Criminology Gender Law Cultural and Criminal Justice Studies Darkness, Take My Hand Dennis Lehane, 2009-10-13 Master of new noir Dennis Lehane magnificently evokes the dignity and savagery of working class Boston in Darkness Take My Hand a terrifying tale of redemption Patrick Kenzie and Angela Gennaro's latest client is a prominent Boston psychiatrist running scared from a vengeful Irish mob The private investigators know about cold blooded retribution Born and bred on the mean streets of blue collar Dorchester they ve seen the darkness that lives in the hearts of the unfortunate But an evil for which even they are unprepared is about to strike as secrets that have long lain dormant erupt setting off a chain of violent murders that will stain everything including the truth With razor sharp dialogue and penetrating prose Darkness Take My Hand is another superior crime novel from the author of Mystic River Gone Baby Gone and Shutter Island Rain Dennis Lehane, 2009-10-13 When a former client jumps naked from a Boston landmark Private Investigator Patrick Kenzie wants to know why Once a perky young woman in love with life her suicide is the final fall in a spiral of self destruction What Kenzie discovers is a sadistic stalker who targeted the woman and methodically drove her to her death a monster that the law can t touch But Kenzie can He and his former partner Angela Gennaro will fight a mind twisting battle against the psychopath even as he turns tricks on them Prayers for Rain is another superior thriller from Dennis Lehane the bestselling and acclaimed author of Mystic River Shutter Island and Gone Baby Gone Understanding Sound Tracks Through Film Theory Elsie M. Walker, 2015 Understanding Sound Tracks Through Film Theory analyzes all aural aspects of cinema using several approaches feminism genre studies post colonialism psychoanalysis and gueer theory. In her analysis of each sound track Walker brings together film studies musicology history politics and culture in an accessible yet rigorous The Horrors of Trauma in Cinema Michael Elm, Kobi Kabalek, Julia B. Köhne, 2014-10-02 This volume explores the way multifaceted depiction and staging of historical and social traumata as the result of extreme violence within national contexts It focuses on Israeli Palestinian German and US American film and reaches out to cinematic traditions from other countries like France Great Britain and the former USSR International and interdisciplinary scholars analyze both mainstream and avant garde movies and documentaries premiering from the 1960s to the present From transnational and cross genre perspectives they query the modes of representation regarding narration dramaturgy aesthetics mise en sc ne iconology lighting cinematography editing and sound held by film as a medium to visualize shattering experiences of violence and their traumatic encoding in individuals collectives bodies and psyches This anthology uniquely traces horror aesthetics and trajectories as a way to reenact echo and question the perpetual loops of trauma in film cultures The contributors examine the discursive transfer between historical traumata necessarily transmitted in a medialized and conceptualized form the changing landscape of clinical trauma theory the filmic depiction and language of trauma and the official memory politics and hegemonic national identity constructions Screenwriters José Guilherme Correa, 2016-07-13 Screen writing is a unique literary form Screenplays are like musical scores in that they are intended to be interpreted on the basis of other artists performances rather than serving as finished products for the enjoyment of their readers. They are written using technical jargon and tight spare prose to describe set directions Unlike a novella a script focuses on describing the literal visual aspects of the story rather than on its characters internal thoughts In screen writing the aim is to evoke those thoughts and emotions through subtext action and symbolism Prominent Hollywood script doctors include Steve Zaillian William Goldman Robert Towne Mort Nathan Quentin Tarantino etc while many up and coming screenwriters work as ghost writers This book is a modest catalogue of some of the most prominent screenwriters listed from A to Z The good are sometimes bad and they can be even Ugly Many comments herein included were googled in deference to the multiplicity of information available today yet they reflect exactly or almost what I thought An amazing thing today is how anonymous commentators on the Internet rival and even surpass the poor quality of professional media and specialised literature It all comes down to watching the truth 24 times per second to quote Jean Luc Godard's phrase Not to mention that such truth may include sex scenes violence pedophilia etc We know that a literary masterpiece like Henry James Portrait of a Lady became a film of very poor quality as scripted by Laura Jones We know conversely that a mediocre writer like Mickey Spillane inspired at least one film as remarkable as Kiss Me Deadly thanks to A I Bezzerides script Asa former screenwriter Mr Correa must avow that he found the job most gratifying Writing that looks effortless is often hellish to write and revise It was something he did have to slog through but it proved particularly pleasing Editing discussing finishing your work is particularly gratifying Identifying your flaws and working to mitigate them is also gratifying It is a general perception that creative careers are more interesting and fun than others But the privilege of earning money through imagination and creativity is effectively hard won Please comment at will Please disagree at will Be facetious in your remarks but please be neither vicious nor mean spirited
