Education and Rehabilitation for Empowerment Ed Vaughan, James H. Omvig, 2005-11-01 In this book we are interested in patterns of education rehabilitation service socialization and ideas about blindness that in large part produce the above mentioned distinct patterns We will examine the economic interests of professional groups and the patterns of domination and subordination which are present in most rehabilitation relationships Our central tenet is that the behavior of blind people is not a product of the physical condition of blindness or the amount of residual vision a blind person has Rather the behavior of blind people in our society is governed by socialization Blindness is a social problem arising from erroneous socially constructed negative beliefs about the capacities of blind people involuntarily assimilated from the broader society by the blind People learn to live independently or they learn to be dependent The reactions of parents teachers peers the health professionals rehabilitation counselors and the general public have defined the choices available to blind people This is the case in every culture and society around the world Differences result from different cultural values levels of economic development and historical traditions prevention of progression and treatment It is aimed at encouraging physicians and researchers to increase efforts to prevent irreversible and treat reversible blindness for the betterment of the world Therefore it is essential to be fully aware and knowledgeable of the manifestations of the diseases causing blindness and this book covers some of their different aspects Each chapter was written by experts from around the globe Thus it reflects the importance of the subject Developing Self Without Sight William F. Cavitt,2006-06-23 A child sighted or blind is born into this world with all the building blocks for what they can become This physical material is impacted by the child's environment over a life time while the self evolves The self is the same in blind children as it is in the sighted only the developmental process is different Both children have the same starting materials mind body and spirit With these parts the child develops a process of thinking feeling and behaving toward other people objects and situations and they recognize that others also think feel and behave in their environment It is with their thoughts emotions and actions that children relate to their world using physical emotional cognitive social and moralistic attributes and through this interrelationship the self evolves The self is everything that exists in a person's unique world and it exists because of their self concept and self esteem Aspects of self concept are the elements of well being that assist our survival in our environment They consist of all the physical things our personality feelings toward life our knowledge and problem solving techniques how we successfully interface with others and our social and spiritual values in life If our self concept contains the important things and issues in life and there is a high regard for them then our self will evolve in a manner conducive to peace and harmony If not the opposite will occur The blind child must build a self with a missing part Granted self will evolve for a blind child but it must be augmented by all other senses of the body in order to enhance the mind and spirit A blind child's thoughts feelings and behaviors serve the same purpose as they do for a sighted child but will evolve differently The physical emotional cognitive social and moral concepts are necessary but are obtained without the benefit of the automatic process of seeing The self evolves but the conduit for inputting their environment is different for a blind child This is the story of a four year blind boy named Cavitt and how his self is evolving His adventures can be used to assist other blind children develop their self The book vividly illustrates psychology of a blind child as he lives this psychology It is the development of a self that is Cavitt SOCIAL AND CULTURAL PERSPECTIVES ON

BLINDNESS C. Edwin Vaughan,Fredric K. Schroeder,2018-03-01 The central idea of this book is that blindness itself results in no particular social arrangement as a cultural pattern People are socialized to expect ideas about appropriate behavior for blind people and these vary from culture to culture The descriptions of blindness in several different cultures are the authors' firsthand observations as outsiders visiting different cultures interviewing individuals as well as extensive reviewing of written sources The text describes different perspectives regarding blindness and the social arrangements created for and by blind people The viewpoints of blind people themselves receive prominent attention in the book The text is critical in its perspective Its purpose is to analyze patterns of domination and subordination as they take various forms in different cultures including physical condition Major discussions include Why study rehabilitation and blindness from a cross cultural perspective Cultural perspectives on blindness Producing new images about blindness Blindness in the United States From isolation to full inclusion Blindness in Africa Blind people in the Middle Kingdom and the People s Republic of China Spain s unique Organizacion Nacional de Ciegos Espanoles and the Changing culture of blindness around the world The book strives to contribute to the social sciences and the study of behavior that is considered deviant or different It also seeks to stimulate interest in cross national and cross cultural studies of blindness and contributes to the development of a broader and richer understanding about blindness for those who provide education rehabilitation and employment services Finally the book strives to aid blind people who are reflective about their own situation and who are working to make it better

Therapeutic Storytelling for Adolescents and Young Adults Johanna Slivinske, Lee Slivinske, 2014 The healing power of narrative and its intertwining with expressive arts enable this book to provide professionals with knowledge needed to assist adolescents and young adults overcome personal and social issues using strengths based storytelling A companion website contains printable storytelling worksheets color photographs for phototherapy and additional resources and websites

Teaching Social Skills to Students with Visual Impairments Sharon Sacks, Karen E. Wolffe, 2006 This book expands upon the knowledge base and provides a compendium of intervention strategies to support and enhance the acquisition of social skills and children and youths with visual impairments Part 1 addresses social skills from a first person perspective The second part examines how theory seeks to explain social development and influences assessment and practice Part 3 ties personal perspectives and theory to actual practice Finally Part 4 offers numerous examples and models for teaching social skills to students who are blind or visually impaired including those with additional disabling conditions Introduction

