Short Stories On Film:

Adaptations Stephanie Harrison, 2011-08-10 An Eclectic Collection of Fiction That Inspired Film Memento All About Eve Rear Window Rashomon and 2001 A Space Odyssey are all well known and much loved movies but what is perhaps a lesser known fact is that all of them began their lives as short stories Adaptations gathers together 35 pieces that have been the basis for films many from giants of American literature Hemingway Fitzgerald and many that have not been in print for decades the stories that inspired Bringing Up Baby Meet John Doe and All About Eve Categorized by genre and featuring movies by master directors such as Steven Spielberg Stanley Kubrick Robert Altman Frank Capra and John Ford as well as relative newcomers such as Chris Eyre and Christopher Nolan Adaptations offers insight into the process of turning a short story into a screenplay one that when successful doesn't take drastic liberties with the text upon which it is based but doesn't mirror its source material too closely either The stories and movies featured in Adaptations include Philip K Dick's The Minority Report which became the 2002 blockbuster directed by Steven Spielberg and starring Tom Cruise The Harvey Pekar Name Story by reclusive graphic artist Harvey Pekar whose life was the inspiration for American Splendor winner of the 2003 Sundance Grand Jury Prize Hagar Wilde's Bringing Up Baby the basis of the classic film Bringing Up Baby anthologized here for the first time ever The Swimmer by John Cheever an example of a highly regarded story that many feared might prove unadaptable The predecessor to the beloved holiday classic A Christmas Story Red Ryder Nails the Hammond Kid by Jean Shepherd Whether you're a fiction reader or a film buff Adaptations is your behind the scenes look at the sometimes difficult sometimes brilliantly successful process from the printed page to the big screen From the Trade Paperback edition

The Forgotten Film Adaptations of D.H. Lawrence's Short Stories Jason Mark Ward, 2016-07-11 This book looks beyond fidelity to emphasize how each adaptation of D H Lawrence's short stories functions as a creative response to a text foregrounding the significance of its fluidity transtextuality and genre The adaptations analysed range from the first to the most recent and draw attention to the fluidity of textual sources the significance of generic conventions and space in film the generic potentialities latent within Lawrence's tales and the evolving nature of adaptation By engaging with recent advances in adaptation theory to discuss the evolving critical reception of the author's work and the role of the reader this book provides a fresh forward looking approach to Lawrence studies The Art of the Short Fiction Film Richard Raskin, 2015-10-06 This work is the first of its kind to single out individual short fiction films for comprehensive presentation and close study Two Men and a Wardrobe Roman Polanski Poland 1958 15 min Coffee and Cigarettes Jim Jarmusch USA 1986 6 min Sunday John Lawlor Ireland 1988 8 min Cat's Cradle Liz Hughes Australia 1991 12 min Eating Out Pal Sletaune Norway 1993 7 min Come Marianne Olsen Ulrichsen Norway 1995 4 5 min Wind Marcell Ivanyi Hungary 1996 6 min Possum Brad McGann New Zealand 1997 14 min and The War Is Over Nina Mimica Italy 1997 7 min are the nine short fiction films studied The films represent a broad range of storytelling approaches and a number of very different film cultures Each film has a chapter of its own including a shot by shot reproduction of the film with a still from every shot In most cases an interview with the director and an original screenplay and storyboard is also included The book also describes a new conceptual model derived from the films studied in the work which can be used both for analyzing the ways in which a short fiction film tells its story and as a set of guidelines for student filmmakers writing their own screenplays Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Literature into Film Linda Costanzo Cahir, 2014-12-24 For most people film adaptation of literature can be summed up in one sentence The movie wasn't as good as the book This volume undertakes to show the reader that not only is this evaluation not always true but sometimes it is intrinsically unfair Movies based on literary works while often billed as adaptations are more correctly termed translations A director and his actors translate the story from the written page into a visual presentation Depending on the form of the original text and the chosen method of translation certain inherent difficulties and pitfalls are associated with this change of medium So often our reception of a book based movie has more to do with our expectations and reading of the literature than with the job that the movie production did or did not do Avoiding these biases and fairly evaluating any particular literary based film takes an awareness of certain factors Written with a formalistic rather than historical approach this work presents a comprehensive guide to literature based films establishing a contextual and theoretical basis to help the reader understand the relationships between such movies and the original texts as well as the reader's own individual responses to these productions To this end it focuses on recognizing and appreciating the inherent difficulties encountered when basing a film on a literary work be it a novel novella play or short story Individual chapters deal with the specific issues and difficulties raised by each of these genres providing an overview backed up by case studies of specific film translations Films and literary works receiving this treatment include The Unbearable Lightness of Being The Manchurian Candidate 1962 Lady Windemere's Fan by Oscar Wilde and Shakespeare's Henry V Interspersed throughout the text are suggestions for activities the film student or buff can use to enhance his or her appreciation and understanding of the films Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Short Stories on Film Carol A.
