the application of object relations theories to fields outside of psychoanalysis Psychoanalytic Books A Quarterly Journal of Reviews A Jason Aronson Book Object Relations Theory and Self Psychology in Social Work Practice Eda Goldstein, 2001

Object Relations and Self Psychology are two leading schools of psychological thought discussed in social work classrooms and applied by practitioners to a variety of social work populations Yet both groups have lacked a basic manual for teaching and reference until now For them Dr Eda G Goldstein s book fills a void on two fronts Part I provides a readable systematic and comprehensive review of object relations and self psychology while Part II gives readers a friendly step by step description and illustration of basic treatment techniques For educators this textbook offers a learned and accessible discussion of the major concepts and terminology treatment principles and the relationship of object relations and self psychology to classic Freudian theory Practitioners find within these pages treatment guidelines for such varied problems as illness and disability the loss of a significant other and such special problems as substance abuse child maltreatment and couple and family disruptions In a single volume Dr Goldstein has met the complex challenges of education and clinical practice , Fairbairn's Object Relations Theory in the Clinical Setting David P. Celani, 2010-04-07 W R D

Fairbairn 1889 1964 challenged the dominance of Freud s drive theory with a psychoanalytic theory based on the internalization of human relationships Fairbairn assumed that the unconscious develops in childhood and contains dissociated memories of parental neglect insensitivity and outright abuse that are impossible the children to tolerate consciously In Fairbairn s model these dissociated memories protect developing children from recognizing how badly they are being treated and allow them to remain attached even to physically abusive parents Attachment is paramount in Fairbairn s model as he recognized that children are absolutely and unconditionally dependent on their parents Kidnapped children who remain attached to their abusive captors despite opportunities to escape illustrate this intense dependency even into adolescence At the heart of Fairbairn s model is a structural theory that organizes actual relational events into three self and object pairs one conscious pair the central ego which relates exclusively to the ideal object in the external world and two mostly unconscious pairs the child s antilibidinal ego which relates exclusively to the rejecting parts of the object and the child s libidinal ego which relates exclusively to the exciting parts of the object The two dissociated self and object pairs remain in the unconscious but can emerge and suddenly take over the individual s central ego When they emerge the other is misperceived as either an exciting or a rejecting object thus turning these internal structures into a source of transferences and reenactments Fairbairn s central defense mechanism splitting is the fast shift from central ego dominance to either the libidinal ego or the antilibidinal ego a near perfect model of the borderline personality disorder In this book David Celani reviews Fairbairn s five foundational papers and outlines their application in the clinical setting He discusses the four unconscious structures and offers the clinician concrete suggestions on how to recognize and respond to them effectively in the heat of the clinical interview Incorporating decades of experience into his analysis Celani emphasizes the internalization of the therapist as a new good object and devotes entire sections to the treatment of histrionic obsessive and borderline personality disorders Object Relations Psychotherapy Cheryl Glickauf-Hughes, Marolyn Wells, 2006-12-20 Glickauf Hughes and Wells present a clear and well organized review of personality development according to object relations theorists They offer an explanation and critique of each major theorist note issues on which there is disagreement along with areas of investigation not fully explored and present implications for treatment Concepts are well defined and one gets the sense of a cohesive body of knowledge possibly more cohesive than it actually is Those unfamiliar with object relations theory will have a good outline those who know enough to be confused will find some clarification Journal of Psychotherapy Practice and Research