Exceptional Children Ronald L. Taylor, Les Sternberg, 2012-12-06 Exceptional Children Integrating Research and Teaching provides a comprehensive introduction to the constantly changing area of special education The book is research based and its title reflects our opinion regarding the important link between research and classroom practice There is one feature of Exceptional Children Integrating Research and Teaching that warrants attention and perhaps justification it was written specifically to address the graduate student or sophisticated undergraduate student market As such the book is written at a higher level and with a greater concept density than typical introductory special education texts We feel that this type of book is very much needed and will be received favorably by the special education community There are also several unique features of Exceptional Children Integrating Research and Teaching that we feel will be quite valuable First we have emphasized the area of teaching practices and not simply included basic facts about definitions characteristics and causes Although some introductory texts include information about teaching considerations that area is not discussed as in depth as it is in our text We feel that it is important that readers not only understand the educational needs of exceptional children but also can identify the best educational practices to meet those needs

Hankering in Literature Dr.G.Vinothkumar,

Writings and Contents are not mere words Each work has its own uniqueness and features It tries to cover the interdisciplinary fields that are emerging in the contemporary trends of Arts and Humanities Since 2008 the institute for English and Foreign Languages deals with the intersectionality of language and literature It recognizes the necessity to bridge academic gaps and promote the link in English Studies In the book chapter Hankering in Literature the department presents various research papers under an umbrella term This includes the neoteric literary investigations of outstanding scholars and researchers in the field of study Recognizing that language is more powerful than what we say read write or hear in this issue of Hankering our editors have privileged articles that express the ecology aesthetic and cognitive qualities of the discipline Expressing a struggle of deliverance disability and ethnicity this edition is a synthesis of literary symbolic and psychology reflection on the English language and literary studies Topics are from various literary studies prose and verse criticism theoretical analysis application of interpretive methods of literary criticism and research perspectives Attention has been given to the dominant areas encompassing literary discourse analysis By sticking to the research goals and aid to use language in critical and creative ways we firmly believe that we will be able to provide an ambitious engaging and stimulating space for those who contribute to us Above all the ability to communicate in single language is one of the eminent improvements humanity has ever experienced Therefore as advocates and users of the words of this beautiful human language within its framework let us evince this process with the utmost faith and gratitude The Metanarrative of Blindness David Bolt, 2014 Sheds new light on literary representations of blindness from a disability studies perspective

Living with Low Vision and Blindness John M. Crandell, Lee W. Robinson, 2007 This book summarizes the findings in the fields of general education and psychology as they relate to vision loss It is concerned primarily with providing understanding of the many elements that must be considered before a successful rehabilitative and or an educational program can be developed This type of understanding is illustrated in the book by examples drawn from experience that the authors have directly observed Theoretical factors are described that must be considered in the development of a suitable program for a person with specific strengths and weaknesses Discussions are also included that relate to the meaning and implications of self concept and self esteem in the overall adjustment of individuals with vision loss Also psychological and sociological theories are evaluated of OC the blindOCO as described in writings such as KimOCO's The Community of the Blind and ScottOCO's The Making of a Blind Man in terms of their relevance of life adjustment Weaknesses are identified in the research bases in this field and propose specific research activities that could help alleviate problems Another focus is on provision of explanations of the origin development influence and modification of public attitudes toward blindness and the influence of these attitudes on the adjustment of individuals with blindness It will be of interest not only to educators and rehabilitation specialists in the field of work for the blind but also to psychologists social workers educators and therapists

HELPING STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES DEVELOP SOCIAL SKILLS, ACADEMIC LANGUAGE AND LITERACY

THROUGH LITERATURE STORIES, VIGNETTES, AND OTHER ACTIVITIES Duran, Elva, Gonzales, Rachael, Park, Hyun-Sook, 2016-12-05 This social skills manual will present to teachers and parents lesson plans complete with literature stories vignettes and other activities to help students with disabilities develop social skills in all their environments The general skills and social skills at work are presented within detailed lesson plans that place emphasis on the vocabulary and the different lesson plan objectives that are essential to each lesson These generic skills will enhance an individual's ability to access social contexts in which healthy engagement can occur and improve the ability to cope with challenging tasks that are encountered in daily living The diversity of instructional techniques used to facilitate content mastery include guided and differentiated instruction modeling facilitating analysis and reflection of situations involving the appropriate and inappropriate use of key skills presentation and discussion of positive and negative consequences of each skill independent learning and connecting lessons learned to the central idea of the skills being taught These strategies are arranged in a logical order wherein the material mastered via one technique builds upon prior ones and provides a context for the next one in the instructional sequence In most cases it seems highly likely that students who are led through this sequence could not fail to acquire important information about understanding and applying these skills to their own lives This important new resource will enable professionals to be more effective in assisting students with disabilities in negotiating the many challenges in making the transition from school to the world of adult living
