Shots In The Streets Violence And Religion In South Africa:

The Oxford Handbook of Religion, Conflict, and Peacebuilding Atalia Omer, R. Scott Appleby, David Little, 2015 The book provides a comprehensive overview of the literature on religion conflict and peacebuilding With a focus on structural and cultural violence the volume also offers a cutting edge interdisciplinary reframing of the scope of scholarship in the field

Religion and Politics in South Africa Abdulkader Tayob, Wolfram Weisse, The Church Struggle in South Africa John W. De Gruchy, 2005 No more heartrending yet hopeful case study in Christian ethics exists than in the story of South African apartheid and its recent decisive transformation John de Gruchy's authoritative and newly updated account of Christian complicity with and then resistance to one of the world's most notoriously repressive regimes holds indispensable lessons and dangerous memories for all concerned about evil justice and racial reconciliation Religion and Law in South Africa Charles Maimela, 2019-05-15 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this convenient resource provides systematic information on how South Africa deals with the role religion plays or can play in society the legal status of religious communities and institutions and the legal interaction among religion culture education and media After a general introduction describing the social and historical background the book goes on to explain the legal framework in which religion is approached Coverage proceeds from the principle of religious freedom through the rights and contractual obligations of religious communities international transnational and regional law effects and the legal parameters affecting the influence of religion in politics and public life Also covered are legal positions on religion in such specific fields as church financing labour and employment and matrimonial and family law A clear and comprehensive overview of relevant legislation and legal doctrine make the book an invaluable reference source and very useful guide Succinct and practical this book will prove to be of great value to practitioners in the myriad instances where a law related religious interest arises in South Africa Academics and researchers will appreciate its value as a thorough but concise treatment of the legal aspects of diversity and multiculturalism in which religion plays such an important part South African Transitions Christopher J. Lee, Andrew Offenburger, 2025-01-08 This book addresses the multiple repercussions of South Africa's democratic transition beginning in 1994 by examining a number of themes with local national regional and global relevance the politics of nation building public memory residential segregation higher education media racism trade unionism women's rights and global climate change to name only a few Drawing from the rich archive of previously published articles from the journal Safundi South African Transitions documents both the country's and the journal's mutual history over the past quarter century Divided into five sections the first part of the book explores the broad theme of South Africa's transition to non racial democracy by foregrounding issues of nationalism diplomacy rural change social trauma historical commemoration and political feeling at local national and international levels The second section focuses on the question of civil society including essays on media racism histories of segregation legacies of criminal violence and comparative patterns of incarceration underscoring the endurance of certain long term problems and the emergence of new ones Part three surveys the role of education in transforming South Africa while part four situates South Africa s opportunities and challenges within regional and global contexts to better understand the South African situation and its relationship to conditions around the world The penultimate section has contributions that confront the present by identifying the struggles and crises of South Africa s current political moment including labor movements the matter of land restitution feminist activism LGBTQI rights and the Marikana Massacre of 2012 The book ends with an essay on the fire at Jagger Library at the University of Cape Town by historian Bill Nasson a moment of contingent destruction that speaks of the Covid 19 pandemic and the burgeoning climate crisis at present Traversing across time and place South African Transitions will be an indispensable resource for scholars researchers activists and policymakers as well as those readers who are generally interested in understanding South Africa s social political and intellectual transformations over the past several decades Politics in South Africa Tom Lodge,2003 Further chapters consider the future prospects of South African democracy and provide assessments of both Nelson Mandela and his successor Thabo Mbeki BOOK JACKET Liberating Faith Roger S. Gottlieb,2003 Table of contents Work and Faith in the Kentucky Coal Fields Richard J. Callahan,2008-11-20 Exploring themes of work and labor in everyday life Richard J Callahan Jr offers a history of how coal miners and their families lived their religion in eastern Kentucky s coal fields during the early 20th century Callahan follows coal miners and their families from subsistence farming to industrial coal mining as they draw upon religious idioms to negotiate changing patterns of life and work He traces innovation and continuity in religious expression that emerged from the specific experiences of coal mining including the spaces and social structures of coal towns the working bodies of miners the anxieties of their families and the struggle toward organized labor Building on oral histories folklore folksongs and vernacular forms of spirituality this rich and engaging narrative recovers a social history of ordinary working people through religion Africa Air University (U.S.). Library,1993 Global Flows, Local Appropriations Sindre Bangstad,2007 Global Flows Local Appropriations Facets of Secularisation and Re Islamization Among Contemporary Cape Muslims is the first ethnographic study of muslims in Cape Town South Africa at this level in 25 years It explores processes of secularisation and re islamization among Cape Muslims in the context of a post apartheid South Africa in which liberal and secular values have attained considerable purchase in the new political and social elites Fractured by status ethnicity and religious orientation Cape muslims have responded to these changes through an ambiguous accomodation with the new order This study explores this development through chapters on conversions to Islam among black Africans in Cape Town Cape women s experiences with polygyny Cape muslims and HIV AIDS the status of Islam in a prison Cape Town in the post apartheid era and on contestation over rituals among Cape muslims The Cambridge History of South Africa: Volume 2, 1885-1994 Robert Ross,Anne Kelk Mager,Bill Nasson,2011-08-15 This book surveys South African history from the discovery of gold in the Witwatersrand in the late nineteenth century to the first democratic elections in 1994 Written by many of the leading historians of the country it pulls together four decades of scholarship to present a detailed overview of South Africa during the twentieth century It covers political economic social and intellectual developments and their interconnections in a clear and objective manner This book the second of two volumes represents an important reassessment of all the major historical events developments and records of South Africa and will be an important new tool for students and professors of African history worldwide as well as the basis for further development and research

