Short Term Treatment And Social Work Practice An Integrative Perspective:

Short-term Treatment and Social Work Practice Eda G. Goldstein, Maryellen Noonan, 1999 In Short Term Treatment and Social Work Practice An Integrative Perspective Eda G Goldstein and Maryellen Noonan take the best of theories that social workers have relied on for decades including ego psychology other psychodynamic and psychosocial frameworks and the cognitive behavioral approach to create a new short term practice model for social workers Short Term Treatment and Social Work Practice introduces the authors integrative short term treatment ISTT and demonstrates in detail each aspect of the approach Their book is replete with case examples that illustrate ISTT s principles and techniques and their use in a variety of situations including crisis intervention family and group oriented therapy treatment of clients with emotional disorders and treatment of nonvoluntary and hard to reach clients

Doing More with Less Barbara Dane, Carol Tosone, Alice Wolson, 2001 Confronting the challenge to provide sound clinical treatment in brief therapy this timely book will enrich the practices of all psychotherapists Designed and arranged according to the DSM IV diagnostic categories each chapter addresses the short term treatment of a specific condition or patient population Starting from the premise that psychodynamically trained clinicians already possess the requisite skills to conduct short term treatment the editors demonstrate how to adapt these skills to a time limited approach

Policy & Practice ,1998 Sourcebook of Rehabilitation and Mental Health Practice David P. Moxley, John R. Finch, 2006-04-11 We live in a day and age in which many fields come together to define new ones and out of these newly defined areas come innovative practices and emergent ways of thinking The Sourcebook on Rehabilitation and Mental Health Practice documents one of these new fields one formed by the coalescence of rehabilitative and mental health services and employment Only recently have human service practitioners policy makers and administrators recognized that there is a growing synergy among these areas once separated by great gulfs of differences in culture perspectives and values and technologies It is not happenstance that rehabilitation mental health and employment are becoming increasingly integrated in contemporary human services There is considerable interest in work in contemporary society although different values and perspectives mediate this interest For people with disabilities an interest in work often comes from deep frustration from not having ready access to work and from not having enough of it to facilitate an acceptable quality of life or independent living Some people find work to be a source of problems that negatively affects their functioning They find the workplace stressful and unsupportive or they feel that work exacts too much from them reducing their quality of life and setting into motion numerous negative personal effects Beck 2000
