The Song of Songs and Its Tradition in Renaissance Love Lyric Camilla Caporicci, 2025-01-29 Traditionally attributed to King Solomon and called by Rabbi Akiva the Holy of Holies among sacred Scriptures Mishnah Yadayim 3:5 the Song of Songs is one of the most fascinating and controversial biblical books and played an essential role in the shaping of European spirituality and culture Combining in a unique way a sensual and deeply lyrical celebration of love with a well established tradition of Christian allegorical

interpretation this text crucial to both the Middle Ages and the early modern period held a particular appeal for poets devoted not only to religious verse but also to love poetry The Song of Songs and Its Tradition in Renaissance Love Lyric is the first systematic and wide ranging investigation of the multifaceted use of the Song of Songs in Renaissance love lyric poetry with specific attention to Italian French and especially English poetic production At the same time this investigation is embedded into a narrative that comprising two initial chapters devoted to medieval poetry and to Francesco Petrarca represents an unprecedented attempt to trace the role of the Song of Songs in the rise and development of the European love lyric following its path or rather one of its paths from the medieval origins of this tradition to the end of the sixteenth century The picture of the general impact of the Song of Songs in the development of the European love lyric is combined with in depth analysis of key works by specific authors including Dante Alighieri Francesco Petrarca Torquato Tasso Marguerite de Navarre Anne de Marquets Cl ment Marot Richard Barnfield Edmund Spenser William Shakespeare John Donne Elizabeth Melville and Aemilia Lanyer promoting a contextualization of their significance within a new interpretative framework While the comparative standpoint characterizing this study fosters a deeper comprehension of the evolution of the European love lyric its multidisciplinary approach which considers the Song of Songs as the centre of a web of dynamics pertaining to the fields of literature philosophy theology and religious and cultural history contributes to the understanding of the thought and spirit of ages crucial to the shaping of European culture Novelistic Love in the Platonic Tradition Jennie Wang,1997

The love story is an integral part of many novels What is its narrative status How does it function and why In this original study of Socratic love stories from Plato through Fielding and Faulkner to the Postmodernists Jennie Wang proposes a new narrative theory in the study of the novel which deconstructs the mimesis of love stories and reconstructs their historicity Wang claims that in the Platonic tradition the construction of love stories is often a dramatization of the author s historical vision philosophical speculations cultural criticism or political ideology Novelistic love functions as a literary medium a power of free speech that enables the novelist to speak unspeakable truths and include excluded subjects Wang s work will be of interest to both philosophers and scholars of American literature and postmodernism The Hebrew Review and
