Selection From Scrutiny:

A Selection from Scrutiny ,1968      A Selection from Scrutiny: F. R. Leavis,1968-04-01 Dr Leavis s Selection from Scrutiny gives in two volumes important material which is not easily available elsewhere Though many well known books have already been derived from Scrutiny these two volumes do not duplicate material in those books and they give a great deal of otherwise uncollected material by Dr Mrs Leavis themselves The selection concentrates on English literature and literary criticism and also reflects Scrutiny s success from the 1930s to the 1950s in commenting on the important writers of the time Volume I begins with a collection of studies by Mrs Q D Leavis on academic traditions There follows a section of studies of T S Eliot Yeats Pound and more recent poets Two sections on Literary Culture and The Literary World comment on minor writers and on literary life and institutions including Dr Leavis s celebrated Keynes Spender and Currency Values

Robertson,1988-06-18      Contemporary Literary Critics NA NA,2015-12-25 A reference guide to the work of 115 modern British and American critics      Select Committee Effectiveness, Resources and Powers Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Liaison Committee,2012-11-08 Drawing on reports from committees evidence from outside observers and academic research this report concludes that two years after the general election and the Wright reforms the evidence is broadly encouraging although committees face some obstacles and there is room for improvement The old doctrine by which ministers alone are accountable to Parliament for the conduct of their department is being stretched to implausibility and there is a need for a changed approach It recommends that the Government engage with the Liaison Committee in a review of the relationship between Government and select committees with the aim of producing joint guidelines for departments and committees which recognise ministerial accountability the proper role of the Civil Service and the legitimate wish of Parliament for more effective accountability The report also makes numerous recommendations for Committees including that they be forward looking in scrutiny of departmental performance devoting less effort to raking over the coals of past events unless there are lessons to be learnt give more attention to the financial implications of departmental policy and how departments assess the effectiveness of their spending experiment with different approaches to evidence taking broaden the range of witnesses and make more use of commissioned research follow up recommendations to ensure that reports have impact and report to the House at least once each Session on what has been done The Committee intends to ask the Backbench Business Committee for time for a debate in the House of Commons on a motion endorsing its conclusions and recommendations      An Ethics of Political Communication Alexander Brown, 2021-09-27 Working in the tradition of analytic philosophy Alexander Brown argues that many different forms of political communication or anti communication that often infuriate the public can also be ethically or morally objectionable These forms include question dodging offering scripted answers stonewalling not listening disseminating propaganda pandering being insincere giving false denials issuing revisionist interpretations refusing to take responsibility never apologising boasting and gaslighting Brown invokes a host of normative reasons including those having to do with epistemic arrogance interference in autonomy and violating the right to be heard This is not to say that all things considered politicians should never engage in dubious political communication Sometimes these are necessary evils Brown argues however that further moral inquiry is needed to show why they are evils and to determine when the use of these rhetorical tactics can be excessive unreasonable or out of place Key Features Identifies and conceptualises forms of dubious political communication Develops an ethical evaluation of political communication Considers possible justifications for the use of dubious political communication Makes practical recommendations on how to regulate unethical political communication      Transfer Pricing Theory & Practice Hari Om Jindal, Surya Jindal, 2020      Parliamentary Oversight of the Executives Elena Griglio, 2020-10-01 Oversight of executives has always been a key function of parliaments and one that is central to developing the relationship between the executive and legislative branches of government However in reality governments are taking a more pronounced role in controlling legislation diluting the influence of parliament This book plots this trend in parliaments across Europe to illustrate points of convergence and divergence In so doing it suggest tools and methods that parliaments can develop to bolster their crucial oversight role      HL 5 - Investigative Select Committees in the 2010-15 Parliament The Stationery Office, 2015      The Standard , 1917      Select Speeches, Forensick and Parliamentary Nathaniel Chapman, 1807      Revisiting Rebuilding the House Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Political and Constitutional Reform Committee, 2013-07-18 This report reviews progress since 2009 on the recommendations of the Select Committee on Reform of the House of Commons known as the Wright Committee after its Chair Dr Tony Wright and looks forward It concludes that Commons select committees are more effective and election of select committee chairs and members by MPs in a secret ballot instead of being appointed by the whips as recommended by Wright have brought greater transparency and democracy the Backbench Business Committee another suggestion of Wright has been a success giving backbenchers the chance to decide the subjects of debates covering about a quarter of the House s time another key Wright recommendation a House Business Committee which would give backbenchers an influence on the rest of the House s agenda can be and should be introduced without delay The Coalition Agreement said in 2010 that the Committee would be established by the third year of this Parliament the House s petitions procedure is failing to meet public expectations There is too much confusion between the roles of Government and Parliament The Committee argues that there is still a case for the establishment of a petitions committee and recommends that officials work up a detailed and costed proposition which could then be put to the House for its endorsement
