Loving Garbo The Story Of Greta Garbo Cecil Beaton And Mercedes De Acosta:

Loving Garbo Hugo Vickers, 1994 That Furious Lesbian Robert A Schanke, 2016-09-06 In this first book length biography of Mercedes de Acosta theatre historian Robert A Schanke adroitly mines lost archival materials and mixes in his own interviews with de Acosta s intimates to correct established myths and at last construct an accurate detailed and vibrant portrait of the flamboyantly uninhibited early twentieth century author poet and playwright Born to wealthy Spanish immigrants Mercedes de Acosta 1893 1968 lived in opulence and traveled in the same social circles as the Astors and Vanderbilts Introduced to the New York theater scene at an early age her dual loves of performance and of women informed every aspect of her life thereafter Alice B Toklas's observation Say what you will about Mercedes she's had the most important women in the twentieth century was well justified as her romantic conquests included such internationally renowned beauties as Greta Garbo Marlene Dietrich Isadora Duncan and Eva Le Gallienne as well as Alla Nazimova Tamara Karsavina Pola Negri and Ona Munson More than a record of her personal life and infamous romances this account offers the first analysis of the complete oeuvre of de Acosta s literary works including three volumes of poetry two novels two film scripts and a dozen plays Although only two of her plays were ever published during her lifetime four of them were produced featuring such stage luminaries as John Gielgud Ralph Richardson and Eva Le Gallienne Critics praised her first volume of poetry Moods in 1919 and predicted her rise to literary fame but the love of other women that fueled her writing also limited her opportunities to fulfill this destiny Failing to achieve any lasting fame she died in relative poverty at the age of seventy five De Acosta lived her desires publicly with verve and vigor at a time when few others would dare and for that she paid the price of marginalized obscurity Until now With That Furious Lesbian Schanke at last establishes Mercedes de Acosta s rightful place as a pioneer and indeed a champion in the early struggle for lesbian rights in this country Robert A Schanke has edited a companion to this biography Women in Turmoil Six Plays by Mercedes de Acosta also available from Southern The Gay & Lesbian Theatrical Legacy Billy J. Harbin, Kim Marra, Robert A. Schanke, 2005 Illinois University Press Recovers the hidden history of theater professionals who transgressed the gendered expectations of their time Women in Turmoil Robert A Schanke, 2008-08-18 In this first publication of six plays by the flamboyantly uninhibited author poet and playwright Mercedes de Acosta 1893 1968 theater historian Robert A Schanke rescues these lost theatrical writings from the dusty margins of obscurity Often autobiographical always rife with gender struggle and still decidedly stageworthy Women in Turmoil Six Plays by Mercedes de Acosta constitutes a significant find for the canon of gay and lesbian drama In her 1960 autobiography Here Lies the Heart de Acosta notes that as she was contemplating marriage to a man in 1920 she was in a strange turmoil about world affairs my own writing suffrage sex and my inner spiritual development The voice in these plays is that of a lesbian in turmoil marginalized and ignored Her same sex desires and struggles for acceptance fueled her writings and nowhere is that more evident than in the plays contained herein The women characters struggle with unfulfilling marriages divorce unrequited sexual desire suppressed identity and a longing for recognition Of the six plays only the first two were ever produced Jehanne d Arc 1922 premiered in Paris with de Acosta s lover at the time Eva Le Gallienne starring and Norman Bel Geddes designing the set and lights In 1934 de Acosta adapted it into a screenplay for Greta Garbo then her lover but it was never filmed Portraying rampant anti Semitism in a small New England town Jacob Slovak 1923 was performed both on Broadway and in London with the London production starring John Gielgud and Ralph Richardson The Mother of Christ 1924 is a long one act play written for the internationally known actress Eleonora Duse After Duse s death several other actresses including Eva Bartok Jeanne Eagels and Lillian Gish explored productions of the play Igor Stravinsky wrote a score Norman Bel Geddes designed a set and Gladys Calthrop designed costumes However the play was never produced Her most autobiographical play World Without End 1925 and her most sensational play The Dark Light 1926 both unfold through plots of sibling rivalry incest and suicide With overtones of Ibsen Illusion 1928 continues the themes of de Acosta's previous plays with her rough and seedy cast of characters but here the playwright's drama grows to incorporate a yearning for belonging as well as strong elements of class conflict What notoriety remains associated with de Acosta has less to do with her writing than with her infamous romances with the likes of Greta Garbo Marlene Dietrich Isadora Duncan Alla Nazimova Eva Le Gallienne Tamara Karsavina Pola Negri and Ona Munson Through this collection of six powerfully poignant dramas editor Robert A Schanke strives to correct myths about Mercedes de Acosta and to restore both her name and her literary achievements to their proper place in history Robert A Schanke has authored the original biography That Furious Lesbian The Story of Mercedes de Acosta also available from Southern Illinois University Press Maureen Emerson, 2018-04-12 In 1926 Barry Dierks a young American architect arrived in Paris and fell in love with France With his partner an ex officer in the British Army he built a white flat roofed Modernist masterpiece that rested on the rocks below the Esterel with views across the Mediterranean They called it Le Trident From the moment it was built it captivated the Riviera As commissions for more villas flooded in Barry Dierks and Eric Sawyer those two charmers flourished at the heart of Riviera society Over the years Dierks would design and build over 70 of the Riviera's most recognisable villas for clients ranging from Somerset Maugham's Villa Mauresque and Jack Warner's Villa Aujourd hui to the Marquess of Cholmondeley s Villa Le Roc and Maxine Elliott s Chateau de l Horizon later the home of Aly Khan and Rita Hayworth Riviera Dreaming tells the dazzling story of the lives loves and adventures that played out behind the walls of these glamorous houses and provides an unparalleled portrait of life on the Cote d Azur at the height of the Jazz Age Encyclopedia of Lesbian and Gay Histories and Cultures Bonnie Zimmerman, George Haggerty, 2021-06-13 A rich heritage that needs to be documented Beginning in 1869 when the study of homosexuality can be said to have begun with the establishment of sexology this encyclopedia offers accounts of the most important international developments in an area that now occupies a critical place in many fields of academic endeavors It covers a long history and a dynamic and ever changing present while
