Self Reality And Reason In Tibetan Philosophy Tsongkhapa's Quest For The Middle View:

Self, Reality and Reason in Tibetan Philosophy Thupten Jinpa, 2013-01-22 The work explores the historical and intellectual context of Tsongkhapa's philosophy and addresses the critical issues related to questions of development and originality in Tsongkhapa's thought. It also deals extensively with one of Tsongkhapa's primary concerns, namely his attempts to demonstrate that the Middle Way philosophy's deconstructive analysis does not negate the reality of the everyday world. The study's central focus, however, is the question of the existence and the nature of self. This is explored both in terms of Tsongkhapa's deconstruction of the self and his reconstruction of person. Finally, the work explores the concept of reality that emerges in Tsongkhapa's philosophy and deals with his understanding of the relationship between critical reasoning, no self, and religious experience.

The World's Greatest Religious Leaders Scott E. Hendrix, Uchenna Okeja, 2018-03-01 This book provides reliable information about important world religious leaders, correcting the misinformation that can be found on the internet. Religious leaders have shaped the course of history and deeply affected the lives of many individuals. This book offers alphabetically arranged profiles of roughly 160 religious leaders from around the world and across time, carefully chosen for their impact and importance and to maximize inclusiveness of faiths from around the world. Scholars from around the world, each one an expert in his or her field and all holding advanced degrees, came together to create an essential resource for students and for those with an interest in religion and its history. Every entry has been carefully edited in a two-stage review process, guaranteeing accuracy and readability throughout the work. Not strictly a biographical reference that recounts the facts of religious figures' lives, the book helps users understand how the selected figures changed history. The entries are accompanied by excerpts of primary source documents and suggestions for further reading, while the book closes with a bibliography of essential print and electronic resources for further research.

Religious Epistemology through Schillebeeckx and Tibetan Buddhism Jason M. VonWachenfeldt, 2021-02-11 This study investigates how a comparison between the Catholic theologian Edward Schillebeeckx's controversial reading of Thomist philosophy and the Tibetan Buddhist Gendun Chopel's challenge to the standard Geluk teaching of Tsongkhapa's Madhyamaka philosophy might assist in rethinking conceptions of religious knowledge. Utilizing a wide variety of methodical approaches to establish an imaginary dialogue between these two thinkers, this comparison remains embodied in the thought and praxis of actual individuals and yet still firmly embedded within the conversations and trajectories of their broader religious traditions.

The Madman's Middle Way Donald S. Lopez Jr., 2008-09-15 Gendun Chopel is considered the most important Tibetan intellectual of the twentieth century. His life spanned the two defining moments in modern Tibetan history: the entry into Lhasa by British troops in 1904 and by Chinese troops in 1951. Recognized as an incarnate lama while he was a child, Gendun Chopel excelled in the traditional monastic curriculum and went on to become expert in fields as diverse as philosophy, history, linguistics, geography, and tantric Buddhism. Near the end of his life, before he was persecuted and imprisoned by the government of the young Dalai

Lama he would dictate the Adornment for Nagarjuna's Thought a work on Madhyamaka or Middle Way philosophy It sparked controversy immediately upon its publication and continues to do so today The Madman's Middle Way presents the first English translation of this major Tibetan Buddhist work accompanied by an essay on Gendun Chopel's life liberally interspersed with passages from his writings Donald S Lopez Jr also provides a commentary that sheds light on the doctrinal context of the Adornment and summarizes its key arguments Ultimately Lopez examines the long standing debate over whether Gendun Chopel in fact is the author of the Adornment the heated critical response to the work by Tibetan monks of the Dalai Lama's sect and what the Adornment tells us about Tibetan Buddhism's encounter with modernity The result is an insightful glimpse into a provocative and enigmatic work that will be of great interest to anyone seriously interested in Buddhism or Asian religions

