Shuswap Stories:

Shuswap Stories British Columbia Indian Language Project, 1977 Collection of 36 Shuswap Indian stories originally related by several elderly storytellers Before the Country Stephanie McKenzie, 2007-11-25 In the late 1960s and early 1970s Canada witnessed an explosion in the production of literary works by Aboriginal writers a development that some critics have called the Native Renaissance In Before the Country Stephanie McKenzie explores the extent to which this growing body of literature influenced non Native Canadian writers and has been fundamental in shaping our search for a national mythology In the context of Northrop Frye's theories of myth and in light of the attempts of social critics and early anthologists to define Canada and Canadian literature McKenzie discusses the ways in which our decidedly fractured sense of literary nationalism has set indigenous culture apart from the mainstream She examines anew the aesthetics of Native Literature and in a style that is creative as much as it is scholarly McKenzie incorporates the principles of storytelling into the unfolding of her argument This strategy not only enlivens her narrative but also underscores the need for new theoretical strategies in the criticism of Aboriginal literatures Before the Country invites us to engage in one such endeavour The Franz Boas Papers, Volume 2 Franz Boas, 2024-04 The Franz Boas Papers Volume 2 explores the development of the ethnography of Salishan speaking societies on the North American Plateau as revealed through the correspondence between Franz Boas and the Scottish born James Teit who married into an Interior Salish family and community and became fluent in the Nlaka pamux language The letters between Teit 1864 1922 and Boas 1858 1942 chronicle Teit's varied career as an ethnographer from shortly after his initial meeting with Boas in 1894 until Teit's death at the age of fifty eight A postscript documents Boas's contribution to Teit's legacy through the posthumous publication of the manuscripts Teit left unfinished at his death Teit made significant contributions to ethnography and the history of southern British Columbia through his photography of the people with whom he worked his contributions to ethnomusicology and ethnobotany his anthologies of mythic narrative and his collections of Interior Salish primarily Nlaka pamux material culture In addition to collaborating with Boas in the development of Interior Salish ethnography between 1909 and 1922 Teit worked to support Indigenous groups in British Columbia who were seeking recognition of Aboriginal title and resolution of their outstanding land claims The Franz Boas Papers Volume 2 meticulously tracks the impact of the differing career trajectories of Teit and Boas on the primary product of their collaboration the initial development of the ethnography of societies speaking Interior Salish languages This second volume of the Franz Boas Papers Documentary Edition is an essential primary source of archival materials for research libraries and for students and scholars of Northwest Coast and Interior Mountain West ethnohistory Native American and Indigenous studies history of anthropology and modern U S history It is also an essential source for Indigenous and settler descendant communities Many voices Carole Henderson Carpenter, 1979-01-01 This volume provides a historical overview of the development and role of Anglo Canadian folklore studies in Canada and their relationship to similar research conducted with respect to French Canadians minority groups within Canada within the wider Canadian context and at the international level Published in English Signatures of the Past Marc Maufort, Caroline De Wagter, 2008 In the last decades of the twentieth century North American drama has powerfully enacted the problematic notions of cultural memory and identity as the essays assembled in this critical anthology demonstrate Echoing Derrida's non essentialist interpretation of the term signature this collection provides an innovative focus on North American theatre and drama as a site of latent cultural memories In this volume the concept of cultural memory offers a privileged vantage point from which to redefine issues of diasporic identities exilic predicaments and multi ethnic subject positions at the dawn of a new century Playwrights examined here include noted Canadian and US artists such as Marie Clements Eva Ensler Lorraine Hansberry Tomson Highway Cherr e Moraga Djanet Sears Guillermo Verdecchia August Wilson and Chay Yew to cite but a few In the process of remembering North American dramatists develop new aesthetic modes in which the signatures of the past merge with the present and foreshadow an imagined future A Bibliography of Canadian Folklore in English

Edith Fowke, Carole Henderson-Carpenter, 1982-12-15 This book is the only comprehensive bibliography of Canadian folklore in English The 3877 different items are arranged by genres folktales folk music and dance folk speech and naming superstitions popular beliefs folk medicine and the supernatural folk life and customs folk art and material culture and within genres by ethnic groups Anglophone and Celtic Francophone Indian and Inuit and other cultural groups The items include reference books periodicals articles records films biographies of scholars and informants and graduate theses Each item is annotated through a coding that indicates whether it is academic or popular its importance to the scholar and whether it is suitable for young people The introduction includes a brief survey of Canadian folklore studies putting this work into academic and social perspective The book covers all the important items and most minor items dealing with Canadian folklore published in English up to the end of 1979 It is concerned with legitimate Canadian folklore whether transplanted from other countries and preserved here or created here to reflect the culture of this country It distinguishes between authentic folklore presented as collected and popular treatments in which the material has been rewritten by the authors Intended primarily for scholars of folklore internationally as well as Canadian the book will also be of use to scholars in anthropology cultural geography oral history and other branches of Canadian culture studies as well as to librarians teachers and the general public Secwépemc People, Land, and Laws Marianne Ignace, Ronald E. Ignace, 2017-10-31 Secwépemc People Land and Laws is a journey through the 10 000 year history of the Interior Plateau nation in British Columbia Told through the lens of past and present Indigenous storytellers this volume details how a homeland has shaped Secwépemc existence while the Secwépemc have in turn shaped their homeland Marianne Ignace and Ronald Ignace with contributions from ethnobotanist Nancy Turner archaeologist Mike Rousseau and geographer Ken Favrholt compellingly weave together Secwépemc narratives about ancestors' deeds They demonstrate how these stories are the manifestation of Indigenous laws

stsq ey for social and moral conduct among humans and all sentient beings on the land and for social and political relations within the nation and with outsiders Breathing new life into stories about past transformations the authors place these narratives in dialogue with written historical sources and knowledge from archaeology ethnography linguistics earth science and ethnobiology In addition to a wealth of detail about Secw pemc land stewardship the social and political order and spiritual concepts and relations embedded in the Indigenous language the book shows how between the mid 1800s and 1920s the Secw pemc people resisted devastating oppression and the theft of their land and fought to retain political autonomy while tenaciously maintaining a connection with their homeland ancestors and laws An exemplary work in collaboration Secw pemc People Land and Laws points to the ways in which Indigenous laws and traditions can guide present and future social and political process among the Secw pemc and with settler society
