

Phoebe Dixon

Phoebe Dixon is a professional tennis player who won the 2050 Grand Play in her first professional tennis competition. From then, she became a household name and continued winning international tennis competitions, making her an established athlete. Her love for tennis began at the age of seven when her neighbor taught her the sport. Although busy with tennis, she still acquired her Bachelor of Science in Kinesiology from Wildingham University. She is a recipient of the Kierkland Sports Award, Comeback Tennis Player of the Year Award, and Tournament of the Year Award. She also became a member of the USA Tennis Organization in 2053. When she's not holding her blue tennis racket, you can find her reading books and watching movies, like any other person. She is also interested in learning new languages and cultures.

Absent Dialogue Anit Mukherjee, 2019-10-01 Civilian control over the military is widely hailed as one of the major successes of India's democracy. Because it is so rare especially among post colonial states this control is rightfully celebrated. But has this come at a cost? In The Absent Dialogue Anit Mukherjee argues that the pattern of civil military relations in India has hampered its military effectiveness. Diving deep into understanding the organization and internal processes within the Indian military he explains how Indian politicians and bureaucrats have long been content with the formal and ritualistic exercise of civilian control while the military continues to operate in institutional silos. Yet there has been little substantive engagement between the two. To support this claim Mukherjee closely examines the variables most closely associated with military effectiveness: weapons procurement, jointness, the ability of separate military services to operate together, officer education, promotion policies and defense planning. Further Mukherjee shows how India's pattern of civil military relations best characterized as an absent dialogue adversely affects each of these processes. While the book focuses on India it also highlights the importance of civilian expertise and institutional design in enhancing civilian control and military effectiveness in other democracies. Informed by more than a hundred and fifty interviews and recently available archival material The Absent Dialogue sheds new light on India's military and will reshape our understanding of both the history and contemporary dynamics of civil military relations and recurring problems therein. Short Stories from the British Indian Army J

Francis, 2018-07-01 The book gives account of 20 important battles fought by the Indian Army under British Rule from 1898 till 1945 and presenting them in this Book as short stories. The book starts with the North Western Frontiers of India where an incomparable battle was fought. Then it takes the readers through Western Europe, Ottoman Empire and Persia during The Great War in the second decade of the twentieth century and to the Indo Afghan Border once again. Victoria Cross

Bibliography Alan Jordan, John Mulholland, Victoria Cross Research Group, 1999 Many books have been written about the Victoria Cross and its recipients. The first published work on the subject appeared in 1857 the same year as the first VC investiture. A resurgence of interest in the 1990s led to the publication of numerous new titles but there was no comprehensive bibliography of the Victoria Cross until John Mulholland and Alan Jordan's first volume appeared in 1999 representing the efforts of a team of researchers in the UK, Canada and Australia. This second edition completely updates their research increasing the number of books listed, annotated and cross referenced from 640 to around 1,100 and including all the Journals of the Victoria Cross Society. Part I contains a listing of all key VC titles. Part II lists non-fiction and fictional books written by VC recipients and the index lists in alphabetical order every VC recipient with the date of the London Gazette citation. Additionally it identifies the books in which the recipients are referred to significantly enabling the researcher to quickly identify key works. The bibliography is an important contribution to Victoria Cross literature and an essential up to date reference guide for anyone with an interest in the decoration. Defence Reporting in India V.