Should I Fight? Barry W. Bussey, 2010-12-31 Since its organization in 1863 the Seventh day Adventist Church has been counter cultural In its Christian witness to modern society it has advocated keeping the seventh day Sabbath vegetarianism abstinence from tobacco and alcohol and refusal of its members to bear arms But the stance on the refusal to bear arms has seen a metamorphous in modern times Today more Seventh day Adventist young people have voluntarily joined the military than in any previous generation of the Church s history This volume is a compilation of essays that were presented at a conference called to discuss the Adventist Church s position on conscientious objection The presenters considered the history of the Church s stand and the changing views These discussions were not limited to American context but considered other countries including South Africa and Canada

Sharpeville Tom Lodge, 2011-05-12 A new account of the social and political background to the notorious Sharpeville Massacre of March 1960 which looks both at the sequence of events that prompted the shootings and also their long term consequences for South African politics both domestically and in the country s relationship with the rest of the world

Desire, Violence, and Divinity in Modern Southern Fiction Gary M. Ciuba, 2011-02-04 In this groundbreaking study Gary M Ciuba examines how four of the South s most probing writers of twentieth century fiction Katherine Anne Porter Flannery O Connor Cormac McCarthy and Walker Percy expose the roots of violence in southern culture Ciuba draws on the paradigm of mimetic violence developed by cultural and literary critic Ren Girard who maintains that individual human nature is shaped by the desire to imitate a model Mimetic desire may lead in turn to rivalry cruelty and ultimately community sanctioned and sometimes ritually sanctified victimization of those deemed outcasts Ciuba offers an impressively broad intellectual discussion that gives universal cultural meaning to the southern experience of desire violence and divinity with which these four authors wrestled and out of which they wrote In a comprehensive analysis of Porter s semiautobiographical Miranda stories Ciuba focuses on the prescribed role of women that Miranda imitates and ultimately escapes O Connor s The Violent Bear It Away reveals three characters whose scandalous animosity caused by religious rivalry leads to the unbearable stumbling block of violence McCarthy s protagonist in Child of God Lester Ballard appears as the culmination of a long tradition of the sacred violence of southern religion twisted into his own bloody faith And Percy s The Thanatos Syndrome brings Ciuba s discussion back to the victim in Tom Moore s renunciation of a society in which scapegoating threatens to become the foundation of a new social regime From nostalgia for the old order to visions of a utopian tomorrow these authors have imagined the interrelationship of desire antagonism and religion throughout southern history Ciuba s insights offer new ways of reading Porter O Connor McCarthy and Percy as well as their contemporaries who inhabited the same culture of violence violence desired dreaded denied and deified A Far-Away War Ian Liebenberg,Jorge Risquet,Vladimir Shubin,2016-01-31 South Africa s armed forces invaded Angola in 1975 setting off a war that had consequences for the whole region that are still felt today A Far Away War contributes to a wider understanding of this war in Angola and Namibia The book does not only look at the war from an old South African Defence Force perspective but also gives a voice to participants on the other side emphasising the role of the Cubans and Russians This focus is supplemented by the inclusion of many never before published photographs from Cuban and Russian archives and a comprehensive bibliography Satanism and Family Murder in Late Apartheid South Africa Nicky Falkof,2015-07-04 This book discusses two moral panics that appeared in the media in late apartheid South Africa the Satanism scare and the so called epidemic of white family murder The analysis of these symptoms of social and political change reveals important truths about whiteness gender violence history nationalism and injustice in South Africa and beyond The New Cold War? Mark Juergensmeyer,2023-04-28 Will the religious confrontations with secular authorities around the world lead to a new Cold War Mark Juergensmeyer paints a provocative picture of the