Meeting Families Where They Are Beth Harry, Lydia Ocasio-Stoutenburg, 2020 This book presents an in depth discussion of how human disability and parental advocacy have been constructed in American society including recommendations for a more authentically inclusive vision of parental advocacy. The authors provide a cultural historical view of the conflation of racism classism and ableism that have left a deeply entrenched stigma one that positions children with disabilities and children of color as less valuable than others. To redress these inequities the authors offer a working model of co constructed advocacy designed to benefit all families. Because advocacy is not a one size fits all endeavor the authors propose meeting families where they are and learning their strengths and needs while preparing and repositioning families to empower themselves. The authors intend to challenge us and they do. They engage us in a secular liberation ethic. That is why this book is important. Rud Turnbull distinguished professor emeritus University of Kansas. Of value to educators doctors parents and parent advocates this text purposefully centers the experiences of parents of color who have children with disabilities. David J Connor professor emeritus City University of New York. An enlightening and stimulating read for those committed to better understanding the complexity of the plight of parents of color as they attempt to advocate for the educational needs of their child with a disability. Wanda J Blanchett dean Rutgers University Graduate School of Education.

The Fairy Feller's Master-Stroke Harry Eiss, 2013-01-03 Richard Dadd is a trickster a pre post modern enigma wrapped in a Shakespearean Midsummer Night's Dream an Elizabethan Puck living in a smothering Victorian insane asylum foreshadowing and in brilliant Mad Hatter conundrums entering the fragmented shards of today's nightmarish oxymorons long before the artists currently trying to give them the joker's ephemeral maps of discourse. The author thinks of Bob Dylan's Ballad of a Thin Man that cryptic refusal to reduce the warped mirrors of reality to prosaic lies or perhaps All Along the Watchtower or Mr Tambourine Man. Even more than Samuel Beckett's Waiting for Godot which curiously enough comes off as overly esoteric too studied too conscious Dadd's entire existence foreshadows the forbidden entrance into the numinous the realization of the inexplicable labyrinths of contemporary existence that wonderfully rich Marcel Duchamp landscape of puns and satiric paradigms that surrealistic parallax of the brilliant gamester Salvador Dali that smirking irony of the works of Roy Lichtenstein Robert Rauschenberg John Cage and Robert Indiana that fragmented meta fictional struggle of Kurt Vonnegut's Slaughterhouse Five John Lennon certainly sensed it and couldn't help but push into meta real worlds in his own lyrics Think of Strawberry Fields Forever I Am the Walrus and the more self conscious Revolution Number 9. In Yer Blues he even refers to Dylan's main character Mr Jones from Ballad of a Thin Man. If Lennon's song is taken seriously literally then it is a dark crying out by a suicidal man. Lord I m lonely wanna die or if taken as a metaphor for a lover's lost feelings about his unfulfilled love it falls into the romantic rant of a typical blues or teenage rock and roll song However even on this level it has an irony about it a sense of laughing at itself and at Dylan's Mr Jones who knows something is going on but just not what it is and then by extension all of us who have awakened to the fact that the studied Western world doesn't make sense all of us who struggle to find meaning in the nonsense images characters and happenings in the song and perhaps coming to a conclusion that the nonsense is the sense