Ward, Cat Pause, Karen Swabey, Karen Yates, Rosanne Burton Smith, 2015-09-28 Lifespan Development Third Australasian edition explores human physical cognitive and social development within an Australian and New Zealand context Building on the successful first and second editions the resource s comprehensive theory coverage includes the latest local and international research in this ever evolving field and is perfectly complemented by numerous physical and mental health applications within local psychological allied health and educational settings This edition includes enhanced coverage of developmental theories and increased integrated coverage of cross cultural and Indigenous issues unique to the multicultural societies of Australia and New Zealand It is an ideal resource offering for undergraduate students in both countries in order to enhance understanding of human development from conception through to the end of life Relocation, Gender and Emotion Sue Jervis, 2018-04-17 This book has two main aims firstly to provide a rare detailed description of the use of a psychoanalytically informed reflexive research method to achieve an in depth understanding of social phenomena and secondly to throw some much needed light onto the complex intrapsychic and interpersonal influences that impact upon military wives who accompany members of the British Armed Forces to postings overseas These arguments are particularly relevant at a time when the military is over stretched given that unhappy wives can adversely affect the retention of servicemen This is an important contribution to the on going development of psycho social studies Handbook of Psychology: Personality and social psychology Irving B. Weiner, Donald K. Freedheim, 2003 Includes established theories and cutting edge developments Presents the work of an international group of experts Presents the nature origin implications an future course of major unresolved issues in the area Get the Diagnosis Right Jerome S. Blackman, 2011-01-19 Dr Jerome Blackman author of 101 Defenses How the Mind Shields Itself has once again crafted an extraordinarily user friendly book that demonstrates to all readers from trainees to advanced analysts the process of diagnosing mental disturbance Get the Diagnosis Right provides a systematic method for accurately determining whether a person suffering with mental problems needs medication supportive cognitive dynamic and or psychoanalytic treatment Amalgamating the most useful ideas from general psychiatry cognitive psychology and modern psychoanalytic theory Dr Blackman guides readers who prescribe treatment for mental disturbances The book also serves as a check for those who are considering what type of mental health professional they should be consulting After reading this book you will no longer have to guess whether a depressed patient should obtain medication supportive therapy insight therapy or some mixture of the three or question how to conduct an initial interview and assessment Written in language that is clear but not simplistic this book goes far beyond other diagnostic manuals The Annual of Psychoanalysis, V. 24 Jerome A. Winer, 2013-05-13 Volume 24 of The Annual opens with a memorial tribute to the late Merton M Gill 1914 1994 a major voice in American psychoanalysis for half a century Remembrances of Gill by Robert Holt Robert Wallerstein Philip Holzman and Irwin Hoffman are followed by thoughtful appreciations of Gill s final book Psychoanalysis in Transition A Personal View Analytic Press 1994 by John Gedo Jerome

Oremland Arnold Richards and Arthur Lynch Joseph Schachter and Bhaskar Sripada and Shara Kronmal Section II offers four papers from a major conference on Mind Brain held in Osaka Japan In addition to publishing two clinical papers by the Chicago analyst John Gedo The Annual introduces readers to two prominent Japanese neuroscientists whose work is relevant to psychoanalysis Hiroshi Utena links brain development to the individual's freedom to make optimal adaptive choices whereas Makoto Iwata outlines the modular organization of vision in the brain and then illustrates each modular potential by examining the paintings of four artists Mondrian Duchamp Seurat and Rothko Kenneth Newman's sensitive consideration of analyst self discourse as the outcome of successful management of the countertransference and Frank Summers astute assessment of the place of self psychology in the history of psychoanalytic ideas are followed by three engaging and instructive studies in applied analysis Elaine Caruth and Milton Eber's examination of Woody Allen's The Purple Rose of Cairo as a metaphoric depiction of the blurring of boundaries in psychotherapy Frank and Annette Lachmann's study of the creative process of Henrik Ibsen as a self transformational response to narcissistic injury and W W Meissner's exploration of the role of shame in Vincent van Gogh's life and art The volume concludes with a provocative contribution to psychoanalytic history J Bos's social constructivist rereading of the Minutes of the Vienna Psycho Analytic Society with an eye to illuminating why and how psychoanalysis changed during its early years True to its distinguished lineage volume 24 of The Annual continues to broaden the conceptual clinical and historical vistas of its readers Moreover with its revealing reminiscences and substantive appraisals of Merton Gill this volume becomes a fascinating marker in the very psychoanalytic history it helps recount
