Selected Poems of Jorge Carrera Andrade Jorge Carrera Andrade, 1972-01-01 While Latin American poets such as Pablo Neruda Jorge Luis Borges and Octavio Paz have been receiving most of the attention of critics the Ecuadorian poet Jorge Carrera Andrade had quietly continued writing his transparent poetry Nevertheless Carrera Andrade's poems are undoubtedly some of the best ever written in the Spanish language and he has often been mentioned as a likely candidate for the Nobel Prize In his poetic exploration of what he calls the secret country of human existence Carrera Andrade marvels at the beauty of the world And this wonder is conveyed by means of dazzling descriptive metaphors Perhaps it could be said that the Ecuadorian poet always interprets the world visually but his visual images constitute merely a metaphorical technique around which he constructs his poems In his verbal structures he expresses the transitory nature of life as well as the loneliness of man in the universe He describes life in his native Ecuador contemplates with compassion the plight of the Indians of his country and denounces social injustices More recently Carrera Andrade concerned about the destiny of mankind manifests his indomitable faith in humanity in the book Hombre planetario 1959 imagining a social utopia Carrera Andrade has stated that his poetry is the result of the intimate union of the senses and the intellect And yet his poems remain transparent He rejects obscurity and complexity and chooses simplicity and clarity He considers that one of the essential goals of poetry is communion with other men and that if his poetry cannot communicate its emotive and sensorial content it fails to accomplish its mission which is the interpretation of the world As to the universal meaning of his poetic work Carrera Andrade would recall Goethe's phrase All my works are fragments of a great confession He would characterize his own work as a confession of love both for humanity and for the wonders of this world Carrera Andrade must be counted among the four or five best contemporary poets of Latin America Whether he is awarded a Nobel Prize still remains to be seen but there can be no doubt that in his poems one can detect the same literary excellence as in the work of Neruda Paz or Borges Hopefully the work of this great Ecuadorian poet will soon be universally appreciated In some of his works he can be compared to T S Eliot Hlderlin or Saint Jean Perse The publication of H R Hayes translations will for the first time make available to English speaking readers all of the significant verse of Carrera Andrade beginning with some of his first pieces from La guirnalda del silencio 1926 and ending with translations from Pos a l'tima 1957 1966 New and Collected Poems Richard Wilbur, 1989 A collection including six earlier volumes of Wilbur's poetry twenty seven new poems and a cantata Selected Prose and Prose-Poems Gabriela Mistral, 2010-01-01 The first Latin American to receive a Nobel Prize for Literature the Chilean writer Gabriela Mistral 1889 1957 is often characterized as a healing maternal voice who spoke on behalf of women indigenous peoples the disenfranchised children and the rural poor She is that political poet and more a poet of philosophical meditation self consciousness and daring This is a book full of surprises and paradoxes The complexity and structural boldness of these prose poems especially the female erotic prose pieces of her first book make them an important moment in the history of literary modernism in a tradition that runs from Baudelaire the North American moderns and the South American postmodernistas It's a book that will be eye opening and informative to the general reader as well as to students of gender studies cultural studies literary history and poetry This Spanish English bilingual volume gathers the most famous and representative prose writings of Gabriela Mistral which have not been as readily available to English only readers as her poetry The pieces are grouped into four sections Fables Elegies and Things of the Earth includes fifteen of Mistral's most accessible prose poems Prose and Prose Poems from Desolación Desolation 1922 presents all the prose from Mistral's first important book Lyrical Biographies are Mistral's poetic meditations on Saint Francis and Sor Juana de la Cruz Literary Essays Journalism Messages collects pieces that reveal Mistral's opinions on a wide range of subjects including the practice of teaching the writers Alfonso Reyes Alfonsina Storni Rainer Maria Rilke and Pablo Neruda Mistral's own writing practices and her social beliefs Editor translator Stephen Tapscott rounds out the volume with a chronology of Mistral's life and a brief introduction to her career and prose Wyoming Barry Gifford, 2004-05-04 A woman and her young son travel by car through the southern and midwestern United States in this heartbreakingly spare novel in dialogue As the mother drives she and the boy Roy trade impressions of the landscape and of life in the process approaching an understanding of each other and their shared inner landscape Mom can we drive to Wyoming You mean now Uh huh Is it far Very far We're almost to Georgia Can we go someday Sure Roy we'll go We won't tell anyone right Mom No baby nobody will know where we are And we'll have a dog I don't see why not From now on when anything bad happens I'm going to think about Wyoming Running with my dog It's a good thing baby Everybody needs Wyoming from Wyoming Collected Poems Federico García Lorca, 2018-08-14 A revised edition of this major writer's complete poetical work And I who was walking with the earth at my waist saw two snowy eagles and a naked girl The one was the other and the girl was neither from Qasida of the Dark Doves Federico García Lorca was the most beloved poet of twentieth century Spain and one of the world's most influential modernist writers His work has long been admired for its passionate urgency and haunting evocation of sorrow and loss Perhaps more persistently than any writer of his time he sought to understand and accommodate the numinous sources of his inspiration Though he died at age thirty eight he left behind a generous body of poetry drama musical arrangements and drawings which continue to surprise and inspire Christopher Maurer a leading Garc a Lorca scholar and editor has brought together new and substantially revised translations by twelve poets and translators placed side by side with the Spanish originals The seminal volume Poet in New York is also included here in its entirety This is the most comprehensive collection in English of a poet who as Maurer writes in his illuminating introduction spoke unforgettably of all that most interests us the otherness of nature the demons of personal identity and artistic creation sex childhood and death

Night People Barry Gifford,1992 The author of Wild at Heart and The Wild Life of Sailor and Lula writes of what Tennessee Williams called something wild in the country that only the night people know He draws his characters from the shadows of the Deep South where they confront the chaotic horror of the United States at the end of the twentieth century

The Rooster Trapped in the Reptile Room Barry Gifford,2011-01-04 Everything I have to say about race and religion and politics is in the novels declares Barry Gifford The Rooster Trapped in the Reptile Room gathers generous portions of all thirteen novels and novellas as well as first person essays generous helpings of poetry journalism and a new interview with the author The broad contours of an episodic output emerge a full length view of the freaks and freakish incidents that populate Gifford s unique human comedy A world as Lula the author s favorite of all his characters reflects wild at heart and weird on top The Rooster Trapped in the Reptile Room provides essential reading for anyone after the soul of American writing
