

"Blind" / "The Blind Seer of Ambon" / "On His Blindness"

Fatima Naoos / W.S. Merwin / Jorge Luis Borges

Analogy

An analogy is a way of comparing two things to explain something complex or unfamiliar by likening it to something more familiar. It's like saying, "This is similar to that," to help people understand the concept better. For example, explaining how a cell works by comparing it to a factory, where different parts of the cell are like different parts of the factory.

Directions: Answer the following questions about analogies found in the poems using complete sentences.

1. In "Blind," the speaker talks about a "dimmed memory" in certain parts of the poem. What memory is this, and how does the speaker use this idea to think about being blind?
2. In the beginning of "The Blind Seer of Ambon," the speaker talks about coming from a "different language." Trying to "find words" explains the speaker mean by this "different language"? And how does this poem help us understand what it's like to be blind?
3. In "On His Blindness," the speaker talks about a "bright mist" that "surrounds me all the time, making everything seem the same without color or shape." Does the speaker mean by this "bright mist," and why does he say it's "bright" if everything look the same without any color or shape?

Word Choice

Sensory details are words and descriptions that help you experience things more fully—like what you can see, hear, smell, taste, or feel. They make writing more vivid by painting a picture in your mind. For example, instead of just saying "the flower," sensory details might describe the flower as "fragrant" or "soft with a sweet fragrance."

Imagery involves using sensory details in words and phrases to create a picture in the mind of the reader.

Juxtaposition means putting two different things next to each other to show how they're different or similar. One way to do this is by using an oxymoron, which is when you put two words together that mean opposite things of each other. For instance, "open secret" is an oxymoron because a secret is something that is both hidden and known at the same time.

Directions: Underline the sensory details in the following excerpts from the poems that are juxtaposed. Then, what ideas are being juxtaposed.

1. "When she danced with Lania/On the hillside,/he told her that the soul can travel with the eye/ freed from the retina."
2. "I may have seemed somewhat strangulating in my own time for living things/with no value that we know/languages wash over them one wave at a time."
3. "The elemental vast night and the day/heaving with people have become that fog/of constant, tentative light that does not fog,/and lies in wait at dawn."

Sight Behind Blindness A Collection Of Poetry:

Sight Behind Blindness: A Collection of Poetry Carolyn L. Miller, 2002-12-01 To read these poems is to experience life through the eyes of a tiny ant carrying food to its nest or to imagine yourself as a mosquito intent on biting humans While she expertly uses the natural world to help the reader see life in a new way she will also bring you deep inside yourself to view your own soul Her gentle poetry will forever change the way you see yourself and your relationship to the world

Sanford Rosenthal, Executive Director, 2007-12 I'm always impressed by pioneering efforts This anthology represents a noteworthy beginning for this group of writers From the triumphs over adversity dramatized in the first section to the heartwarming and heartbreaking stories and poems of the final grouping they show us sensitivity and inspire strength They show us disability as it is lived honestly Fables fantasies and tips about writing add something new making this publication a unique contribution to disability literature Erik Weihe author of Touch the Top of the World and The Adversity Advantage Disabled people in most ways are just like everyone else So it should come as no surprise that the stories essays and poems in Behind Our Eyes deal with situations and emotions that confront all of us family and marriage love and heartbreak discord appreciation of nature and the desire to engage in the world more fully In this uplifting collection we read about the dedication of a guide dog who protects a blind woman and her young children from a burglar until police arrive the inner struggle for a stroke victim whose world is rearranged overnight the challenges faced by disabled children spouses and seniors when their families see their limitations instead of their abilities the difficulty faced by a blind man coping with a team of insensitive doctors and nurses who seem to keep forgetting he can't see and much more A real and candid portrait of life with disability as well as an entertaining foray into the minds and hearts of a beautifully diverse group of people Behind Our Eyes urges and inspires us to meet even our loftiest goals embrace our individual vulnerabilities and let our own imaginations soar

The Casquet of Literature: Being a Selection in Poetry and Prose from the Works of the Most Admired Authors Charles Gibbon, 1882 Blindness and Writing Heather Tilley, 2018 In this innovative and important study Heather Tilley examines the huge shifts that took place in the experience and conceptualisation of blindness during the nineteenth century and demonstrates how new writing technologies for blind people had transformative effects on literary culture Considering the ways in which visually impaired people used textual means to shape their own identities the book argues that blindness was also a significant trope through which writers reflected on the act of crafting literary form Supported by an illuminating range of archival material including unpublished letters from Wordsworth's circle early ophthalmologic texts embossed books and autobiographies this is a rich account of blind people's experience and reveals the close and often surprising personal engagement that canonical writers had with visual impairment Drawing on the insights of disability studies and cultural phenomenology Tilley highlights the importance of attending to embodied experience in the production and consumption of texts ThirdWay, 1992-12 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture

The Book of Spiritual Poetry Rev. Charles E. Pullen,2019-01-25 The Book of Spiritual Poetry By Rev Charles E Pullen One night the Holy Spirit spoke to Rev Charles E Pullen while he was at a low point in his life saying You re not going to bed instead you re going to write a poem about your life and it ll help you feel better Thus The Book of Spiritual Poetry Enlightenment was born Through his writings Rev Pullen hopes that each reader will receive vibrant inspiration to know the Lord and develop a personal relationship with Him And for readers who already know Him Rev Pullen hopes his poetry helps them know the Lord more closely and intimately Enlightenment is the first in a series of books he hopes to publish

Blind and Blindness in Literature of the Romantic Period Edward Larrissy,2007-06-19 In the first full length literary historical study of its subject Edward Larrissy examines the philosophical and literary background to representations of blindness and the blind in the Romantic period In detailed studies of literary works he goes on to show how the topic is central to an understanding of British and Irish Romantic literature While he considers the influence of Milton and the Ossian poems as well as of philosophers including Locke Diderot Berkeley and Thomas Reid much of the book is taken up with new readings of writers of the period These include canonical authors such as Blake Wordsworth Scott Byron Keats and Percy and Mary Shelley as well as less well known writers such as Charlotte Brooke and Ann Batten Cristall There is also a chapter on the popular genre of improving tales for children by writers such as Barbara Hofland and Mary Sherwood Larrissy finds that despite the nostalgia for a bardic age of inward vision the chief emphasis in the period is on the compensations of enhanced sensitivity to music and words This compensation becomes associated with the loss and gain involved in the modernity of a post bardic age Representations of blindness and the blind are found to elucidate a tension at the heart of the Romantic period between the desire for immediacy of vision on the one hand and on the other the historical self consciousness which always attends it

A Selection from the Poetry of ... Elizabeth Barrett Browning,1884

Behind the Poem Robert Hull,2019-08-09 Published in 1988 this book is a teacher s eye view of how children come to write and rewrite poems and of how they make aesthetic choices in their writing Drawing on over twenty years experience of teaching poetry in primary and secondary schools Robert Hull presents a detailed account of the process of writing poetry in the classroom The reader is invited almost in confidence to be witness to a skilled teacher s planning recognition and definition of children s emergent understanding and expertise The author adopts a non behaviourist model which stresses difficulty and uncertainty rejecting a simplistic assumption of linear progression predictability of outcome and short term results The many examples of poems written by the children demonstrate in a very vivid and impressive way the value of this approach All teachers not just of poetry will find this a fascinating and informed study and an inspiration for their own work in the classroom
