margerie Bonner (eds)), 1965 Sursum Corda!: 1947-1957 Malcolm Lowry, 1995 Le Journal du Siège de Philipsbourg, depuis le 16 May jusqu'au 17 September 1676 avec sa capitulation, 1676 Selected Letters of Malcolm Lowry. Edited by Harvey Breit & Margerie Bonner Lowry. [With a Portrait.]. Malcolm Lowry, 1967 Selected Letters Malcolm Lowry, Harvey Breit, Margerie Bonner Lowry, 1985-01-01 Sursum Corda! Malcolm Lowry, 1995

Sursum Corda! Malcolm Lowry, Sursum Corda! Malcolm Lowry, 1995 Malcolm Lowry's Poetics of Space Richard J. Lane, Miguel Mota, 2016-10-18 This collection focuses on Lowry's spatial dynamics from the psychogeography of the Letterist and the Situationist International through musical forms especially jazz cinema photography and spatial poetic writing to the spaces of exception bio politics and the creaturely It presents previously unpublished essays by both established and new international Lowry scholars as well as innovative ways of conceiving of his aesthetic practice In each of the book's three sections critics engage in the notion of Lowry as a multi media artist who influenced and was deeply influenced by a broad range of modernist and early postmodernist aesthetic practices Acutely aware of and engaged in the world of film sensitive to the role of the graphical surface in advertising and propaganda and deeply immersed in a vast range of literary traditions and the avant garde Lowry worked within an intertextual space that is also a mediascape one which tends to transgress or at least exceed neatly controlled borders or aesthetic boundaries These new approaches to Lowry's life and work which make use of new and recent theoretical perspectives will encourage fresh debate around Lowry's writing Published in English Sursum Corda! Malcolm Lowry, 1995 The Making of Malcolm Lowry's Under the Volcano Frederick Asals, 1997 Ten years in the making Under the Volcano is the best known work of writer Malcolm Lowry Published first in 1947 it is a brilliant moving and complex novel perhaps the last fictional masterpiece to emerge from the modernist movement As the years went by Lowry's obsessive rewriting took him further and further into his book which changed relatively little in the outer semblance of action and main characters but became utterly transformed in texture from the thin and mediocre version of 1940 to the rich tapestry of 1947 The numerous manuscripts allow a look at the processes by which Lowry created not only his masterwork but also his own reputation as a modernist genius This study offers an extended examination of individual drafts as the novel slowly developed and in a final chapter an appraisal of the implications of Lowry's revisions for the book as published an appraisal that suggests bases for new readings of Under the Volcano

Reading Matters Joseph Tabbi, Michael Wutz, 2018-05-31 The convergence of twentieth century narrative and technology is one of the most important developments in current literary study A decade after the founding of the Society for Literature and Science and the appearance of such influential books as Kathleen Woodward's Culture of Information and

William Paulson's The Noise of Culture Joseph Tabbi and Michael Wutz have edited a landmark volume to summarize this still emerging field Twelve original essays and the editors' introductory overview show how these theoretical concerns can contribute to the practical study of narrative Reading Matters covers the range of contemporary literature from the canonical novels of high modernism and postmodernism through subjects new to the academic agenda such as cyberpunk and hypertext fiction In an age that has proclaimed the death of the novel many times over the contributors argue persuasively for the continued vitality of literary narrative By responding in ingenious ways to the capabilities of other media they assert the novel has enlarged and redefined its territory of representation and its range of techniques and play while maintaining its viability in the new media assemblage American and British Writers in Mexico, 1556-1973 Drew Wayne Gunn, 2014-07-03