Illuminating the Intent Tsong-kha-pa Blo-bzang-grags-pa, Je Tsongkhapa, 2021-04-20 This work is an authoritative exposition of Candrakirti's seventh century classic Entering the Middle Way Written primarily as a supplement to Nagarjuna's Fundamental Verses on the Middle Way Candrakirti's text integrates the central insight of Nagarjuna's thought the rejection of any metaphysical notion of intrinsic objective being with the ethical and edifying elements of the Buddha's teachings He undertakes this by correlating the progressive stages of insight into the emptiness of intrinsic existence with the well known Mahayana framework of the ten levels of the bodhisattva Completed the year before the author's death Tsongkhapa's exposition of Candrakirti's text is recognized by the Tibetan tradition as the final standpoint of Tsongkhapa on many of the questions of Buddhist Madhyamaka philosophy Written in lucid exemplary Tibetan Tsongkhapa's work presents a wonderful marriage of rigorous Madhyamaka philosophical analysis with a detailed and subtle account of the progressively advancing mental states and spiritual maturity realized by sincere Madhyamaka practitioners The work is still used as the principal textbook in the study of Indian Madhyamaka philosophy in many Tibetan monastic colleges Tsongkhapa's extensive writings on Madhyamaka philosophy including the present text ushered in a new phase of engagement with the philosophy of emptiness in Tibet giving rise to a great flowering of literary activity on the subject by subsequent Tibetan scholars like Gyaltsab J Khedrup J and the First Dalai Lama as well as the critiques of Taktsang Lotsawa Gorampa Shkya Chokden and Karmapa Miky Dorj and the subsequent responses to these by Tsongkhapa's followers such as Jamyang Galo Jetsun Chokyi Gyaltsen and Panchen Losang Chogyen

Cross-Cultural Perspectives on Hagiographical Strategies Massimo A. Rondolino, 2017-01-12 This book examines the potential of conducting studies in comparative hagiology through parallel literary and historical analyses of spiritual life writings pertaining to distinct religious contexts In particular it focuses on a comparative analysis of the early sources on the medieval Christian Saint Francis of Assisi 1182-1226 and the Tibetan Buddhist Milarepa c 1052-1135 up to and including the so called standard versions of their life stories written by Bonaventure of Bagnoregio 1221-1274 and Tsangnyen Heruka 1452-1507 respectively The book thus demonstrates how in the social and religious contexts of both 1200s Italy and 1400s Tibet narratives of the lives deeds and teachings of two individuals recognized as spiritual champions were seen as the most effective means to promote spiritual doctrinal and political agendas Therefore as well being highly relevant to those studying hagiographical sources this book will be of interest to scholars working across the fields of religion and the comparative study of religious phenomena as well as history and literature in the pre modern period Mipham's Dialectics and the Debates on Emptiness Karma Phuntsho,2005-03-31 This is an introduction to the Buddhist philosophy of Emptiness which explores a number of themes in connection with the concept of Emptiness a highly technical but very central notion in Indo Tibetan Buddhism It examines the critique by the leading Nyingma school philosopher Mipham 1846 1912 formulated in his diverse writings The book focuses on related issues such as what is negated by the doctrine of emptiness the nature of ultimate reality and the difference between extrinsic and intrinsic emptiness Karma Phuntsho s book aptly undertakes a thematic and selective discussion of these debates and Mipham s qualms about the Gelukpa understanding of Emptiness in a mixture of narrative and analytic style

