Self Creation:

Freedom and Self-Creation Katherin A. Rogers, 2015-10-01 Katherin A Rogers presents a new theory of free will based on the thought of Anselm of Canterbury We did not originally produce ourselves Yet according to Anselm we can engage in self creation freely and responsibly forming our characters by choosing from ourselves a self between open options Anselm introduces a new agent causal libertarianism which is parsimonious in that unlike other agent causal theories it does not appeal to any unique and mysterious powers to explain how the free agent chooses After setting out Anselm's original theory Rogers defends and develops it by addressing a series of standard problems levelled against libertarianism These include the problem of internalism in that an agent is not the source of his original motivations how can the structure of his choice ground his responsibility the problem of Frankfurt style counterexamples Do we really need open options to choose freely and the problem of luck If nothing about an agent before he chooses explains his choice then isn't the choice just dumb luck The Anselmian answer to this perennial criticism is especially innovative proposing that the critic has the relationship between choices and character exactly backwards Finally as a theory about self creation Anselmian Libertarianism must defend the tracing thesis the claim that an agent can be responsible for character determined choices if he himself formed his character through earlier choices Throughout the book defends and exemplifies a new methodological suggestion someone debating free will ought to make his background world view explicit In the on going debate over the possibility of human freedom and responsibility Anselmian Libertarianism constitutes a new and plausible approach

Onishi, 2018-04-24 Through a bold and historically rooted vision for the future of philosophy of religion The Sacrality of the Secular maps new and compelling possibilities for a nonsecularist secularity In recent decades philosophers in the continental tradition have taken a notable interest in the return of religion a departure from the supposed hegemony of the secular age that began with the Enlightenment At the same time anthropologists and sociologists have begun to reject the once dominant secularization thesis which both prescribed and described the demise of religion in modern societies In The Sacrality of the Secular Bradley B Onishi reconsiders the role of religion at a time when secularity is more tenuous than it might seem He demonstrates that philosophy's entanglement with religion led perhaps counterintuitively to vibrant reconceptions of the secular well before the unraveling of the secularization thesis or the turn to religion Through rich readings of Heidegger Bataille Weber and others Onishi rethinks what philosophy can contribute to our understanding of religion and the wider social and cultural world The Ethics, Epistemology, and Politics of Richard Rorty Giancarlo Marchetti, 2021-11-04 This book features fourteen original essays that critically engage the philosophy of Richard Rorty with an emphasis on his ethics epistemology and politics Inspired by James and Dewey's pragmatism Rorty urged us to rethink the role of science and truth with a liberal democratic vision of politics In doing so he criticized philosophy as a sheer scholastic endeavor and put it back in touch with our most pressing cultural and human needs The essays in this volume employ the conceptual tools and argumentative techniques of analytic philosophy and pragmatism and demonstrate the relevance of Rorty's thought to the most urgent questions of our time They touch on a number of topics including but not limited to structural injustice rule following Black feminist philosophy legal pragmatism moral progress relativism and skepticism This book will be of interest to a wide range of scholars across disciplines who are engaging with the work of Richard Rorty

Ocean of Reasoning Tsong khapa, 2006-04-20 Tsong kha pa 14th century is arguably the most important and influential philosopher in Tibetan history An Ocean of Reasoning is the most extensive and perhaps the deepest extant commentary on Nagarjuna's Mulamadhyamakakarika Fundamental Wisdom of the Middle Way and it can be argued that it is impossible to discuss Nagarjuna's work in an informed way without consulting it It discusses alternative readings of the text and prior commentaries and provides a detailed exegesis constituting a systematic presentation of Madhyamaka Buddhist philosophy Despite its central importance however of Tsong kha pa's three most important texts only An Ocean of Reasoning remains untranslated perhaps because it is both philosophically and linguistically challenging demanding a rare combination of abilities on the part of a translator Jay Garfield and Ngawang Samten bring the requisite skills to this difficult task combining between them expertise in Western and Indian philosophy and fluency in Tibetan Sanskrit and English The resulting translation of this important text will not only be a landmark contribution to the scholarship of Indian and Tibetan Buddhism but will serve as a valuable companion volume to Jay Garfield's highly successful translation of The Fundamental Wisdom of the Middle Way Aspiration Agnes Callard,2018-03-01

