giving in distinct form or with any detail the story of his life He was the last man to write an autobiography as he himself expresses it I am not one who much or oft delights In personal talk And yet much of the life of this great poet his mental and spiritual aspirations and the wide range of his studies are chronicled in his poems They picture his surroundings the atmosphere in which he lived the episodes of his career the crises through which he passed No poet reflects his environment so completely as does Wordsworth It is an easy task to set forth the salient events in his life but to reproduce him as he was to look upon the man himself is difficult In our effort to find a true portraiture of his personal appearance we must depend upon the descriptive powers of his friends Thomas De Quincey who was his neighbor at Grasmere for a quarter of a century informs us that Wordsworth was somewhat above medium height of indifferent figure with narrow and drooping shoulders About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