Realizing the Profound View Thubten Chodron,Dalai Lama,2022-12-20 The eighth volume in the Dalai Lama s definitive and bestselling Library of Wisdom and Compassion series and the second of three focusing on emptiness In Realizing the Profound View the Dalai Lama presents the analysis and meditations necessary to realize the ultimate nature of reality With attention to Nagarjuna s five point analysis Candrakirti s seven point examination and Pali sutras the Dalai Lama leads us to investigate who or what is the person Are we our body Our mind If we are not inherently either of them how do we exist and what carries the karma from one life to the next As we explore these and other fascinating questions he skillfully guides us along the path avoiding the chasms of absolutism and nihilism and introduces us to dependent arising We find that although all persons and phenomena lack an inherent essence they do exist dependently This nominally imputed mere I carries the karmic seeds We discover that all phenomena exist by being merely designated by term and concept they appear as like illusions unfindable under ultimate analysis but functioning on the conventional level Furthermore we come to understand that emptiness dawns as the meaning of dependent arising and dependent arising dawns as the meaning of emptiness The ability to posit subtle dependent arisings in the face of realizing emptiness and to establish ultimate and conventional truths as non contradictory brings us to the culmination of the correct view The second of three volumes on the nature of reality in the Library of Wisdom and Compassion series Realizing the Profound View challenges the ways we view the self and the world bringing us that much closer to liberation Buddhist and Christian? Rose Drew,2013-07-03 This is a detailed exploration of Buddhist Christian dual belonging engaging from both Buddhist and Christian perspectives the questions that arise and drawing on extensive interviews with well known individuals in the vanguard of this important and growing phenomenon The issue is pressing insofar the last century has witnessed a gradual but profound transformation of the West s religious landscape In today s context of diversity people are often influenced by more than one religion Multireligious identities are consequently on the rise At one end of the spectrum are those who identify themselves as fully belonging to more than one tradition One of the most prevalent combinations is Christianity and Buddhism This book addresses central and fundamental questions How is it possible to be authentically Buddhist and authentically Christian when for example God is central to Christianity yet absent from Buddhism when Christians have faith in Jesus Christ while Buddhists take refuge in the Buddha when Christians hope for heaven and Buddhists hope for nirvana and when Buddhists and Christians engage in different practices Are those who identify themselves as belonging to both traditions profoundly irrational religiously schizophrenic or perhaps just spiritually superficial Or is it possible somehow to reconcile the thought and practice of Buddhism and Christianity in such a way that one can be deeply committed to both And if it is possible will the influence of Buddhist Christians on each of these traditions be something to be regretted or celebrated

Culture and Human

Thought Gary Edson,2022-10-10 Individuals often view culture as activities beyond their interests associating the concept with exclusivity or high art To be cultured is often synonymous with engaging in physical expressions of art like opera a classical music concert a museum exhibit or a theater performance While culture does indeed extend to all these things it is the internal processes of memory language imagination and thought that frequently have more significance than any real world activity Culture is day to day life ideas identity and perception This book investigates the ways in which thought and belief have inspired collective human endeavors and traditions It brings the act of thinking into focus outlining its effect on civic development while exploring the history of cultural epistemology Spanning time periods and geographic regions chapters derive new meaning from the connections between thought belief tradition and the cultures they create They explore how active thinking leads to group identity and document the multigenerational ideas and attitudes that have strengthened cultural memory

Tibetan Buddhism and Mystical Experience Yaroslav Komarovski,2015-07-01 Tibetan Buddhism and Mystical Experiences connects the Tibetan Buddhist polemics about the realization of ultimate reality with contemporary debates regarding mystical experience arguing that realization of reality as understood by Tibetan thinkers both resembles the category of unmediated mystical experience and simultaneously challenges and suggests rethinking the very meaning of that category

Social Structuration in Tibetan Society Jia Luo, 2016-12-20 This volume is unique in the literature concerning both the sociology of education and Tibetan society. It aims to propose a Tibetan sociology of education something that no other author has attempted as well as to provide insights into the nature of Tibetan society both historically and currently through the application of Giddens' structuration theory supplemented by the work of ancient Tibetan philosopher Je Tsongkhapa. Previous Western accounts of Tibetan history and society have lacked insider perspectives as well as access to original documentation in the Tibetan language. The author of this volume is Tibetan and does not experience these limitations. He has also taught sociology at the university level and in 1999 published a general textbook on sociology in Tibetan which attempted to draw on Western theories and apply them to the Tibetan context. In short, the author appears to be highly credible in taking on this extremely ambitious project.

