University of Cambridge For not to mention the wonderful way in which the famous Jeremy Taylor has taken the cream of Conjugal Precepts in his Sermon called The Marriage Ring or the large and copious use he has made in his Holy Living of three other Essays in this volume namely those On Curiosity On Restraining Anger and On Contentedness of Mind proving conclusively what a storehouse he found the Moralia we have evidence that that most delightful poet Robert Herrick read the Moralia too when at Cambridge so that one cannot but think it was a work read in the University course generally in those days For in a letter to his uncle written from Cambridge asking for books or money for books he makes the following remark How kind Arcisilaus the philosopher was unto Apelles the painter Plutark in his Morals will tell you In 1882 the Reverend C W King Senior Fellow of Trinity College Cambridge translated the six Theosophical Essays of the Moralia forming a volume in Bohns Classical Library The present volume consists of the twenty six Ethical Essays which are in my opinion the cream of the Moralia and constitute a highly interesting series of treatises on what might be called The Ethics of the Hearth and Home I have grouped these Essays in such a manner as to enable the reader to read together such as touch on the same or on kindred subjects     The Pleasures of Life ...