Becoming someone is a learning process and what we learn is the new values around which if we succeed our lives will come to turn Agents transform themselves in the process of for example becoming parents embarking on careers or acquiring a passion for music or politics How can such activity be rational if the reason for engaging in the relevant pursuit is only available to the person one will become How is it psychologically possible to feel the attraction of a form of concern that is not yet one's own How can the work done to arrive at the finish line be ascribed to one who doesn't really know what one is doing or why one is doing it In Aspiration Agnes Callard asserts that these questions belong to the theory of aspiration Aspirants are motivated by proleptic reasons acknowledged defective versions of the reasons they expect to eventually grasp The psychology of such a transformation is marked by intrinsic conflict between their old point of view on value and the one they are trying to acquire They cannot adjudicate this conflict by deliberating or choosing or deciding rather they resolve it by working to see the world in a new way This work has a teleological structure by modeling oneself on the person he or she is trying to be the aspirant brings that person into being Because it is open to us to engage in an activity of self creation we are responsible for having become the kinds of people we are The Work of Friendship Dianne Rothleder,1999-01-01

Develops a theory of friendship as a space that is neither public nor private Without God or His Doubles Vaden House,2022-02-07 Without God or His Doubles offers a sympathetic but critical interpretation of the philosophy of Richard Rorty Rorty is one of the most widely discussed of contemporary philosophers but there exist few attempts to deal with the full scope of Rorty's writings in a systematic fashion This book shows that the unifying theme that runs through Rorty's writings on epistemology the philosophy of science the philosophy of mind the philosophy of language and political philosophy is a quasi religious conception of human creativity and human freedom In other words Rorty's attempt to avoid both realism and relativism is best understood in relationship to his claim that traditional philosophy has been god obsessed The animating spirit of Rorty's philosophy is to complete the Enlightenment project to completely wean philosophy away from both God and the various god doubles Reason Nature Mind Man Science Art Rorty believes that a radical secularity will result in a kind of human emancipation and a heightened sense of human freedom The book concludes with a critique of Rorty's proposal for philosophy and culture after the final departure of all the gods Proceedings New trends and research challenges in pedagogy and andragogy NTRCPA18 Tomczyk Łukasz,Ryk Andrzej,Prokop Jiri,2018 On 8

February 2018 Charles University in Prague Czech Republic hosted a conference on challenges in the area of children youth and adult education This international scientific event was organized by the Institute of Educational Sciences of Pedagogical University of Cracow and the Faculty of Pedagogy of Charles University The conference titled New trends and research challenges in pedagogy and andragogy met with great interest of researchers from Czech Slovakia Poland and Macedonia During the seminar 50 presentations were delivered by representatives from over a dozen of research centres among them Banska Bystrica Bitoli Cracow od Pozna Prague Warsaw and Wroc aw It was one of many joint events organised through cooperation of universities from the Visegrad Group and partner Balkan scientific centres The conference became a platform for exchanging methodological didactic and organisational experiences As a result we present twenty papers which received positive evaluation by reviewers from Czech Finland Spain Macedonia Slovakia Poland and Ukraine Thorough reviews enabled exchange of methodological comments improving the final version of the publication The New Schelling Judith Norman, Alistair Welchman, 2004-04-01 Friedrich Wilhelm Joseph Von Schelling 1775 1854 was a colleague of Hegel Holderlin Fichte Goethe Schlegel and Schiller Always a champion of Romanticism Schelling advocated a philosophy which emphasized intuition over reason which maintained aesthetics and the creative imagination to be of the highest value At the same time Schelling s concerns for the self and the rational make him a major precursor to existentialism and phenomenology The New Schelling brings together a wide ranging set of essays which elaborate the connections between Schelling and other thinkers such as Marx Nietzsche Freud Sartre Deleuze and Lacan and argue for the unexpected modernity of Schelling s work Contributors Manfred Frank J rgen Habermas Iain Hamilton Grant Joseph Lawrence Odo Marquand Judith Norman Alberto Toscano Michael Vater Alistair Welchman Slavoj Zizek Premises Werner Hamacher, 1996 Poetry does not impose it exposes itself wrote Paul Celan Werner Hamacher s investigations into crucial texts of philosophical and literary modernity show that Celan s apothegm is also valid for the structure of understanding and for language in general Subject position is widely invoked today yet Hamacher is the first to thoroughly investigate the premises for this invocation He demonstrates that the promise of a subject position is not only unavoidable and thus produces more and more fundamentalisms but is also unattainable and therefore always open to innovation revision and unexpected transformation In a book that is both philosophical and literary Hamacher gives us the fullest account of the vast disruption in the very nature of our understanding that was first unleashed by Kant s critique of human subjectivity In light of the double nature of every premise that it is promised but never attainable Hamacher gives us nine decisive themes topics and texts of modernity the hermeneutic circle in Schleiermacher and Heidegger the structure of ethical commands in Kant Nietzsche s genealogy of moral terms and his exploration of the aporias of singularity the irony of reading in de Man the parabasis of language in Schlegel Kleist s disruption of narrative representation the gesture of naming in Benjamin and Kafka and the incisive caesura that Paul Celan inserts into temporal and linguistic reversals There is no book that so fully brings the issues of both critical philosophy and critical literature into reach