American and British Writers in Mexico is the study that laid the foundation upon which subsequent examinations of Mexico's impact upon American and British letters have built Chosen by the Mexican government to be placed in translation in its public libraries the book was also referenced by Nobel Laureate Octavio Paz in an article in the New Yorker Reflections Mexico and the United States Drew Wayne Gunn demonstrates how Mexican experiences had a singular impact upon the development of English writers beginning with early British explorers who recorded their impressions for Hakluyt's Voyages through the American Beats who sought to escape the strictures of American culture Among the 140 or so writers considered are Stephen Crane Ambrose Bierce Langston Hughes D H Lawrence Somerset Maugham Katherine Anne Porter Hart Crane Malcolm Lowry John Steinbeck Graham Greene Tennessee Williams Saul Bellow William Carlos Williams Robert Lowell Ray Bradbury Allen Ginsberg William Burroughs and Jack Kerouac Gunn finds that while certain elements reflecting the Mexican experience colors landscape manners political atmosphere a sense of the alien are common in their writings the authors reveal less about Mexico than they do about themselves A Mexican sojourn often marked the beginning the end or the turning point in a literary career The insights that this pioneering study provide into our complex cultural relationship with Mexico so different from American and British authors' encounters with Continental cultures remain vital The book is essential for anyone interested in understanding the full range of the impact of the expatriate experience on writers The Canadian Modernists Meet Dean Irvine, 2005-07-12 The Canadian Modernists Meet is a collection of new critical essays on major and rediscovered Canadian writers of the early to mid twentieth century F R Scott's well known poem The Canadian Authors Meet sets the theme for the volume a revisiting of English Canada's formative movements in modernist poetry fiction and drama As did Scott's poem Dean Irvine's collection raises questions about modernism and antimodernism nationalism and antinationalism gender and class originality and influence that remain central to contemporary research on early to mid twentieth century English Canadian literature The Canadian Modernists Meet is the first collection of its kind a gathering of texts by literary critics textual editors biographers literary historians and art historians whose collective research contributes to the study of modernism in Canada The collection stages a major reassessment of the origins and development of modernist literature in Canada its relationship to international modernist literature its regional variations its gender and class inflections and its connections to visual art architecture and film It presents a range of scholarly perspectives drawing upon the multidisciplinary that characterizes the international field of modernist studies Telling Stories, 2021-11-15 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer s Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research

An Appointment with Somerset Maugham Richard Hauer Costa, 1994 Now just ask yourself Maugham said without the least suggestion of a stutter wouldn t it be a dreadful world if pleasure ruled But pleasure has ruled Richard Costa s world the pleasure of books and their writers In this charming and insightful reminiscence he introduces readers to a host of literary lives that have touched him Somerset Maugham H G Wells Malcolm Lowry Conrad Aiken Edmund Wilson Kingsley Amis Dorothy Parker Edith Wharton and others The journey of the mind and heart Costa traces has some illustrious guides Reading and re reading the works of memorable writers of our time interviewing them and writing about them he has woven literature into his life in a way that provides illumination and just plain interest for those who read the story here In his intellectual and literary chronicle readers will find much humor much memory and much food for thought Modernist Fiction Randall Stevenson, 1992-09-24 To many writers of the early twentieth century modernism meant not only the reshaping or abandonment of tradition but also an interest in psychology and in new concepts of space time art and language Randall Stevenson s important new analysis of the genre presents a lucid comprehensive introduction to modernist fiction covering a wide range of writers and works Drawing on narrative theory and cultural history Stevenson offers fresh insights into the work of such important modernists as Henry James Joseph Conrad Ford Madox Ford D H Lawrence Wyndham Lewis Dorothy Richardson May Sinclair Virginia Woolf and James Joyce In addition he discusses the work of Marcel Proust an important figure in the development of modernism in Europe This illuminating book places the new imagination of the modernist age in its historical context and looks at how and why the pressures of early twentieth century life led to the development of this distinctive and influential literary form This accessible account of modernism modernity and the novel

will be welcomed by students scholars and general readers alike The Collected Letters of Robinson Jeffers, with Selected Letters of Una Jeffers James Karman, 2015-07-15 This volume of correspondence the last in a three volume edition spans a pivotal moment in American history the mid twentieth century from the beginning of World War II through the years of rebuilding and uneasy peace that followed to the election of President John F Kennedy Robinson Jeffers published four important books during this period Be Angry at the Sun 1941 Medea 1946 The Double Axe 1948 and Hungerfield 1954 He also faced changes to his hometown village of Carmel experienced the rewards of being a successful dramatist in the United States and abroad and endured the loss of his wife Una Jeffers letters and those of Una written in the decade prior to her death offer a vivid chronicle of the life and times of a singular and visionary poet
