Fan Girls and the Media Adrienne Trier-Bieniek, 2015-02-12. In the broad spectrum of popular culture, one can be a fan of just about anything: comic books, television shows, fantasy novels, movie franchises, musical artists, and so on. Because fans are fluid and ever-changing, however, defining them poses a challenge. As a result, too few scholars have yet to focus on the impact of gender in media consumption, leading to a limited portrait of what male and female fans look for. In Fan Girls and the Media: Creating Characters, Consuming Culture, Adrienne Trier-Bieniek has assembled a collection of essays that demonstrate the gendered aspect of fandom and explore the ways different forms of media challenge stereotypical ideals of how culture is consumed. Contributors examine a wide range of fan issues from gendered stereotypes in the Star Trek and Twilight franchises to gender roles in Tyler Perry films and The Real Housewives of Atlanta. Other essays look at the female comedy fan community, the appeal of avenging woman characters written by men, and the use of social media by women in the video game culture. This collection describes how gender is present in fandom, demonstrating the need to combat the marginalization of female identities in various cultural outlets. Fan Girls and the Media will be of interest to anyone studying fandom but also students and scholars of sociology, media, and gender studies.

Women and Romance Susan Ostrov Weisser, 2001-07. Weisser, English, Adelphi U. writes that her anthology is for anyone who is interested in understanding the conflicted but powerful female urge to experience the pleasure and endure the pain of romantic love. In particular, she explores the collision of pervasive media images of romance with feminist values of independence and self-assertion. Several dozen historic and contemporary works of criticism, personal essays, and letters by feminist and anti-feminist thinkers consider changing images of romantic love and whether romance fundamentally weakens or empowers women. Contributors include Jean-Jacques Rousseau, Charlotte Brontë, Karen Horney, Simone de Beauvoir, Rita Mae Brown, bell hooks, Vivian Gornick, and Carolyn Heilbrun. c. Book News Inc.

Made in India S. Bhaskaran, 2004-11-26. Made in India examines seemingly disparate and high-profile events in postcolonial India that captured national and transnational diasporic interest since the 1990s: the emergence of the Indian homosexual, the new transnational heterosexual woman, lesbian suicides, marriage and kinship contracts in small towns around India, and the simultaneous evolution of the modern homophobia and lesbian NGOs. These events demonstrate the material, political, and cultural contexts within which postcolonial subjects negotiate their lived experiences within moments of decolonization and recolonization.

To Be Continued... Robert C. Allen, 2002-01-04. To Be Continued explores the world's most popular form of television drama, the soap opera. From Denver to Delhi, Moscow to Manchester, audiences eagerly await the next episode of As the World Turns, The Rich Also Weep, or EastEnders. But the popularity of soap operas in Britain and the US pales in comparison to the role that they play in media cultures in other parts of the world. To Be Continued investigates both the cultural specificity of television soap operas and their reception in other cultures covering soap production and soap watching in the U S Asia Europe Australia and Latin America The contributors consider the nature of soap as a media text the history of the serial narrative as a form and the role of the soap opera in the development of feminist media criticism To Be Continued presents the first scholarly examination of soap opera as global media phenomenon Victorian Traffic Sue Thomas, 2009-05-05 Organised around the themes Home and Abroad Performative Traffic and Image Circulation Mobility Victorian Traffic Identity Performance Exchange variously addresses the cultural dimensions of traffic in the long Victorian period cross cultural experience colonial and racial imaginaries everyday literary autobiographical and professional stagings of identity and trade in metaphors communications texts images celebrity character types and quilts The concept of traffic underpins historical interpretation and theoretical formulations and the rhetorics of trade in Victorian usage are contextualised Understandings of identity emphasise the performative and the negotiation of agency in relation to social and cultural scriptings of gender class ethnicity and community The essays have a wide global range and reach This collection of essays takes as its theme an enormously important concept for the nineteenth century traffic a term that in a time of unprecedented commercial and imperial expansion technological developments population growth and urbanization acquired new resonance and came to signify the intensely transactional nature of modernity One of Ruskin s most searing critiques of the spiritual condition of England an invited lecture he delivered in 1864 on the topic of the Bradford Exchange is entitled Traffic and the word clearly signifies for him all that is wrong with post industrial capitalism But this stimulating volume encompasses a range of other significations that have additionally come to accrue around the term relating for example to inter cultural exchange to the circulation of ideas and images to the commodification of identity and to literature art and performance in the market place The scope of the collection is appropriately global including essays on England s relations of exchange with Australia New Zealand North America the Far East and the Caribbean What we are shown ineluctably is that the traffic between Victorian Britain and the reaches of empire between Home and Abroad was two way a vehicle for cross cultural encounter mediation and trade and that cultural identity is relational circulatory and always in motion Hilary Fraser Birkbeck University of London Facing the East in the West Barbara Korte, Eva Ulrike Pirker, Sissy Helff, 2010 Over the last decade migration flows from Central and Eastern Europe have become an issue in political debates about human rights social integration multiculturalism and citizenship in Great Britain The increasing number of Eastern Europeans living in Britain has provoked ambivalent and diverse responses including representations in film and literature that range from travel writing humorous fiction mockumentaries musicals drama and children s literature to the thriller The present volume discusses a wide range of representations of Eastern and Central Europe and its people as reflected in British literature film and culture The book offers new readings of authors who have influenced the cultural imagination since the nineteenth century such as Bram Stoker George Bernard Shaw Joseph Conrad and Arthur Koestler It also discusses the work of more
