Sibyls And Seers A Survey Of Some Ancient Theories Of Revelation And Inspiration 1929:

Sibyls and Seers Edwyn Bevan, 2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1929 edition A Jungian Study of Shakespeare M. Fike, 2009-02-02 Employing the analytical psychology of Carl Jung Matthew A Fike provides a fresh understanding of individuation in Shakespeare This study of the visionary mode Jung's term for literature that comes through the artist from the collective unconscious combines a strong grounding in Jungian terminology and theory with myth criticism biblical literary criticism and postcolonial theory Fike draws extensively on the rich discussions in the Collected Works of C G Jung to illuminate selected plays such as A Midsummer Night's Dream The Merchant of Venice The Henriad Othello and Hamlet in new and surprising ways Fike's clear and thorough approach to Shakespeare offers exciting original scholarship that will appeal to students and scholars alike The Journal of Hellenic Studies, 1929 The Journal of Roman Studies, 1928 Includes section Notices of recent publications Sibyls and Seers Edwyn Robert Bevan, 1929 The topos of Divine Testimony in Luke-Acts James R. McConnell Jr., 2014-07-21 In this study James McConnell addresses the concept of authoritative testimony in Luke Acts Specifically he argues that particular elements in the narrative of Luke Acts can be understood as instances of the topos of divine testimony through utterances and deeds considered in some ancient rhetorical handbooks to be the most authoritative form of testimony when seeking to persuade an audience McConnell claims the gods testimony was used in ancient law courts and political speeches to persuade a judge of a defendant's guilt or innocence and in attempts in public forums to convince others of a particular course of action Similarly the topos is used in ancient narratives and biographies to legitimate certain characters and discredit others The instances of the topos of God's speech both oral and through OT citations and deeds in Luke Acts are functioning in the same way Pre-histories and Afterlives Anna Holland, 2017-12-02 If the past is indeed a foreign country then how can we make sense of its richness and difference without approaching it on our terms alone Pre histories and afterlives methods that have emerged in recent work by Terence Cave offer new ways of shaping the stories we tell of the past and the analyses we offer In this volume distinguished contributors engage in a dialogue with these two new critical methods exploring their uses in a range of contexts disciplines languages and periods The contributors are Terence Cave Marian Hobson Anna Holland Neil Kenny Mary McKinley Richard Scholar Kate E Tunstall and Wes Williams Hosting the Monster, 2008-01-01 Hosting the Monster responds to the call of the monstrous with not rejection but invitation Positing the monster as that which defies classification the essays in this collection are an ongoing engagement with that which lies outside of established boundaries With chapters ranging from the monstrous mother or the deformed child to subjectivity in transition this volume is not only of interest to film and gender scholars and literary and cultural theorists but also students of popular culture or horror Its wide appeal stems from its invitation both to entertain the monster and to widen the call to and the listening for the monsters that have not yet and perhaps must not yet come calling back This sense of hospitality and non hostility is one guiding principle of this collection suggesting that the ability to survey and research the otherwise may reveal more about the subjectivity of the self through the wisdom of the other however monstrous the manifestation
