The Shrine and Cult of Mu'in Al-Din Chishti of Ajmer P. M. Currie, 2006 A study of the life of the revered Sufi mystic Mu in al Din Chishti this book places the saint in a historical context pointing to his social and cultural importance importance in the subcontinent It also traces the history of the shrine at Ajmer Medieval Islamic Civilization Josef W. Meri, 2006 Examines the socio cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the 7th and 16th century This two volume work contains 700 alphabetically arranged entries and provides a portrait of Islamic civilization It is of use in understanding the roots of Islamic society as well to explore the culture of medieval civilization Shrine and Cult of Mu'in Al-din Chishti of Aimer P. M. Currie, 1993 Urban Histories of Rajasthan Elizabeth M. Thelen, 2022-06-20 An exploration of religious conflicts in premodern urban India Diverse peoples intermingled in the streets and markets of premodern Indian cities This book considers how these diverse residents lived together and negotiated their differences Which differences mattered when and to whom How did state actions and policies affect urban society and the lives of various communities How and why did conflict occur in urban spaces Through these questions this book explores the histories of urban communities in the three cities of Ajmer Nagaur and Pushkar in Rajasthan between the sixteenth and eighteenth centuries The focus of this study is on everyday life contextualizing religious practices and conflicts by considering patterns of patronage and broader conflict patterns within society The book examines various archival documents from family and institutional records to state registers and uses these documents to demonstrate the complex and sometimes contradictory ways religion intersected with politics economics and society The author shows how many patronage patterns and processes persisted in altered forms and how the robustness of these structures contributed to the resilience of urban spaces and society in precolonial Rajasthan

According to Tradition Winand M. Callewaert, Rupert Snell, 1994 Sufi Rituals and Practices Kashshaf Ghani, 2024 This book explores the institution of Sufism the most dynamic face of Islam in the Indian subcontinent as it sets out to study the mystical rituals and devotional practices that characterize Sufism's beliefs and traditions Civility, Nonviolent Resistance, and the New Struggle for Social Justice ,2019-11-26 In Civility Nonviolent Resistance and the New Struggle for Social Justice Amin Asfari brings together scholarly contributions addressing the causes of injustice in its many forms Predicated on the idea that violence and injustice are systemic and historical this collection includes chapters that examine the antecedents and effects of prejudice state sponsored violence policies of exclusion and the social forces that shape and solidify their existence Moving beyond ad hoc ahistorical and descriptive explanations of violence and injustice this volume provides a scholarly multidisciplinary approach to confronting them Contributions reflect the many ways in which injustice manifests and civil nonviolent means of engagement are emphasized challenging the very systems that give rise to these notions South Asian Islam Nasr M Arif, Abbas Panakkal, 2023-10-06 This volume explores the historical trajectory of the spread of Islam in South Asia and how the engagements of the past have played a crucial role in the making of the present outfits of South Asian Islam

Islam in South Asia has maintained a distinct role while imbibing cultural social ethnic folk and artistic networks of the subcontinent in diverse echelons In an unequivocal analysis this volume showcases the visible varieties of Islam from an array of regional cultural ethnic and vernacular groups While many characteristics remain distinct in different provinces or regions of South Asia similarities are palpable in etiquettes customary laws art and architecture More than regional differences various ethnic groups from all poles of the Indian subcontinent have paved the way for the dissimilar landscapes of Islam in tandem with differences in language culture and festivals The case studies in this book exhibit forms of cultural pluralism in the communities which have helped in building a cohesive community Part of the Global Islamic Cultures series that looks at integrated and indigenized Islam this book will be of interest to students and researchers of religion religious history theology study of Islamic law and politics cultural studies and South Asian Studies It will also be useful to general readers who are interested in world religions and cultures Sufism, Culture, and Politics Raziuddin Aguil, 2012-09-24 This book provides a political history of north India under Afghan rulers in the late fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries Focusing on interconnections between religion and politics it also raises questions of paramount concern to an understanding of Islam in medieval north India The book is divided into three sections. The first section explores the Afghan attempts at empire building under the leadership of Sher Shah Sur Discussing the incorporation of the Rajputs in the Afghan imperial project the second part deals with the prevalent ideals and institutions of governance The last segment investigates the social and political role of the Sufis Questioning the overemphasis on the Sultanate and Mughal periods in Indian history writing Aguil projects a dynamic view of the Afghan period Hajj across Empires Rishad Choudhury, 2024-02-08 Rishad Choudhury presents a new history of imperial connections across the Indian Ocean from 1739 to 1857 a period that witnessed the decline and collapse of Mughal rule and the consolidation of British colonialism in South Asia In this highly original and comprehensive study he reveals how the hajj pilgrimage significantly transformed Muslim political culture and colonial attitudes towards it creating new ideas of religion and rule Examining links between the Indian Subcontinent and the Ottoman Middle East through multilingual sources from first hand accounts to administrative archives of hajj Choudhury uncovers a striking array of pilgrims who leveraged their experiences and exchanges abroad to address the decline and decentralization of an Islamic old regime at home Hajjis crucially mediated the birth of modern Muslim political traditions around South Asia Hajj across Empires argues they did so by channeling inter imperial crosscurrents to successive surges of imperial revolution and regional regime change Routledge Handbook on Sufism Lloyd Ridgeon, 2020-08-09 This is a chronological history of the Sufi tradition divided in to three sections early middle and modern periods The book comprises 35 independent chapters with easily identifiable themes and or geographical threads all written by recognised experts in the field The volume outlines the origins and early developments of Sufism by assessing the formative thinkers and practitioners and investigating specific pietistic themes The middle period contains an examination of the emergence of the Sufi Orders and illustrates the diversity of the tradition This middle period also analyses the fate of Sufism during the time of the Gunpowder Empires Finally the end period includes representative surveys of Sufism in several countries both in the West and in traditional Islamic regions This comprehensive and up to date collection of studies provides a guide to the Sufi tradition The Handbook is a valuable resource for students and researchers with an interest in religion Islamic Studies and Middle Eastern Studies

