Self, Sex, and Gender in Cross-cultural Fieldwork Tony Larry Whitehead, Mary Ellen Conaway, 1986      Self, Sex, and Gender in Cross-Cultural Fieldwork Tony L. Whitehead, Mary E. Conway,      Sex, Sexuality, and the Anthropologist Fran Markowitz, Michael Ashkenazi, 1999 Sex in the field the dilemma of whether to cover up or display sexual identities and desires during the course of anthropological fieldwork is one of the best kept secrets in the discipline Contending that the conventional pose of a genderless asexual ethnographic researcher is impossible to sustain this volume brings sex and sexuality into the open as essential components of ethnographic study that must be overtly recognized and proactively addressed Sex Sexuality and the Anthropologist recounts the real life experiences of anthropologists who are forced to acknowledge that their hosts in the field view them as gendered beings in a social context not as asexual objective observers Far from controlling the research environment and defining the terms of interviewer informant relationships these researchers find they must engage in a process of negotiating their position including their sexual position within the communities they study Ranging from public baths in Austria to lesbian bars in Taiwan and from Mexico to Nigeria to Finland to Japan Sex Sexuality and the Anthropologist raises critical questions about ethnographers reflexivity subjectivity and detachment confronting the challenge of a holistic approach to the anthropological enterprise      Beyond Common Sense: Sexuality And Gender In Contemporary Japan Wim Lunsing, 2015-12-22 First published in 2001 This volume is based on the author's visit to Japan in Summer 1986 on his findings about some of the questions he was asked whilst there He was 25 and these questions centred around asking if he was married or had a girlfriend when in his homeland of the Netherlands he openly identified as gay This research is an investigation of how gay and lesbian people women's and men's liberationists singles and other people such as transsexuals transvestites and hermaphrodites whose ideas feelings or lifestyles are at variance with Japanese constructions of marriage and inherently the construction of life live in Japan      Gender and Qualitative Methods Helmi Järviluoma, Pirkko Moisala, Anni Vilkkö, 2003-10-21 This text outlines the practical and philosophical issues of gender in qualitative research and covers areas including field work life story membership categorization analysis and analysis of gender in sound and vision      Black Subjects in Africa and Its Diasporas B. Talton, Q. Mills, 2011-08-15 Through the research and experiences of 16 scholars whose native homes span ten countries this collection shifts the discussion of belonging and affinity within Africa and its diaspora toward local perceptions and the ways in which these notions are asserted or altered      Women's Studies Linda Krikos, Cindy Ingold, 2004-08-30 This truly monumental work maps the literature of women's studies covering thousands of titles and Web sites in 19 subject areas published between 1985 and 1999 Intended as a reference and collection development tool this bibliography provides a guide for women's studies information for each title along with a detailed often evaluative review The annotations summarize each work's content its importance or contribution to women's studies and its relationship to other titles on the subject Core titles and titles that are out of print are noted and reviews indicate which titles are appropriate as texts or supplemental texts This definitive guide to the literature of women s studies is a must purchase for academic libraries that support women s studies programs and it is a useful addition to any academic or public library that endeavors to represent the field A team of subject specialists has taken on the immense task of documenting publications in the area of women s studies in the last decades of the 20th century The result is this truly monumental work which maps the field covering thousands of titles and Web sites in 19 subject areas published between 1985 and 1999 Intended as a reference and collection development tool this bibliography provides a guide for women s studies information for each title along with a detailed often evaluative review The annotations summarize each work s content its importance or contribution to women s studies and its relationship to other titles on the subject Most reviews cite and describe similar and contrasting titles substantially extending the coverage Core titles and titles that are out of print are noted and reviews indicate which titles are appropriate as texts or supplemental texts Taking up where the previous volume by Loeb Searing and Stineman left off this is the definitive guide to the literature of women s studies It is a must purchase for academic libraries that support women s studies programs and a welcome addition to any academic or public library that endeavors to represent the field

Voices from Mutira Jean Davison,1996 Documenting the changes occurring since the 1984 study this edition provides a collection of life histories from the women of Mutira Two new introductory chapters frame the life histories within the context both of significant macro level transitions in Kenya and current thinking on gender

Handbook of Interview Research Jaber F. Gubrium,James A. Holstein,2002 The Handbook of Interview Research is the most ambitious attempt yet at examining the place of the interview in contemporary society Interviewing is the predominant mode of research in the social sciences It s also the stock in trade of information seekers in organizations and institutions of all kinds as well as in the mass media Across the board interviews provide today s leading window on the world of experience The Handbook offers a comprehensive examination of the interview at the cutting edge of information technology Drawing upon leading experts from a wide range of professional disciplines this book addresses conceptual and technical challenges that confront both academic researchers and interviewers with more applied goals From interview theory to the nuts and bolts of the interview process the coverage is impressively broad and authoritative The Handbook of Interview Research is both encyclopedic and thematic As an encyclopedia it provides extensive discussions of the methodological issues now surrounding interview practice offering a multi faceted assessment of what has become the method of choice for obtaining personal information in today s society But the Handbook also is a story which spins a particular tale of interviewing one that moves from the commonly recognized individual interview to what is called the interview society The gist of the presentation is that we can no longer regard the interview as simply an instrument for gathering data but must now also view it an integral part of society

Out in the Field Ellen Lewin,William Leap,1996 Lesbian and gay anthropologists write in Out in the Field about their research and personal experiences in conducting fieldwork about the ethical and intellectual dilemmas they face in writing about lesbian or gay populations and about the impact on their careers of doing lesbian gay research The first volume in which lesbian and gay anthropologists discuss personal experiences Out in the Field offers compelling illustrations of professional lives both closeted and out to colleagues and fieldwork informants It also concerns aligning career goals with personal sexual preferences and speaks directly to issues of representation and authority currently being explored throughout the social sciences

Handbook of Methods in Cultural Anthropology H. Russell Bernard,Clarence C. Gravlee,2014-07-08 The Handbook of Methods in Cultural Anthropology now in its second edition maintains a strong benchmark for understanding the scope of contemporary anthropological field methods Avoiding divisive debates over science and humanism the contributors draw upon both traditions to explore fieldwork in practice The second edition also reflects major developments of the past decade including the rising prominence of mixed methods the emergence of new technologies and evolving views on ethnographic writing Spanning the chain of research from designing a project through methods of data collection and interpretive analysis the Handbook features new chapters on ethnography of online communities social survey research and network and geospatial analysis Considered discussion of ethics epistemology and the presentation of research results to diverse audiences round out the volume The result is an essential guide for all scholars professionals and advanced students who employ fieldwork

Styling Masculinity Kristen Barber,2016-08-24 The twenty first century has seen the emergence of a new style of man the metrosexual Overwhelmingly straight white and wealthy these impeccably coiffed urban professionals spend big money on everything from facials to pedicures all part of a multi billion dollar male grooming industry Yet as this innovative study reveals even as the industry encourages men to invest more in their appearance it still relies on women to do much of the work Styling Masculinity investigates how men s beauty salons have persuaded their clientele to regard them as masculine spaces To answer this question sociologist Kristen Barber goes inside Adonis and The Executive two upscale men s salons in Southern California Conducting detailed observations and extensive interviews with both customers and employees she shows how female salon workers not only perform the physical labor of snipping tweezing waxing and exfoliating but also perform the emotional labor of pampering their clients and pumping up their masculine egos Letting salon employees tell their own stories Barber not only documents occasions when these workers are objectified and demeaned but also explores how their jobs allow for creativity and confer a degree of professional dignity In the process she traces the vast network of economic and social relations that undergird the burgeoning male beauty industry

Qualitative Research Practice Clive Seale, 2007 Aimed at the student reader this book demonstrates the benefits of using particular methods from the viewpoint of real life experience It contains chapters written by leading internationally distinguished qualitative researchers who recount and reflect on their own research experiences as well as others

Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing As this term suggests the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters diaries memoirs family histories case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured It includes entries on genres and subgenres national and regional traditions from around the world and important auto biographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history anthropology testimonies and the representation of life stories in non verbal art forms

Feminist Anthropology Ellen Lewin, 2009-02-09 Feminist Anthropology surveys the history of feminist anthropology and offers students and scholars a fascinating collection of both classic and contemporary articles grouped to highlight key themes from the past and present Offers vibrant examples of feminist ethnographic work rather than synthetic overviews of the field Each section is framed by a theoretical and bibliographic essay Includes a thoughtful introduction to the volume that provides context and discusses the intellectual foremothers of the field including Margaret Mead Ruth Landes Phyllis Kaberry and Zora Neale Hurston

From the Kitchen to the Parlor Lanita Jacobs-Huey, 2006-04-20 When is hair just hair and when is it not just hair Documenting the politics of African American women's hair this multi sited linguistic ethnography explores everyday interaction in beauty parlors Internet discussions comedy clubs and other contexts to illuminate how and why hair matters in African American women's day to day experiences

Conversing on Gender G. G. Bolich, 2007-08 Conversing on Gender is as its subtitle indicates a primer for entering the broad conversation on gender that can be found both inside and outside of academic circles The book considers the relation of gender to sex and sexuality reviews prominent theories of gender and covers basic gender issues

Sex and Violence Penelope Harvey, Peter Gow, 2021-04-29 Produced in response to the growing international demand for information this book details the latest research in understanding and controlling violent and sexual offences Increasing numbers of psychologists are now studying and working with offenders to the advancement of forensic psychology Chapters cover contributions from ten different countries and are grouped into three sections dealing with risk assessment sex offenders and offences and violent offenders and offences The first section discusses the progress that has been made towards making accurate decisions about the risk that an individual poses to the community and emphasises the need to draw on both clinical experience and research The second section explores understandings and investigations of sexual offences including discussion on American commitment laws for sexually violent predators the status of recovered memories in criminal trials factors influencing delays in reporting sexual abuse a model of rapists accounts of their offences and situational factors in sexual offending The final section on violent offenders and offences includes discussion on criminal careers domestic violence mutilation murder in Japan offender profiling and sentencing of homicide cases This book will be of interest to scholars in criminology psychology and forensic psychiatry and to policy makers and practitioners who deal with sexual and violent offences     A Handbook for Social Science Field Research Ellen Perecman, Sara R. Curran, 2006-01-24 A Handbook for Social Science Field Research Essays as well as a perfect lightweight handbook for all researchers and professionals interested in having a comprehensive collection of bibliographic information for social science research
