A Textlinguistic Analysis of Selected Old Testament Texts in Matthew 1-4 Jeffery L.

Capshaw,2004 While providing exciting research opportunities the New Testament s use of the Old Testament continues to create interpretive difficulties Although Matthew s use of the Old Testament generated much scholarly discussion throughout the historical critical period during the contemporary period specific interest in Matthew s Old Testament usage seemed to decrease Recently however many powerful analytical approaches have come to the fore in biblical studies including various text centered methods such as textlinguistics also known as discourse analysis This book applies one specific type of discourse grammar to several Old Testament citations in Matthew s Gospel This analysis is presented both to initiate discussion and to show how this and similar methods might be utilized to contribute important perspectives on the New Testament s use of the Old Testament

1, 2, and 3 John Mavis M. Leung,2025-08-21 This commentary approaches 1 2 and 3 John as social discourses and seeks to provide insights into the use of language in these epistles within their situational contexts The method of discourse analysis employed to analyze the texts and linguistic characteristics in 1 3 John is based on the model of systemic functional linguistics proposed by Michael A K Halliday The interpretative task of this commentary is to analyze the ways in which the author draws on the vast resources of language to convey his ideas to the audience and accomplish his purposes Despite the adoption of systemic functional linguistics the use of jargon is avoided in the interpretation of the Johannine Epistles and the commentary does not demand from the reader a mastery of this discourse analysis method The insights offered will help open up the text of 1 3 John in a fresh way