The Shrine and Cult of Mu'in Al-Din Chishti of Ajmer P. M. Currie,1993-04 One of the most revered mystics of the Indian subcontinent was the fourteenth century Shaykh Mu in al Din Chishti whose tomb in Rajasthan is a center of pilgrimage to the present day This study defines the role of the Sufi mystics in Islam and places Mu in al Din in a historical context attempting to disentangle the Mu in of history from the legendary creation of later hagiographical chronicles The author then considers why the legend arose at all and took the form that it assumed Later chapters describe the history of the shrine and the customs and hierarchy of attendants that have grown up around it in the last 500 years

Female Stereotypes in Religious Traditions Ria Kloppenborg, Wouter J. Hanegraaff, 1995 This volume contains a collection of studies describing and analyzing stereotypes of women in the religions of Ancient Israel and Mesopotamia and in Zoroastrianism Judaism Medieval Christianity Islam Indian Sufism Hinduism Buddhism Tibetan religions and modern Neopaganism In all these traditions the stereotypes are based on generalizations which are socially culturally or religiously legitimized and which seem to have a lasting influence on society s conceptions of women They represent oversimplified opinions which are however regularly challenged by the women who are affected by them In all traditions the stereotypes are ambiguous either because women have challenged their validity or because historical developments in society have reshaped them They influence public opinion by emphasizing dominant views as a strategy to restrain women and to keep them controlled by the rules and morals of male dominated society Pakistan's Drift into Extremism Hassan Abbas, 2015-03-26 This book examines the rise of religious extremism in Pakistan particularly since 1947 and analyzes its connections to the Pakistani army's corporate interests and U S Pakistan relations It includes profiles of leading Pakistani militant groups with details of their origins development and capabilities. The author begins with an historical overview of the introduction of Islam to the Indian sub continent in 712 AD and brings the story up to the present by describing President Musharraf s handling of the war on terror He provides a detailed account of the political developments in Pakistan since 1947 with a focus on the influence of religious and military forces He also discusses regional politics Pakistan's attempt to gain nuclear power status and U S Pakistan relations and offers predictions for Pakistan's domestic and regional prospects

Lovers of God Raziuddin Aquil,2020-01-24 This book addresses some of the fiercely contested issues about religion and politics in medieval India especially with regard to the crucial presence of Sufis who styled themselves as friends and lovers of God Enjoying widespread veneration even in situations of hostility with regard to Islam and Muslims in general Sufis are central to an understanding of religious interactions and community relations historically The chapters included in the book can be read as stand alone pieces focussing on some of the most fascinating as well as contentious themes in medieval Indian history subjects and issues which are otherwise either left untouched by historians because of their sensitive nature from the point of view of modern day secularism or abused by interested parties in their communal propaganda When read as a monograph the volume as a whole attempts to combat all kinds of intellectual absurdities which mar our understating of the place of Islam in medieval Indian history especially the significant presence of Sufis who were devoted to the love of God and service to humanity Historiographically important issues which are also topical in these times of interdependence of religion and politics the latter exploiting religion for legitimacy and justification of violence and religion needing political support for expansion and imposition on the gullible have been dealt in detail neither bounded by a particular ideology nor by identity politics with its separate blinkers Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka
