Christine de Pizan Barbara K. Altmann, Deborah L. McGrady, 2020-08-11 Christine de Pizan wrote voluminously commenting on various aspects of the late medieval society in which she lived Considered by many to be the first French woman of letters Christine and her writing have been difficult to place ever since she began putting her thoughts on the page Although her work was neglected in the eighteenth and nineteenth century there has been an eruption of Christine studies in recent decades making her the perfect subject for a casebook This volume serves as a useful guide to contemporary research exploring Christine's life and work as they reflected and influenced her socio political milieu

Women's History in Global Perspective Bonnie G. Smith, 2004 This second volume is concerned with issues that have shaped the history of women in particular places and during particular eras It examines women in ancient civilisations including women in China Japan and Korea women and gender in South Asia and Latin America medieval women and the history of women in the US until 1865

Selected Writings of an Eighteenth-Century Venetian Woman of Letters Elisabetta Caminer Turra, 2007-11-01 Elisabetta Caminer Turra 1751-96 was one of the most prominent women in eighteenth century Italy and a central figure in the international Republic of Letters A journalist and publisher Caminer participated in important debates on capital punishment freedom of the press and the abuse of clerical power She also helped spread Enlightenment ideas into Italy by promoting and publishing Voltaire's latest works and translating new European plays plays she herself directed to great applause on Venetian stages Bringing together Caminer's letters poems and journalistic writings nearly all published for the first time here Selected Writings offers readers an intellectual biography of this remarkable figure as well as a glimpse into her intimate correspondence with the most prominent thinkers of her day But more important Selected Writings provides insight into the passion that animated Caminer's fervent reflections on the complex and shifting condition of women in her society the same passion that pushed her to succeed in the male dominated literary professions French Women Poets of Nine Centuries Norman R.

Shapiro,2008-09-22 Original texts and translations are presented on facing pages allowing readers to appreciate the vigor and variety of the French and the fidelity of the English versions Divided into three chronological sections spanning the Middle Ages through the sixteenth century the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries and the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the volume includes introductory essays by noted scholars of each era's poetry along with biographical sketches and bibliographical references for each poet BOOK JACKET Feminist Moments Susan Bruce,Katherine Smits,2015-12-17 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com The challenges presented by feminism to traditional understandings of representation normative values power relations and the political are not simply the product of late 20th century thinking Feminist Moments in examining some of the pivotal texts in the history of feminist thought demonstrates that these challenges emerge from a long and varied history of feminist writing The volume brings together texts from literary and analytical works written by women and men and from inside and outside the Western tradition including Mary Wortley Montagu Anna Wheeler and William Thompson Nazira Zeineddine Betty Friedan Andrea Dworkin and Luisa Valenzuela The volume is unique in offering close readings of key passages from the selected texts making it ideal for classroom use its original essays all authored by specialists will also be of interest to more advanced scholars In juxtaposing and analysing a wide range of texts which despite their significance are rarely discussed together Feminist Moments provides a fascinating historical narrative of feminist thought which will be highly valuable to students and scholars of the history of political thought political philosophy and gender and literary studies The Making of Juana of Austria Noelia García Pérez,2021-12-08 Edited by art historian Noelia García Pérez this first ever collection of essays on Juana of Austria the younger daughter of Holy Roman Emperor Charles V and sister to Philip II of Spain offers an interdisciplinary study of the Habsburg princess that addresses her political religious and artistic dimensions The volume's contextual framework shows her sharing agency with other women of her dynastic family who governed in the sixteenth century and developed an outstanding reputation for promoting artists and works of art The Making of Juana of Austria demonstrates how Juana's role as a leading patron of the arts offered her a means of creating her own image which she then promulgated through the objects she collected and her crowning architectural endeavor the Monastery Palace of the Descalzas Reales Drawing on early modern literature archival documents and artworks the essays in this volume delineate a new portrait of Juana of Austria Contributors not only highlight her multiple facets princess of Portugal regent of Castile and the only female Jesuit in history but also show her as a discerning art patron and collector who pursued an active role of patronage through which she constructed her own art collection and used it to articulate a visual statement of her lineage power and religious convictions Her role as an art promoter culminated with the foundation of the Descalzas Reales and the works of art she collected and displayed within its walls The Making of Juana of Austria offers a new perspective on female rule and patronage exploring the achievements of a crucial figure in the history of art court and gender in early modern Europe

Originally published between 1975 and 2003 the essays included in Humanism Venice and Women reflect Margaret L King's distinct but interlocking scholarly interests humanism and Venice women and humanism and women of the Italian Renaissance The first part focuses on defining the key characteristics of Venetian as opposed to other Italian humanisms with an analysis of Gramscian theory about the historical role of intellectuals as an aid to understanding humanism in Venice followed by essays on three Venetian humanists who wrote about family relationships or the need to avoid them The third section introduces the major Renaissance women humanists and analyzes the relation of their work to that of male humanists along with an essay on Renaissance mothers of sons in Italy and beyond Crossing boundaries of region and gender and the subdisciplines of intellectual and social history these essays are provocative in themselves while demonstrating how shifting historiographical contexts encourage scholars to view the historical record in new and fruitful ways
