The Collected Poems of Anna Seward Volume 1 Lisa L. Moore, 2015-09-07 This critical edition of the poems of Anna Seward 1742-1809 re-establishes one of the most popular and prolific poets of the early Romantic period Her work influenced Charlotte Smith and Mary Robinson and later both Wordsworth and Coleridge Her reputation was so high that Sir Walter Scott edited the posthumous edition of her poems in 1810 Unlike Scott's this edition reproduces the poems as they were first published in periodicals and collections during Seward's lifetime allowing scholars to experience them as eighteenth century readers did It also includes more than 200 poems that were excluded from the Scott edition A Bookman's Catalogue Vol. 1

The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Tim Hunt, 1988 Robinson Jeffers 1887-1962 is not only the greatest poet that California and indeed the American West has produced but a major poet of the twentieth century who occupies a prominent place in the tradition of American prophetic poetry Jeffers consciously set himself apart from the poetry of his generation by physical isolation at his home in Carmel by his unusual poetic form and by his stance as an anti-modernist Yet his work represents a profound and profoundly original artistic response to problems that shaped modernist poetry and that still perplex poets today how to reconcile scientific and artistic discourses and modes of vision how to connect present day experience to myths perceived as lying at the origins of human culture how to renew the poetic language and how or whether to present art's claim to moral spiritual or epistemological seriousness within representations of modern phenomena For Jeffers as for no other important modern American poet there has never been a collected poems not even a truly representative selected poems the current Selected Poetry first published in 1938 contains no work from the last three volumes published during Jeffers lifetime or from his posthumous volume Now for the first time all of Jeffers completed poems both published and unpublished are presented in a single comprehensive and textually authoritative edition The first three volumes of this four volume work will present chronologically all of Jeffers published work from 1920 to 1963 The present volume consists of poems published between 1920 and 1928 and includes some of his greatest and best known poems Tamar Roan Stallion The Women at Point Sur and Cawdor as well as a recently discovered long poem Home There is also an Editorial Note and a General Introduction

The Cornhill Magazine, 1903 Artful Ali Smith, 2024-04-02 Ali Smith melds the tale and the essay into a magical hybrid form a song of praise to the power of stories in our lives In February 2012 the novelist Ali Smith delivered the Weidenfeld lectures on European comparative literature at St Anne's College Oxford Her lectures took the shape of this set of discursive stories Refusing to be tied down to either fiction or the essay form Artful is narrated by a character who is haunted literally by a former lover the writer of a series of lectures about art and literature A hypnotic dialogue unfolds a duet between and a meditation on art and storytelling a book about love grief memory and revitalization Smith's heady powers as a fiction writer harmonize with her keen perceptions as a reader and critic to form a living thing that reminds us that life and art are never separate. Artful is a book about the things art can do: the things art is full of and the quicksilver nature of all artfulness. It glances off artists and writers from Michelangelo through Dickens then all the way past postmodernity exploring every form from ancient cave painting to 1960s cinema musicals. This kaleidoscope opens up new inventive elastic insights on the relation of aesthetic form to the human mind: the ways we build our minds from stories; the bridges art builds between us. Artful is a celebration of literature's worth in and to the world and a meaningful contribution to that worth in itself. There has never been a book quite like it.     The Collected Poems of Anna Seward Lisa L. Moore, 2021-03-23 This critical edition of the poems of Anna Seward 1742-1809 re-establishes one of the most popular and prolific poets of the early Romantic period. Her work influenced Charlotte Smith and Mary Robinson and later both Wordsworth and Coleridge. Her reputation was so high that Sir Walter Scott edited the posthumous edition of her poems in 1810. Unlike Scott's this edition reproduces the poems as they were first published in periodicals and collections during Seward's lifetime, allowing scholars to experience them as eighteenth-century readers did. It also includes more than 200 poems that were excluded from the Scott edition.     At Blackwater Pond Mary Oliver, 2006-04-01 One of the astonishing aspects of Oliver's work is the consistency of tone over this long period. What changes is an increased focus on nature and an increased precision with language that has made her one of our very best poets. Stephen Dobyns, New York Times Book Review. Mary Oliver has published fifteen volumes of poetry and five books of prose in the span of four decades, but she rarely performs her poetry in live readings. Now with the arrival of At Blackwater Pond, Mary Oliver has given her audience what they've longed to hear: the poet's voice reading her own work. In this beautifully produced compact disc, Mary Oliver has recorded forty of her favorite poems, nearly spanning the length of her career from Dream Work through her newest volume New and Selected Poems Volume Two. The package is shrink-wrapped so that the elegant clothbound audiobook can take its place on the poetry shelf. It also includes a fifteen-page booklet with an original essay, Performance Note photos of the author at Blackwater Pond, and a full listing of the poems and their sources.     Ted Hughes: New Selected Poems Neil Roberts, 2007-01-01 This book opens with a section on Hughes's life, including an authoritative treatment of the relationship with Sylvia Plath and the effect of her suicide on his poetry and reputation, followed by a review of Hughes's artistic strategies, his poetic language and influences on his work, including his openness to mythology and the poets of Eastern Europe. The body of the book offers an approach to reading New Selected Poems 1995, taking in turn each of the remarkable and remarkably varied works from which the poems were selected: The Hawk, In the Rain, Lupercal, Wodwo, Crow, Cave Birds, Season Songs, Gaudete, Remains of Elmet, Moortown, Diary River, and Wolfwatching. It concludes with a review of Hughes's reception and a six-page bibliography.     The Publishers Weekly, 1896     The Broadview Introduction to Literature Lisa Chalykoff, Neta Gordon, Paul Lumsden, 2013-08-08 Designed for courses taught at the introductory level in Canadian

The Book of Samuel Mark Rudman, 2009-03-21 Crisis breakdown rejuvenation this is the territory of poetry that Rudman takes readers into with this set of essays Constructed as a series of character studies the essays are rooted in autobiographical material with biographical counterpoints tying the poets distinctly to places Even as they are placed however they are displaced Rudman's subjects from D H Lawrence to Czeslaw Milosz to T S Eliot are almost all exiles either geographically or within themselves This exile spins anger into energy transmuting emotion into imagination the same way that Passaic Falls known to William Carlos Williams turns water into power The mosaic style of the essays touches on nerve after nerve avoiding the snags of academic jargon to ease towards an illuminating truth about the artists shifting work and worlds Some of the Samuels Beckett and Fuller were able to navigate these shifts while others Coleridge and Johnson are shown to be less able to transmute their energy into motion

The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to reshape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries
