An international array of major experts explore the treatment of masculinity and the male body in the cinemas of Africa Australia China France Germany Great Britain India North America Spain Taiwan and Vietnam as well as Hollywood. Their common concern is to reveal how the representation of the male body is used in films to convey a country's anxieties about its national identity and history as well as how it engages with questions of racial sexual or gender politics. They discuss key actors directors and films of these countries from Ewan MacGregor in Peter Greenaway's The Pillow Book through the films of Wong Kar Wai to Paul Hogan as Mick Dundee in Crocodile Dundee. In so doing Mysterious Skin also provides a strong overview of important cinema produced around the world in the last twenty years.
