Selected Writings Of Jules Supervielle:

Selected Writings Jules Supervielle, 1967 This is the first presentation in depth of the work of one of the most influential writers of modern France Jules Supervielle 1884 1960 Up to now only an occasional selection has appeared in an anthology and he is still little known to American readers Yet Supervielle is one of the unique creators of our time His fables have the clear eyed slightly wry vision of the intelligent child His poems have a lucidity of language that throws new light on each word each thought In his novel The Man Who Stole Children complete in this volume he uses the fantastic premise that a child uncared for by its parents may simply be picked up off the street and adopted to illuminate man's problems of human behavior and emotion Supervielle in his poetry and prose as in his personal influence on other writers is quiet unassuming matter of fact There is a quietness too almost an impersonality about his approach to life and the events of every day His poems are statements and almost never is there the fireworks of imagery or startling figure of speech that one associates with some twentieth century schools of writing Throughout his work may be felt the vast spaces of Uruguay where he was born and of the sea a pervading symbol This edition contains eight of his stories translated by Enid McLeod more than forty of his poems with French text en face translated by James Kirkup Denise Levertov and Kenneth Rexroth and the complete novel Le Voleur d'enfants translated by Alan Pryce Jones

Selected Writings Dylan Thomas, 1963

Selected Prose and Poetry of Jules Supervielle Jules Supervielle, Nancy Kline, 2014-03-07 This collection by the Uruguayan born French poet Jules Supervielle 1884 1960 contains ten tales and two chapters from his memoir Uruguay along with seventeen poems To read his tales and poems is exhilarating spun out as they are in his distinctive voice rueful funny forthright tender sometimes bitingly satiric by turns lyrical and abrupt Though still relatively unknown in the English language world Supervielle's works have been canonized in the prestigious Bibliothèque de la Pléiade and many of his titles have remained in print to this day All of the poems are presented in French and English the prose appears only in English Translated by Nancy Kline Patricia Terry and Kathleen Micklow Book jacket

Selected Writings Henri Michaux, 1968 Et udvalg af Henri Michaux tekster p engelsk

The Bright Nails Scattered on the Ground Allen R. Grossman, 1986 A series of poems traces the course of a love affair from both the man's and the woman's point of view

The Red Devil Battery Sign Tennessee

Williams, 1988 This book is William's symbol for the military industrial complex and all the dehumanizing trends it represents from mindless cocktail party chatter to bribery of officials to assassination plots directed against those who won't play the game to attempted coups by right wing zealots

Scenarios for a Mixed Landscape John Allman, 1986 Scenarios for a Mixed Landscape John Allman's third collection of poems is a book as remarkable for its lyricism as it is for its capaciousness for there seems to be no area of thought no branch of learning no dark region of the mind into which the poet is unwilling to delve His recent Clio's Children Dostoevsky at Semyonov Square and Other Poems is a reminder as the title implies that history is a narrative art In his newest book Allman reflects on art and nature love and death the dualities that animate our common humanity The poems in Scenarios for a Mixed Landscape look back at one level to the mutable mythic cosmos of Ovid as well as Lucretius universe of benign random change But to these ancient considerations Allman brings the insights indeed the language of modern science and evolution creating a speculative aesthetic appropriate to the awesome possibilities of the atomic age I would say Allman observes that Scenarios for a Mixed Landscape is about nature that the poems speak in the complementary idioms of art and science in an attempt to comprehend nature that love recapitulates all life forms and that love finally is the only ground we stand on the only steadiness beneath us earned by us yet strangely given as we sing of glory and grief John Allman's previous books of poems are Walking Four Ways in the Wind Princeton University Press 1979 and Clio's Children New Directions 1985 He is a professor of English at Rockland Community College State University of New York

That's Life William Herrick, 1985 In That's Life William Herrick's view of humanity is unsparing yet compassionate He sees life as commitment to ideals friends family but no one least of all Herrick said it was going to be easy His portraits of the members of a distinctly American family a novella five short stories and a group of five letters comprise not quite a novel but more than a collection of stories I think of it as a co-operative structure the author says in which each character owns and occupies his or her own place yet it is the entire family which operates the building To simplify matters I call the book a fiction And so we learn the past and present of each of the Millers Max and Rebecca Rebecca's mother Ruth in an old folks home and the three Miller children Eli an obsessive artist Peter an amateur student of life as he bums rides across the country and teen ager Nina a not so innocent working class child away at prep school on a scholarship But we learn about them in counterpoint and mosaic as Herrick turns our attention and our allegiance first to one member of the family and then another There are few books where human weaknesses are so fully displayed and yet where human endurance and capacity for joy are so palpably present

