Olsen,2008-06-30 Based on the author s research in Ho Chi Minh City Hanoi and other urban areas in Vietnam this study of contemporary Vietnamese popular music explores the ways globalization and free market economics have influenced the music and subcultures of Vietnamese youth focusing on the conflict between the politics of remembering nurtured by the Vietnamese Communist government and the politics of forgetting driven by the capitalist interests of the music industry Vietnamese youth at the end of the second and beginning of the third millennium are influenced by the challenges generated by a number of seemingly opposite ideologies and realities such as the past versus the present socialism versus capitalism and cultural traditionalism versus globalization Vietnam has undergone a radical demographic shift with a very pronounced youth movement and consequently Vietnamese popular culture has been radically reshaped by a young population coming of age in the twenty first century As Olsen reveals the way Vietnamese young people cope with these opposing and contrasting forces is often expressed in their active and passive music making For the Love of Vietnam Huong Keenleyside,2007

Set during the Vietnam War and based on the true story of the author s uncle the story follows Agent 022 on his deadly mission to infiltrate South Vietnam With the help of Mrs Tam and Little Lien he assumes the identity of Police Lieutenant Tu Integrating seamlessly into South Vietnamese society Lieutenant Tu gains higher social esteem and access to top secret information To keep up his disguise he is forced to marry Nicole the beautiful daughter of a French landowner Morally torn between love and guilt for his first wife back in North Vietnam he struggles with his increasing feelings for his new wife and family Told from a perspective sympathetic to North Vietnam this unique manifesto highlights the simple quality of North Vietnamese life and the hardships they faced during the war years Letters from Vietnam Bob Steele D.
