of a single state this volume includes samples of what North Carolinians have laughed at and with from 1709 to the present It is a rich anthology of Tar Heel anecdotes homespun quips hilarious stories folklore exaggerations and observations In this wide range of humor Walser has provided a valuable recording of American folklore and the social history of North Carolina

Sketches of Pitt County Henry Thomas King,1911 These sketches are the result of years of inquiry research and compilation intended to give such traditions and facts as could be had from reliable sources and records The demand for sketches of many of Pitt s prominent men made necessary the addition of a second part Advertisements were necessary from a financial standpoint and are included in the back separate and apart North Carolinians in the Era of the Civil War and Reconstruction Paul D. Escott,2012-09-01 Although North Carolina was a home front state rather than a battlefield state for most of the Civil War it was heavily involved in the Confederate war effort and experienced many conflicts as a result North Carolinians were divided over the issue of secession and changes in race and gender relations brought new controversy Blacks fought for freedom women sought greater independence and their aspirations for change stimulated fierce resistance from more privileged groups Republicans and Democrats fought over power during Reconstruction and for decades thereafter disagreed over the meaning of the war and Reconstruction With contributions by well known historians as well as talented younger scholars this volume offers new insights into all the key issues of the Civil War era that played out in pronounced ways in the Tar Heel State In nine essays composed specifically for this volume contributors address themes such as ambivalent whites freed blacks the political establishment racial hopes and fears postwar ideology and North Carolina women These issues of the Civil War and Reconstruction eras were so powerful that they continue to agitate North Carolinians today Contributors David Brown Manchester University Judkin Browning Appalachian State University Laura F Edwards Duke University Paul D Escott Wake Forest University John C Inscoe University of Georgia Chandra Manning Georgetown University Barton A Myers University of Georgia Steven E Nash University of Georgia Paul Yandle West Virginia University Karin Zipf East Carolina University University of North Carolina Extension Bulletin University of North Carolina (1793-1962).
