Abraham Lincoln and the American Civil War are forever linked. The bloody conflict began in 1861, the year Lincoln was elected president. It ended in 1865, the year he was struck down by an assassin's bullet. During those years, the admired and despised 16th president served as a brilliant commander in chief, ultimately keeping the nation together and freeing thousands of its enslaved people. American Exceptionalism and Civil Religion John D. Wilsey, 2015-10-22. The idea of America's special place in history has been a guiding light for centuries. With thoughtful insight, John D. Wilsey traces the concept of exceptionalism, including its theological meaning and implications for civil religion. This careful history considers not only the abuses of the idea but how it can also point to constructive civil engagement and human flourishing.

Debunking the 1619 Project Mary Grabar, 2021-09-07. It's the New Big Lie. According to the New York Times's 1619 Project, America was not founded in 1776 with a declaration of freedom and independence but in 1619 with the introduction of African slavery into the New World. Ever since then, the 1619 Project argues, American history has been one long sordid tale of systemic racism. Celebrated historians have debunked this more than two hundred years of American literature; disproves it; parents know it to be false; and yet it is being promoted across America as an integral part of grade school curricula and unquestionable orthodoxy on college campuses. The 1619 Project is not just bad history; it is a danger to our national life, replacing the idea, goal, and reality of American unity with race-based obsessions that we have seen play out in violence, riots, and the destruction of American monuments, not to mention the wholesale rewriting of America's historical and cultural past. In her new book Debunking the 1619 Project, scholar Mary Grabar shows in dramatic fashion just how full of flat-out lies, distortions, and noxious propaganda the 1619 Project really is. It is essential reading for every concerned parent, citizen, school board member, and policymaker.
