Multiethnic American Literatures Helane Adams

Androne,2014-11-19 This book provides original essays that suggest ways to engage students in the classroom with the cultural factors of American literature Some of the essays focus on individual authors works others view American literature more broadly and still others focus on the application of culturally based methods for reading All suggest a closer look at how ethnicity culture and pedagogy interact in the classroom to help students better understand the complexity of works by African Americans Native Americans Asian Americans Latinos and several other sometimes overlooked American cultural groups Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Contemporary

Chinese Novels and Short Stories, 1949-1974 Meishi Tsai,2020-03-17 An annotated bibliography of contemporary Chinese novels and short stories published between 1949 and 1974 Includes succinct summaries and bibliographic details including references to translations for virtually all fictional works published in China during this period Also includes author title and subject indexes Tse Yu's University Zhong Qiushi,2013-07 Tse Yu s peaceful college life is forever shattered when she is raped by a soldier who is later honored as a hero on the battlefield Tse Yu s University takes place in the 1980s when there was a defensive war on the southern border of China After her rapist returns to the front Tse Yu discovers she is pregnant She and her roommate decide on a secret abortion but then she hears the news from the front that the soldier who raped her made a heroic sacrifice in battle Her love of life awakens Tse Yu s instincts as a mother and she decides to drop out of school for a higher calling From a modern perspective the author completed the contemplation of a heroic era and as a consequence this tragic story shows irony The novel first appeared in Time Literary was reprinted by Selected Stories and Novella Monthly and was made into the TV series Flowers in May Bibliography of Library Economy Harry George Turner Cannons,1910

Post-Apartheid Gothic Mélanie Joseph-Vilain,2021-03-19 Post Apartheid Gothic White South African Writers and Space analyzes the representation of space in recent works by South African writers By combining analytical tools borrowed from Gothic studies with geocritical and postcolonial approaches M lanie Joseph Vilain assesses the literary mechanisms utilized by Damon Galgut Henrietta Rose Innes Lauren Beukes Justin Carwright and Lynn Freed to negotiate the complexities of post apartheid identities in their fiction Joseph Vilain argues that the literary representations of emblematic places real or imagined the home the farm the city or the non places of dystopia express and reveal anxieties linked to the sharing of space in post apartheid South Africa The text successively re visits the places that have been shaping South African white writing since Olive Schreiner s African Farm in other words its topoi both in the etymological sense of place and in the literary sense of recurring themes or arguments Joseph Vilain argues that these Gothicized topoi have provided writers with tools to explore the deep anxieties generated by the redefinition of South African society as the Rainbow Nation While focusing specifically on the South African avatars of the Gothic and their interaction with local forms and genres like the plaasroman the text also discusses the impact of globalization on South African literary cultural social and political identities

Catalogue of the Library of Troy Young Men's Assoc Troy Public Library (N.Y.),1859      The Best Reading. Hints on the Selection of Books, on the Formation of Libraries, Public and Private, on Courses of Reading, Etc. Frederick Beecher Perkins,2024-07-03      Apocalyptic Postmodern Vision in the Select Novels of John Updike Dr. Zhao Yang,Ms. Long Na,2023-01-06 John Updike's vision of life and American society is apocalyptic as he wrote novels to depict the present dilemmas of the Americans and the future challenges of the country and the global world He was also confronted with the riddle of life and existence like Dostoevsky and with a view to find the answers to the mysteries of life and truth he turned to Kierkegaard and Karl Barth who had evolved the dialectical method to explore reality and truth Barth's dialectical method was derived from Kierkegaard who believed that truth is not found in the operation of Hegel's method of thesis and anti thesis but rather in the dialectical tension between truth and truth Kierkegaard wrote Every truth is truth only to a certain degree when it goes beyond the counter point appears and it becomes untruth Kierkegaard Word of God and Word of Man 206 John Updike stated that the purpose of his writing novels and stories is to examine everything for God's fingerprints In the 1960's when he started writing his name was associated with other writers such as John Barth Robert Coover and Thomas Pynchon busy in experimenting new themes and strategies Updike ignored the main stream of contemporary fiction and distanced himself from the contemporary writers His mission was to write a new kind of fiction to create a new kind of world to depict the new future of mankind the way Karl Marx had done      Ontario Library Review and Book Selection Guide ,1916      From Brown to Bunter P. W. Musgrave,2015-08-27 Originally published in 1985 This is a fascinating account of the life cycle of a minor literary genre the boys school story It discusses early nineteenth century precursors of the school story didactic works with such revealing titles as The Parents Assistant and goes on to examine in detail the two major examples of the genre Hughes's Tom Brown's School Days and Farrar's Eric The slow development of the genre during the 1860s and 1870s is traced and its institutionalisation by Talbot Baines Reed in for example The Fifth Form at St Dominic's is described Many similar works were subsequently published for adults and adolescents and the author shows how they differ from the originals in being critical in tone and written to a formula in plot and style This development is discussed in relation to the changing social structure of Britain up to 1945 by which time the life of the genre was almost ended      Rabindranath Tagore's Ideational Challenges Bidyut Chakrabarty,2022-12-30 Rabindranath Tagore's Ideational Challenges is an analytical attempt to show that Rabindranath Tagore in his own unique style raised some troublesome sociocultural issues that constrained the attainment of the politico ideological objectives that the nationalists espoused His creative texts were not merely literary articulation of the issues but were powerful responses to the prevalent conceptual parameters on which humanity rested Although the poet did not appear to have made such a claim his writings dealt with politico ideologically innovative ideas about human diversity that naturally flourished in the Indian subcontinent By approaching the pertinent sociocultural and politico ideological issues from a literary perspective the poet seemingly refashioned the dominant views on humanity The selected novels and short stories in this book represent a distinct voice explicit in the politico ideological message Keeping this in view each chapter is an articulation of the views that Rabindranath championed while contributing to ushering in a new vision based on his perception of well entrenched sociocultural values of the time