The Sunday of Life Raymond Queneau, 1977 The Sunday of Life the late Raymond Queneau's tenth novel was first published in French by Gallimard in 1951 and is now appearing for the first time in this country In the ingenuous ex Private Valentin Bru the central figure in The Sunday of Life Queneau has created that oddity in modern fiction the Hegelian naif Highly self conscious yet reasonably satisfied with his lot imbued with the good humor inherent in the naturally wise Valentin meets the painful nonsense of life's adventures with a slightly bewildered detachment

Seedtime Philippe Jaccottet, 1977 Since 1947 when his work first began to appear Philippe Jaccottet has published six volumes of poetry two of criticism three of prose poetry and several translations from the German Seedtime La Semailson the title he has given to his notebook journals written from 1954 through 1967 is an especially good introduction to this leading post war French author containing as it does passages in both prose and verse In explaining the word semailson Jaccottet has drawn a parallel between his sense of the yearly scattering of seed the sacredness of the act the uncertainty of its results and the sense he has of poetry and the written word Him his own description on the jacket of the original French edition Gallimard 1971 The despairing happiness of words the despairing defense of the impossible everything which contradicts denies mimicks or blasts At each instant it is like the first and last word the first and last poem embarrassed solemn without probability and without force stubborn fragility an enduring fountain and again in the evening its sound against death flabbiness stupidity again its freshness its limpidity against drivel Again the star out of the scabbard For You Hayden Carruth,1978-01-17 This book collects five long poems that have previously appeared with one exception only in magazines and limited editions One critic has called them virtually secret Yet they are probably the heart of Carruth's poetic achievement both technically and thematically Rising from the experience of emotional illness and the asylum the poems move at intervals and over a period of nearly fifty years toward a sustained workable view of humanity in crisis I have tried to create a person Carruth writes specifically a seeing living surmounting person Modesty is important and so are winter and the north A man alone in the snow is still much in this world including the social world though his in-ness is naturally a form of rebellion The poems included are The Asylum Journey to a Known Place North Winter Contra Mortem and My Father's Face Sun Rock Man Cid Corman,1970 Corman Sun Rock Man Poems about Matera Italy Heartstop Martin Grzimek,1984 Heartstop Stillstand des Herzens contains three unusual and riveting stories by Martin Grzimek a highly acclaimed young German writer In the first Heartstop a businessman goes to a nightclub to meet his wife's former lover but instead finds a beautiful provocative woman The young wife in Timestop would like to rid herself of her husband and does so but in a way she did not expect In Finlandia the island in a Finnish lake where a young married couple is spending a solitary vacation turns increasingly sinister The stories are thematically linked by an atmosphere of unease of inevitable menace the seemingly harmless events of everyday life weave themselves into a net in which ordinary people are caught making time and even hearts stand still Gerard Manley Hopkins Frank Raymond Leavis,1973 The larger part of this classic symposium on the poetry of Gerard Manley Hopkins was originally assembled as a special number of The Kenyon Review to celebrate in 1944 the centenary of the poet's birth and then published in the New Directions Makers of Modern Literature series Kill Memory William Herrick,1983 In William Herrick's Kill Memory erasing the past is just what seventy one year old Elizabeth cannot do A woman who has had many lovers a ruthless revolutionary a courageous underground courier during World War II and now a disengaged exile waiting out a solitary existence in Paris Boishke as Elizabeth has always been called gives her primary attention to the rituals of living eating dressing walking realistically facing up to old age trying to sleep and to her memories Tian Wen Yuan Qu,1986 Describes the historical background of the poem and poses questions about Chinese mythology and the nature of the universe The Public and Play Without a Title Federico García Lorca,1983 The public explores the relationship between the audience the theater and those who breathe life into the theater He draws connections between the theater life and love playing between showing and telling hiding and revealing Mrs. October was Here Coleman Dowell,1974 Welcome to the quintessential American town Oh beautiful for specious skies For ambient waves of pain It Depends Eugenio Montale,1980 This book appeared in Italy during the Nobel laureate's eighty-second year. The sardonic force of his shrewd observations of the contemporary scene remains unblunted even as the poet has become more involved with everyday more private more self-revealing. Here it gains even greater prominence as the poet attempts to find catchholds and constancies in an unstable world finally to accede to precariousness the muse of our time. Sigismund Lars Gustafsson, 1985. King Sigismund the seventeenth-century Polish monarch learns how to live simultaneously in the past present and the future.
