Copyright Office,1978 Love Among the Ruins Warwick Deeping,1904 The branches of the forest invoked the sky with the supplications of their thousand hands Black tumultuous terrible the wilds billowed under the moon stifled with the night silent as a windless sea Winter like a pale Semiramis of gigantic mould stood with her coronet touching the steely sky A mighty company of stars stared frost bright from the heavens A pillar of fire shone red amid the chaos of the woods Like a great torch a blazing tower hurled spears of light into the gloom Shadows vast and fantastic struggled like Titans striving with Destiny in the silence of the night Their substanceless limbs leapt and writhed through the gnarled alleys of the forest Overhead the moon looked down with thin and silver lethargy on the havoc kindled by the hand of man Banners of Gold Pamela Kaufman,2015-10-21 The enchanting Alix of Wanthwaite returns in a suspenseful and richly textured adventure in which nothing less than the future of England is at stake Alix is home at her beloved estate on the Scottish border when King Richard s soldiers march into her castle and demand to take her to the Continent with them King Richard has been captured while on Crusade and Alix is among the nobles whose lives will be collateral for the king s ransom But when she s delivered to Queen Eleanor of Aquitaine Richard s mother she is dumbfounded to learn that the queen has other plans for her King Richard needs an heir Eleanor tells Alix Repulsed by his queen a homely religious fanatic he has told his mother that the only woman he wants is the one he met on Crusade when she was disguised as a boy Richard wants Alix to be his mistress and the mother of the next Plantagenet king Now a beguiling and irrepressible young woman Alix faces more tribulations and romance on this trip to Europe where affairs of the state and affairs of the heart are intricately intertwined Poetry Harriet Monroe,1916 Soulmaker Alexander Nemerov,2016-03-29 A personal reassessment of Lewis Hine s iconic haunting photos of child workers in the early twentieth century Between 1908 and 1917 the American photographer and sociologist Lewis Hine 1874 1940 took some of the most memorable pictures of child workers ever made Traveling around the United States while working for the National Child Labor Committee he photographed children in textile mills coal mines and factories from Vermont and Massachusetts to Georgia Tennessee and Missouri Using his camera as a tool of social activism Hine had a major influence on the development of documentary photography But many of his pictures transcend their original purpose Concentrating on these photographs Alexander Nemerov reveals the special eeriness of Hine s beautiful and disturbing work as never before Richly illustrated the book also includes arresting contemporary photographs by Jason Francisco of the places Hine documented Soulmaker is a striking new meditation on Hine s photographs It explores how Hine s children lived in time even how they might continue to live for all time Thinking about what the mill would be like after he was gone after the children were gone Hine intuited what lives and dies in the second a photograph is made His photographs seek the beauty fragility and terror of moments on earth
