"Happiness"

www.shortmoralstories.com

An old man lived in a village. he was one of the most unfortunate people in the world

The whole village was tired of him. He was always gloomy, constantly complained, and was always in a bad mood. The longer he lived, the more bile he produced and the more poisonous his words became.

People avoided him because his misfortune had become contagious.

It was considered unnatural and insulting to be happy next to him. He created the feeling of unhappiness in others.

But one day, when he turned 18 years old, an incredible thing happened. Instantly, everyone started hearing the rumor: "The old man is happy today." He doesn't complain about anything. He smiles and even his face is fresh and up. " The whole village gathered together:

The old man was asked:

Villager: what happened to you?

The old man replied: "nothing special." For 18 years, I have been chasing happiness, and it was useless. And then I decided to live without happiness and just enjoy life. That's why I am happy now.

The moral of the story Is don't chase happiness, enjoy your life.

Short Story :

The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada's flagship genre. It continues to attract the country's most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood, Mavis Gallant, Alice Munro, Carol Shields and many others. Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it, surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story. This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well-known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre's beginnings through the twentieth century. A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre's development in Canada, the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it. The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature. For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story. Reingard M. Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance, Germany.

The Short Story Valerie Shaw, 2014-07-21 Throughout this text, Valerie Shaw addresses two key questions: What are the special satisfactions afforded by reading short stories and How are these satisfactions derived from each story's literary techniques and narrative strategies? She then attempts to answer these questions by drawing on stories from different periods and countries by authors who were also great novelists like Henry James, Flaubert, Kafka and D. H. Lawrence, by authors who specifically dedicated themselves to the art of the short story like Kipling, Chekhov and Katherine Mansfield, by contemporary practitioners like Angela Carter and Jorge Luis Borges, and by unfairly neglected writers like Sarah Orne Jewett and Joel Chandler Harris.
