Deeply committed to visionary and imaginative experience yet also fiercely engaged with the turbulent politics of his era, he is now recognised as a major contributor to the Romantic Movement. This edition presents Blake's poems in their literary categories and genres to which they belong: his much-loved lyrics, ballads, comic and satirical verse, descriptive and discursive poems, verse epistles and finally his remarkable prophetic poems including the whole of his two diffuse epics Milton and Jerusalem. Blake's poetry is intellectually challenging as well as formally inventive and this edition has a substantial critical introduction which places his ideas in the contemporary context of the Enlightenment and the artistic reaction against its key assumptions. His visual artistry led 21st-century critic Jonathan Jones to proclaim him far and away the greatest artist Britain has ever produced. In 2002 Blake was placed at number 38 in the BBC's poll of the 100 Greatest Britons.
