Short Story Arena:

Century Readings in the American Short Story Fred Lewis Pattee, 1927 Scripting Empire James Procter, 2024 A volume on the literary and cultural history of West Indian and West African writing at the BBC The volume covers over 40 different radio programmes which appeared within the Calling West Africa and Calling West Indies schedules between 1941 and 1965 and brings together a wide range of uncatalogued archive materials The Short Story in English Henry Seidel Canby, 1909 The Short-Short Story José Flávio Nogueira Guimarães, 2012-10-23 This book proposes a study of a new postmodern prose fiction genre the short short story Considerations of generic classifications and boundaries are followed by an historical overview and analysis of short fiction from the nineteenth to twenty first centuries especially under the influence of the Russian Anton Chekhov who is regarded as the father of the modern short story The postmodern short short story is seen as emerging from this trend a hybrid genre with characteristics of the narrative language of her prose genres such as the short story and the journalistic writing The cluster of features such as condensation lack of character development surprise endings etc which is seen as characteristic of the short short story are discussed and ten examples are summarized and analyzed including two traditional short stories for contrast It is seen that the short short story may be further broken into what is called the new sudden fiction and the even shorter and more radical flash fiction The Oxford Book of Latin American Short Stories Roberto Gonzalez Echevarria, 1999-07-15 This collection brings together 53 stories that span the history of Latin American literature and represent the most dazzling achievements in the form It covers the entire history of Latin American short fiction from the colonial period to present Reading In JoAnn McCaig, 2009-10-21 What can we learn about authorship through a reading of a writer's archive Collections of authors manuscripts and correspondence have traditionally been used in ways that further illuminate the published text JoAnn McCaig sets out to show how archival materials can also provide fascinating insights into the business of culture reveal the individuals institutions and ideologies that shape the author and her work and describe the negotiations that occur between an author and the cultural marketplace Using a feminist cultural studies approach JoAnn McCaig reads in to the archives of acclaimed Canadian short story writer Alice Munro in order to explore precisely how the terms Canadian woman short story and writer are constructed in her writing career Munro's correspondence with mentor Robert Weaver agent Virginia Barber publishers Doug Gibson and Ann Close and writer John Metcalf tell a fascinating story of how one very determined and gifted writer made her way through the pitfalls of the culture business to achieve the enviable authority she now claims McCaig's discussion of her own difficulties with obtaining copyright permission for the book raises important questions about freedom of scholarly inquiry and about the unforeseen difficulties and limitations of archival research Despite these difficulties McCaig's reading of the Munro archives succeeds in examining the business of culture the construction of the aesthetic and the impact of gender genre nationality and class on authorship While on one level telling the story of one author's career the progress of Alice Munro so to speak

the book also illustrates how cultural studies analysis suggests ways of opening up the rich but underutilized literary resource of authorial archives to all researchers

Space Pioneers Hank Davis, Christopher Ruocchio, 2018-11-27 Final Frontiers an anthology of stories from classic and contemporary masters that explores the wide open frontier that may await humanity when we take to the stars DON T YOU KNOW YOUR FUTURE IS IN SPACE Since the dawn of time humankind has felt the urge to explore the four corners of our globe To push at the boundaries of our world and discover what lies over the horizon And since the dawn of science fiction writers have wondered about the next frontier the one that lies Out There Here then a generous collection of stories that reach out into the unknown void finding awe wonder other minds even terror But always going beyond the world we know to explore a universe strange beyond the outermost limits of human imagination Stories of brave men and women who risk all to explore colonize and settle the vast reaches of space As e e cummings put it listen there s a hell of a good universe next door let s go Well said but there s a hell of a big strange universe right here And it s waiting for us all Great tales of space exploration and pioneering by David Drake Sarah A Hoyt Theodore Sturgeon Edmond Hamilton and more At the publisher s request this title is sold without DRM Digital Rights Management Praise for previous anthologies edited by Hank Davis In Space No One Can Hear You Scream the 13 tales in this collection blend sf with horror to demonstrate the resiliency of both genres offers strong tales by the genre s best storytellers Library Journal first rate science fiction demonstrating how short stories can still entertain Galveston County Daily News A Cosmic Christmas 2 You This creative and sprightly Christmas science fiction anthology spins in some surprising directions A satisfying read for cold winter evenings a great stocking stuffer for SF fans Publishers Weekly As Time Goes By As Time Goes By does an excellent job of exploring not only romance through time travel relationships enabled or imperiled by voyaging through time but the intrinsic romance of time travel itself The range of styles and approaches is as wide as the authors sensibilities and periods might suggest full of entertaining and poignant stories Alvaro Zinos Amaro IntergalacticMedicineShow com