Pictures of the World Scott Steinkerchner, Peter Hunter, 2018-07-26 What is real? What is the foundation of right and wrong? How can we know? There are many ways to answer these questions. Western religious views in which humanity is part of God's creation. Eastern religious views in which delusion traps humanity in a cycle of reincarnation and secular views in which humanity evolved as part of the material universe driven by nothing other than the impersonal forces of evolution. Each of these views paints unique and comprehensive pictures of the world to convey their vision. These pictures are as different from each other as if they were of three different lands separated from each other by patrolled borders. The border between Eastern and Western religions is guarded by arguments over the nature of the divine and rational versus experiential approaches to salvation. Both of these territories are separated from the land of scientific atheists who deny the existence of any supernatural reality and see the scientific method as the sole valid arbiter of truth. This book presents all three views for non-specialists enabling readers to enter them imaginatively. It then compares these approaches on different contemporary topics. This book is for anyone who wonders why people believe what they do.

Understanding the Dalai Lama Rajiv Mehrotra, 2009-06-15 His Holiness The Dalai Lama, the remarkable exiled spiritual and temporal head of Tibet, is a statesman for our troubled times. This collection of 11 essays by scholars, writers, theologians, and others whose lives he has touched represents a broad spectrum of perspectives on this Nobel Peace Prize recipient who is also a living Buddha to six million followers. Included among the contributions are personal reflections by those who have been privileged to get to know His Holiness as well as illuminating introductions to some of his core beliefs. Editor Rajiv Mehrotra, who contributes the book's first essay, says of the Dalai Lama: "As with all truly great and inspiring leaders, his life is his message and philosophy." The essays in this volume shed light on that fascinating life, painting the portrait of a tireless champion of compassion, altruism, and peace who is both deeply spiritual and disarmingly human.

Buddhist Perspectives on Free Will Rick Repetti, 2016-07-28 Throughout the history of Buddhism, little has been said prior to the Twentieth Century that explicitly raises the question whether we have free will, though the Buddha rejected

fatalism and some Buddhists have addressed whether karma is fatalistic Recently however Buddhist and Western philosophers have begun to explicitly discuss Buddhism and free will This book incorporates Buddhist philosophy more explicitly into the Western analytic philosophical discussion of free will both in order to render more perspicuous Buddhist ideas that might shed light on the Western philosophical debate and in order to render more perspicuous the many possible positions on the free will debate that are available to Buddhist philosophy The book covers Buddhist and Western perspectives on the problem of free will The puzzle of whether free will is possible if as Buddhists believe there is no agent self Theravada views Mahayana views Evidential considerations from science meditation and skepticism The first book to bring together classical and contemporary perspectives on free will in Buddhist thought it is of interest to academics working on Buddhist and Western ethics comparative philosophy metaphysics philosophy of mind philosophy of action agency and personal identity

Theology and the Soul of the Liberal State Leonard V. Kaplan, Charles L. Cohen, 2010-01-01 Rising calls in both the United States and abroad for theologizing national agendas have renewed examinations about whether liberal states can accommodate such programs without either endangering citizens rights or trivializing religious concerns Conventional wisdom suggests that theology is necessarily unfriendly to the liberal state but neither philosophical analysis nor empirical argument has convincingly established that conclusion Examining the problem from a variety of perspectives including law philosophy history political theory and religious studies the essays in Theology and the Soul of the Liberal State suggest the possibilities for and limits on what theological reflection might contribute to liberal polities across the globe Theology and the Soul of the Liberal State develops these issues under five headings Part One explores The Nature of Religious Argument as it can inflect discussions of public policy political theory jurisprudence and education Part Two Theologies of the Marketplace notes that theology can by turns be highly critical neutral or even inordinately supportive of market operations Part Three European Perspectives reviews and develops arguments from Abraham Kuyper Karl Barth and French post modernists concerning how one might integrate theological discourse into the public sphere Part Four offers Israel Pakistan and Tibet as Asian Perspectives on how theology may comport with liberalism in recently created states or in the last case a diasporic government in exile where powerful religious constituencies make secular civil action extremely problematic Finally Part V Religion and Terror probes the vexed relationship between conceptions of divine and human justice where the imperatives of theology and state confront each other most nakedly Collectively Theology and the Soul of the Liberal State suggests that the liberal state cannot keep theology out of public discourse and may even benefit from its intervention