new religious revolutionaries altering the political landscape in the Middle East South Asia Central Asia and Eastern Europe Impassioned Muslim leaders in Egypt Palestine and Algeria political rabbis in Israel militant Sikhs in India and triumphant Catholic clergy in Eastern Europe are all players in Juergensmeyer s study of the explosive growth of religious movements that decisively reject Western ideas of secular nationalism Juergensmeyer revises our notions of religious revolutions Instead of viewing religious nationalists as wild eyed anti American fanatics he reveals them as modern activists pursuing a legitimate form of politics He explores the positive role religion can play in the political life of modern nations even while acknowledging some religious nationalists proclivity to violence and disregard of Western notions of human rights Finally he situates the growth of religious nationalism in the context of the political malaise of the modern West Noting that the synthesis of traditional religion and secular nationalism yields a religious version of the modern nation state Juergensmeyer claims that such a political entity could conceivably embrace democratic values and human rights Will the religious confrontations with secular authorities around the world lead to a new Cold War Mark Juergensmeyer paints a provocative picture of the new religious revolutionaries altering the political landscape in the Middle East South Asia Centr State of the Nation Sakhela Buhlungu,2007 State of the Nation South Africa 2007 offers 22 diverse angles on contemporary South Africa in one compelling and comprehensive collection The politics section focuses on the outcome of the 2006 local government elections and issues of service delivery The economy section examines the rapidly growing social welfare net the state of our public health systems and the topics of water and the environment heritage and tourism Violence against women prison reform the plight of South Africa s former guerrilla fighters transformation in South African rugby and the post apartheid role of the church all come under the spotlight in the society section The volume concludes with a look at trends in the continuing involvement of South African business on the African continent South Africa's part in the complex search for peace and stability in the Democratic Republic of Congo and the life of the vast Zimbabwean exile community in South Africa

Rhetoric, Scripture and Theology Stanley E.

Porter, Thomas H. Olbricht, 1996-09-01 Rhetoric Scripture and Theology aptly describe the contents of this collection of essays from the 1994 Pretoria Rhetoric Conference The conference marked a significant dialogue among scholars gathered from many nations to consider how rhetoric engages with the study of scripture and theology South Africa provided a suitable context for such discussion Although the contributors are not only from South Africa the addressing of issues pertinent to a South African context shows through in many of the essays Those that do not address particularly South African issues raise equally important issues regarding the topic of rhetoric and its relation to contemporary theological discourse

What Has Religion Studies in Africa Been Up To? Jaco Beyers, 2023-04-05 The purpose of the book is to provide a collection of perspectives from various parts of Africa on what scholars in religion studies are currently engaged with whether it refers to topics or methodology Each chapter is written from the perspective of a scholar working within a particular context on a particular theme or topic related to religion studies Several methodologies have been implemented in each contribution to the book Each contribution applies a different methodology for the purpose of investigating a specific topic or research theme In general the majority of the contributions follow a method of critical literature review as applied to a specific field The book is not intended to provide an exhaustive list of all possible topics and themes addressed in current research in Africa From a decolonized perspective the book gives voice to African scholars who exhibit their scholarly work as related to religion studies Topics addressed include curriculum design and pedagogical approaches in teaching religion studies the relation between religion and culture in an African context religion and health religion and gender interreligious relations in Africa religion and ecology and religion and mission