Future Wars... and Other Punchlines Hank Davis, 2015-08-16 Trade paperback humorous military science fiction anthology Featuring a mix of classic science fiction reprints and original stories by Baen regulars Includes stories by David Drake Frederik Pohl Howard F Waldrop Christopher Anvil and more CATCH 22 IN OUTER SPACE War as the general said is hell but it also has its humorous moments though the humor may be grim and you _had to be there to get the joke War is likely to continue into the future and into space no matter how many idealistic speeches are made and U N sponsored treaties get signed and so will the wartime jokes ranging from slapstick to gallows humor And if _you had to be there to get the point some of the best writers in science fiction are on board to put you there David Drake the Dean of military science fiction turns to fantasy and shows the result of having a combat balloon manned by halflings of dubious competence Frederik Pohl tells of the invasion of Earth by aliens with impenetrable force shields and how a goldbricking soldier with all the ethics of a career politician became an unlikely and unwilling hero Herbert Gold considers the lighter side of the strategy of M A D Mutual Assured Destruction Theodore R Cogswell in a story which the Science Fiction Writers of America voted into their Science Fiction Hall of Fame presents an isolated planet s outpost left behind after the collapse of galactic civilization and the psychological subterfuge that kept morale from failing Steven Utley and Howard F Waldrop in a Nebula Award and Locus Award nominated work of alternate history report on General George Armstrong Custer s ill fated mission when he and his dirigible borne paratroopers were attacked by Chief Crazy Horse s biplane squadron Christopher Anvil shows that when aliens with overwhelming technological superiority invade Earth their campaign can completely unravel because the local conditions are nothing like those back home A tornado is just moving air how could that be dangerous And more Future war may be future hell but there ll also be future hilarity At the publisher s request this title is sold without DRM Digital Rights Management

Violence Elsewhere 2 Dr Clare Bielby, Professor Mererid Puw Davies, 2024-11-12 Examines ideas of violence in German culture after 9 11 through the lens of violence elsewhere exploring works and discourses about violence in distant locations or times Following the Nazi era the Holocaust and the Second World War in postwar Germany thinking or speaking about that extreme violence seemed distinctively difficult even perhaps at times impossible Yet we can learn about understandings of violence in this period in novel ways by exploring images and constructions in German culture of faraway violence as shown in the recent volume Violence Elsewhere 1 Imagining Distant Violence in Germany 1945 2001 As of September 11 2001 violence came to appear transnationally spectacularly mobile in new ways Consequently Violence Elsewhere 2 explores ideas about violence elsewhere in German language culture since 2001 Here elsewhere can mean not only distant places it may also be violence perceived as foreign or in the past Simultaneously this work suggests that the idea of 9 11 as a watershed in thinking about violence is more complex than meets the eye Here nine essays consider classic literary forms like poetry and prose fiction from the short story to the intergenerational German family novel to Black feminist speculative fiction Contributors examine too philosophy performance and multimedia art political and other forms of public discourse and film Topics include amongst others the war on terror slow environmental violence the Armenian genocide portrayals of refugees and migrants legacies of colonial violence space
