The Catholic Library World John M. O'Loughlin, Francis Emmett Fitzgerald, 1978     A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 2023-11-15     Subject Catalog, 1978 Library of Congress, 1978     The Cambridge Companion to the English Short Story Ann-Marie Einhaus, 2016-06-06 This Companion provides an accessible overview of the contexts periods and subgenres of English language short fiction outside of North America     Guide to Nordic Bibliography Erland Munch-Petersen, 1984     Information Michele Kennerly, Samuel Frederick, Jonathan E. Abel, 2021-01-19 For decades we have been told we live in the information age a time when disruptive technological advancement has reshaped the categories and social uses of knowledge and when quantitative assessment is increasingly privileged Such methodologies and concepts of information are usually considered the provenance of the natural and social sciences which present them as politically and philosophically neutral Yet the humanities should and do play an important role in interpreting and critiquing the historical cultural and conceptual nature of information This book is one of two companion volumes that explore theories and histories of information from a humanistic perspective They consider information as a long standing feature of social cultural and conceptual management a matter of social practice and a fundamental challenge for the humanities today Bringing together essays by prominent critics Information Keywords highlights the humanistic nature of information practices and concepts by thinking through key terms It describes and anticipates directions for how the humanities can contribute to our understanding of information from a range of theoretical historical and global perspectives Together with Information A Reader it sets forth a major humanistic vision of the concept of information     Instructor's Manual to Accompany The International Story Ruth Spack, 1998-07-28 The International Story is an anthology with guidelines for reading and writing about fiction The Instructor s Manual provides teaching suggestions detailed notes and summaries of the readings in the Student s Book     Modernism, Postmodernism, and the Short Story in English, 2012-01-01 How can the short story help to redefine modernism postmodernism and their interrelationship What is the status of the short story in modern literary history These are the central questions that the essays collected in this volume try to answer from different perspectives through readings of short fiction in English and accounts of the genre's theorisations. The essays by a group of international scholars tackle theoretical issues that are central in approaches to both movements such as periodisation, autonomy, high vs popular literature, totality vs fragmentation, surface vs depth, otherness, representation and above all the subject and its vicissitudes. Because it blends theory-based arguments into the approaches to the short fiction of mainly canonical authors (Joyce, Woolf, Lewis, Ballard, Carter, Rushdie or Wallace), Modernism, Postmodernism and the Short Story in English is of interest not only to readers and scholars of the short story but also to those coming from the fields of literary theory and literary history.

Reference Sources for Canadian Literary Studies Joseph Jones, 2005-01-01. Reference Sources for Canadian Literary Studies offers the first full-scale bibliography of writing on and in the field of Canadian literary studies. Approximately one thousand annotated entries are arranged by reference genre with sub-groupings related to literary genre.

Bibliographical Guide to the Study of the Literature of the U.S.A. Clarence Gohdes, Sanford E. Marovitz, 1984. This fifth revised edition features approximately 1,900 items, most of which are annotated. It addresses several interdisciplinary studies that have become prominent in the last decade, especially on popular culture, racial and other minorities, Native Americans and Chicanos, and literary regionalism. It allots more space to computer-aided science fiction, children's literature, literature of the sea, film and literature, and linguistic studies of American English and includes a new section on psychology. The appendix lists the biography of each of 135 deceased American authors. ISBN 0 8223 0592 5 22 50. For use only in the library.

Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996. This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people, institutions, organizations, publications, art, literature, languages and history. It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities. These large divisions are then broken down by subject, genre, type of document and province or territory. Titles of national, provincial, territorial or regional interest are included in every subject area when available. The contents of the book are indexed four ways: by name, title, French subject and English subject. And to facilitate browsing, the major reference books, those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region, are also cross-referenced. Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages. Entries for unilingual works include citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation. The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content, arrangements and indexing of works, the availability of non-print formats, previous editions and title changes and related works. Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers.

Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature R. Reginald, Douglas Menville, Mary A. Burgess, 2010-09-01. Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature: A Checklist, 1700-1974. Volume one of Two contains an Author Index, Title Index, Series Index, Awards Index and the Ace and Belmont Doubles Index.

Telling Stories, 2021-11-15. The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer s Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research

J.G. Ballard Andrzej Gasiorek,2024-07-30 This book offers a comprehensive account of the work of J G Ballard regarded by several critics as one of the most significant fiction writers of recent times Ballard s early science fiction writing earned him plaudits as one of the most innovative and individual voices in the field but his development as a writer has taken him far beyond the confines of any single genre This book traces Ballard s career from his early science fiction short stories and novels to his most recent work particularly his timely reflections on the role of violence in contemporary social life It argues that Ballard s writing is characterised by a distinctive vision of the post war world and its possible futures and suggests that his far reaching analyses of the present age make him one of the indispensable commentators of our time

Reingard M. Nischik, 2008

The development of literature in Canada with an eye to its multicultural multiethnic multilingual nature

From modest colonial beginnings literature in Canada has arrived at the center stage of world literature

Works by English Canadian writers both established writers such as Margaret Atwood and new talents such as Yann Martel make regular appearances on international bestseller lists

French Canadian literature has also found its own voice in the North American and francophone worlds

CanLit has likewise developed into a staple of academic interest pursued in Canadian Studies programs in Canada and around the world

This volume draws on the expertise of scholars from Canada Germany Austria and France tracing Canadian literature from the indigenous oral tradition to the development of English Canadian and French Canadian literature since colonial times

Conceiving of Canada as a single but multifaceted culture it accounts for specific characteristics of English and French Canadian literatures such as the vital role of the short story in English Canada or that of the chanson in French Canada

Yet special attention is also paid to Aboriginal literature and to the pronounced transcultural ethnically diverse character of much contemporary Canadian literature thus moving clearly beyond the traditions of the two founding nations
