Sefchick,2015-10-20 Ghosts Inc where the paranormal is normal Paranormal researcher Tesla Dane has never known her father She doesn't even know who he is The only connection she's ever had to him is a huge gold gilt mirror he once owned where shadows seem to move deep within its silvery surface in the dark of night So she's more than a little surprised when one night a sinfully handsome man emerges from those very shadows a man who has the power to turn Tesla's world upside down Inventor Alexander Hartfield had been working for Tesla's father in a parallel universe since the early 1900s But now The Inventor as her father is affectionately known has gone missing Alex hopes that by bringing the beautiful Tesla to Avalon she can coax her father out of hiding especially since the man has never met the daughter who bears his name He also hopes that he can keep his hands off of Tesla Because she's the boss daughter And Alex isn't quite who he claims to be This novel the fifth in the Ghosts Inc series is approximately 83 000 words in length and is written in the modern adult romance style and is paranormal in nature It may not be appropriate for younger audiences It does not contain vampires werewolves or other such creatures and instead focuses on more traditional paranormal phenomenon Books and Beyond Kenneth

Womack,2008-10-30 There's a strong interest in reading for pleasure or self improvement in America as shown by the popularity of Harry Potter and book clubs including Oprah Winfrey's Although recent government reports show a decline in recreational reading the same reports show a strong correlation between interest in reading and academic achievement This set provides a snapshot of the current state of popular American literature including various types and genres The volume presents alphabetically arranged entries on more than 70 diverse literary categories such as cyberpunk fantasy literature flash fiction GLBTQ literature graphic novels manga and anime and zines Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a definition of the genre an overview of its history a look at trends and themes a discussion of how the literary form engages contemporary issues a review of the genre's reception a discussion of authors and works and suggestions for further reading Sidebars provide fascinating details and the set closes with a selected general bibliography Reading in America for pleasure and knowledge continues to be popular even while other media compete for attention While students continue to read many of the standard classics new genres have emerged These have captured the attention of general readers and are also playing a critical role in the language arts classroom This book maps the state of popular literature and reading in America today including the growth of new genres such as cyberpunk zines flash fiction GLBTQ literature and other topics Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a definition of the genre an overview of its history a look at trends and themes a discussion of how the literary form engages contemporary issues a review of the genre's critical reception a discussion of authors and works and suggestions for further reading Sidebars provide fascinating details and the set closes with a selected general bibliography Students will find this book a valuable guide to what they're reading today and will appreciate its illumination of popular culture and contemporary social issues A Reader of Modern Arabic

Short Stories Sabry Hafez,Catherine Cobham,2012-01-30 This reader consists of the full Arabic texts of eleven short stories by established Egyptian Iraqi Syrian and Jordanian writers The earliest story written in 1929 is by the Egyptian Mahmud Tahir Lashin and the most recent written in 1972 is by the Iraqi writer Fu ad Al Takarli Each story is supplemented by an introduction with biographical information about the author placing him in his literary context a description of the contents and a brief analysis of the story itself in English Ideal for students of Arabic language and literature the aim of this collection is to encourage a literary appreciation of modern Arabic texts and an understanding of some of the cultural conflicts reflected in the writings Writers included are Ghalib Halasa Yahya Haqqi Yusuf Idris Idwar El Kharrrat and Zakariyya Tamir

Short Stories by Russian Authors Rochelle S. Townsend,1924      The Short Stories of Guy de Maupassant Guy de Maupassant,1925      Index to Short Stories ,1929      The Geographies of African American Short Fiction Kenton Rambsy,2022-03-25 Perhaps the brevity of short fiction accounts for the relatively scant attention devoted to it by scholars who have historically concentrated on longer prose narratives The Geographies of African American Short Fiction seeks to fill this gap by analyzing the ways African American short story writers plotted a diverse range of characters across multiple locations small towns a famous metropolis city sidewalks a rural wooded area apartment buildings a pond a general store a prison and more In the process these writers highlighted the extents to which places and spaces shaped or situated racial representations Presenting African American short story writers as cultural cartographers author Kenton Rambsy documents the variety of geographical references within their short stories to show how these authors make cultural spaces integral to their artwork and inscribe their stories with layered and resonant social histories The history of these short stories also documents the circulation of compositions across dozens of literary collections for nearly a century Anthology editors solidified the significance of a core group of short story authors including James Baldwin Toni Cade Bambara Charles Chesnutt Ralph Ellison Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright Using quantitative information and an extensive literary dataset The Geographies of African American Short Fiction explores how editorial practices shaped the canon of African American short fiction
