McMullen, Timothy D. Whelan, 2016-10-24 Despite his prominent role during the last quarter of the eighteenth century in promoting evangelical Calvinism among British Particular Baptists only portions of the diary of Andrew Fuller 1754 1815 one of the most important surviving manuscripts from that century have appeared in print in various volumes published between 1816 and 1882 portions usually inaccurately transcribed and highly editorialized The current edition is the first complete and accurate transcription of Fuller s diary based on the sole surviving volume now residing at Bristol Baptist College This edition with exhaustive identifications notes and valuable appendices for students of Baptist history provides a fascinating glimpse into Fuller s ministry at Soham and Kettering during a period 1780 1801 when he became the titular head of the Particular Baptists as a result of his preaching throughout Northamptonshire and surrounding counties his writing such as his influential work The Gospel Worthy of All Acceptation 1785 and his multi national work as founding secretary of the Baptist Missionary Society 1792 a position he diligently maintained until his death in 1815 having left a legacy unequalled by any other minister of his generation Heilige Augen- und Gemüths-Lust, vorstellend alle Sonn- Fest- und Feyrtägliche nicht nur Evagelien sondern auch Epistelen und Lectionen, jene historisch diese auch emblemmatisch, und mit curieusen Einfassungen, in vielen Kupffer-Stücken ... gefertigt und herausgegeben von J. Sinner, 2013 In A Sinner s second book he again states he has to keep to his pen name and again changes all names of churches friends and family because of as he puts it historical freedoms long ago fought and died for in my country but now lost to dangerous forces that are not only unchallenged but appeased and encouraged He gives a chapter on his own English roots and background where he says his Saviour showed him the first signs of sin of which he needed to take to His cross He mentions first hand experience of Jesuit and Christian Brother school teachers who not surprisingly he is no fan of Yet his criticisms again are not left to Roman Catholicism alone As in his first book often humorous often tragic words but now not just in sermon notes but observations experiences speaking notes modern parables one or two poems and also in his own mostly pen and ink illustrations He gives a little more detail than in his first book of his working for his Saviour in missionary organisations such as Prison Fellowship SASRA and local church work Through it all he leaves the same message for all look to the Bible for inspiration but especially to unbelievers for salvation only in the Bible s Author The Holy Spirit and the Word of God Jesus Christ John Then they asked Him What must we do to do the works God requires Jesus answered The work of God is this to believe in the one He has sent John 6 28 29
